Jesus' Hands

Throughout the Bible, we hear of many stories of how Jesus helped those in need while He was here on earth. He made blind men see, He cured those who were ill, He fed thousands who were hungry.

St. Theresa of Avila has said: "Christ has no body now but yours, no hands, no feet but yours..." We have been called to help those in need.

Daily, loving gestures that may seem so ordinary, are clearly extensions of Jesus' hands. For example, let's take a look at our very own school secretary and how she takes care of any sick child that comes to her office. And how about our day care staff who lovingly take care of the little ones by changing their diapers, feeding them and holding them when they're fussy.

Last evening I received a phone call from a parishioner asking how one could go about getting some help for a family of six who all have Covid. Being quarantined they have no income and have no way of getting groceries. Arrangements were made for our parishioner to pick up food from the pantry and deliver the groceries to the family. The pantry will provide food for the family as long as they need the help. Simple acts of thoughtfulness like this is an extension of Jesus's hands doing what he would do if He was here on earth today.

We also can be an extension of Jesus's hands by doing simple things like: helping a neighbor shovel their walkway, opening the door for someone who is using a walker, writing a note of sympathy to someone who has lost a loved one, a note to say "hi" to a shut-in, or a letter to a military person serving our country. Simple, little ordinary things that can mean so much to those who are on the receiving end.

So let's think about how we can be an extension of Jesus' hands today and everyday!

Peace and God's Blessings to you!
