Live Well in 2022

Are you living with a chronic health condition that is keeping you from doing the things you want to do? The Aging & Disability Resource Center of the Lakeshore, along with Lakeside Community Church in Algoma, will be hosting a Living Well Workshop each Wednesday, beginning March 9th through April 13th from 9am -11:30am. This workshop is for older adults living with at least one chronic health condition such as asthma, arthritis, cancer, diabetes, heart disease, pain and/or fatigue and others. This class will build confidence to manage your condition and take better care of yourself. Please call the ADRC at 1-877-416-7083 for more information or to register.

Pride, avarice, envy, wrath, lust, gluttony and sloth are referred to as the capital sins because they are doorways to all other sins. God gives us everything necessary to fight these sins, especially the sacraments and virtues. This Lent we'll focus on some of these (not all) which will help us.

The cardinal virtues of prudence, justice, fortitude, and temperance (and the virtues that flow from them such as humility, generosity, obedience, etc.) grow within us through our human effort – but the theological virtues of faith, hope, and charity are “infused by God into the souls of the faithful.” We receive these pure gifts.

Lord, help us to cooperate with Your grace and work with all our might against the enemies of our soul.

“Pride is the beginning of all sin.” St. Thomas Aquinas

Some remedies against pride:

Humility teaches me the truth about myself & leads to penitence

† Everything I am and every talent I have is a gift from God.

† I have been created by God because He loves me.

† I need God. I am totally dependent upon Him.

To cultivate humility within me, I can

+ ponder Jesus' words, “Without Me, you can do nothing.” Jn 15:5

+ remind myself throughout the day that all my abilities and talents are gifts to me from God and to surrender myself to His will.

+ examine the motive behind my good works and do things for the greater honor and glory of God, not myself.

+ confess all my sins in Confession and accept Jesus' mercy.

+ pray for and do good to those who hurt or offend me.

+ in charity, train myself to appreciate the good qualities in others.

Obedience to God's Word will help me embrace His will.

† I can make time to read the Bible and pray each day to be better able to hear and recognize His voice and carry out His will.

† I can study the Catechism of the Catholic Church and strive to embrace the teachings of the Catholic Church.

† With a priest, I can discuss the areas I have difficulty following the teachings of the Catholic Church and consider his explanation.

Gratitude turns my heart to God in thanksgiving for everything.

† I can train myself to see the good & thank God for His blessings.

† I can thank God for His commandments and guidance.

Spiritual Poverty relies on God's grace, guidance, and mercy.

† I can pray a Morning Offering, offering to God all that I will do this day and leaving the results (“good” or “bad”) to Him.

+ I can detach my heart voluntarily from the praise of others and attach my heart to God and seek His praise alone.

† I can let go of control and choose to trust God and His plan.
