Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a several-month process for an adult wishing to become a Catholic through the Sacraments of Initiation (Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist) or through a Profession of Faith. These rites are celebrated at the Easter Vigil. Please call the Parish Office.

Infant Baptism is generally celebrated on the first and third Sundays of the month at 1:00 pm in the Church. The Baptism Preparation Program for parents and godparents, if possible, is held each month. Please call the Parish Office to make arrangements.

Confirmation Adolescent Confirmation Sacramental Preparation is a structured 2 (two)-year faith journey beginning in junior high in our School and our religious education program, Family Program, and continuing through high school to complete the 2-year requirement. Adult Confirmation Sacramental Preparation takes place in a subcategory of the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. For more information please contact Barb Cegielski, Director of Religious Education.

The Eucharist is brought to the homebound by Care Ministers. Arrangements are made by calling Mary Ann Harvey at 847-323-6910. First Eucharist preparation for children begins in first grade and is celebrated in the spring of second grade. For more information contact Barb Cegielski.

Matrimony arrangements made a year in advance allow for adequate reservation time, participation in marriage preparation programs and liturgical planning. Please call the Parish Office.

Anointing of the Sick is celebrated in the Fall during a communal celebration. Special requests for this sacrament can be arranged by calling the Parish Office.

Reconciliation is celebrated after the Sunday 9:30am Mass with previous notice to the priest or by appointment. Communal Reconciliation Services are held during Advent and Lent.

Dear St. Athanasius Parishioners:

The Spirit of Advent never goes away!

This year the season of Advent and Christmas will not be celebrated in the same way as we did last year due to the pandemic. Just think that some of us are already adjusting our plans for festive holidays and family gatherings to align with safety regulations and protocols in order to keep everyone safe. For others experiencing the loss of their loved ones, whom they could not honor with a traditional burial celebration due to the virus, it will be a challenging time of mourning. Despite all these restrictions and limited ways of being together for the sake of all, the Spirit of Advent never goes away. More than ever, we can easily relate to the promises and consoling words coming from the Prophet Isaiah and from the gospel this weekend.

“Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God.” It is so easy during this time when so much turmoil is going on in the world and as Covid-19 cases rise again, to feel afraid, frustrated, depressed and discouraged. As we start to plan and prepare spiritually during Advent in anticipation of Christmas, let us console and comfort each other with words that uplift our hearts as God does for us. Maybe this is the time to brighten our daily conversation among family and friends with words filled with hope and faith. The Prophet Isaiah assures us how God is: “Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.” According to the Prophet, God feeds our hearts with his unending love, mercy and care. God is on our side. God carries us in his bosom as we cope with this pandemic, losses of loved ones, jobs, and learn flexibility in our daily routines.

As the sacred season of Advent unfolds before us, let us follow the advice of the Prophet and take time “to make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God.” More than ever, I have heard from some of you how the experience of this pandemic has helped us see where our heart is. We have been given the time and opportunity to reflect, ponder, and meditate upon the priorities in our life, our spiritual life and our faith journey. For some of us, this pandemic has compelled us to make sacrifices for others, and to make a highway for God where it used to be just wasteland. As we prepare the way of the Lord during this season, let us be the ones who keep the Spirit of Advent alive in our hearts and homes.

In the Lord's Joy,

Fr. Hernan Cuevas

We would like to thank all of our generous donors for their financial support!

In addition to responding to our regular requests for help with utility and rent payments, this month our conference distributed Jewel food cards for Thanksgiving meals to over 45 households in our local community.

The outpouring of gratitude from these individuals and families has been overwhelming. And in a few weeks we will be undertaking another large distribution of food cards, just in time for the Christmas holidays.

To support these efforts you can make a donation to our poor box located in the church vestibule, or you can contribute using GiveCentral on the parish website at:

<https://www.givecentral.org/location/432/event/10811>

Thank you for your continued generosity ... our work on behalf of the needy would not be possible without you! May God bless you and please keep our clients in your prayers.

Every year, St. A's is very generous in donating to the St. A's Holiday Wish Baskets to benefit the Howard Area Community Center (HACC). This year, due to COVID-19, the structure of the program will be different because no in-kind donations will be accepted. Instead HACC has set up a donation page where donors can purchase gift cards for those in need. We know many of you want to direct your donation to children in need, and you can do that by selecting either the Early Childhood Education (ECE) (serves children ages 0-5) or the Youth Development (YD) (children ages 9-18) department, so that your gift card will be sent to a family participating in that Department.

SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

Lectionary: 5

READING I Isaiah 40:1-5, 9-11

Comfort, give comfort to my people, says your God. Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and proclaim to her that her service is at an end, her guilt is expiated; indeed, she has received from the hand of the LORD double for all her sins.

A voice cries out: In the desert prepare the way of the LORD! Make straight in the wasteland a highway for our God! Every valley shall be filled in, every mountain and hill shall be made low; the rugged land shall be made a plain, the rough country, a broad valley. Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed, and all people shall see it together; for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.

Go up on to a high mountain, Zion, herald of glad tidings; cry out at the top of your voice, Jerusalem, herald of good news! Fear not to cry out and say to the cities of Judah: Here is your God! Here comes with power the Lord GOD, who rules by his strong arm; here is his reward with him, his recompense before him. Like a shepherd he feeds his flock; in his arms he gathers the lambs, carrying them in his bosom, and leading the ewes with care.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM Psalm 85:9-10-11-12, 13-14 (A different psalm may be sung at the discretion of the liturgist)

R. (8) Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what God proclaims; the LORD—for he proclaims peace to his people.

Near indeed is his salvation to those who fear him, glory dwelling in our land.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

Kindness and truth shall meet; justice and peace shall kiss.

Truth shall spring out of the earth, and justice shall look down from heaven.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

The LORD himself will give his benefits; our land shall yield its increase.

Justice shall walk before him, and prepare the way of his steps.

R. Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

READING II 2 Peter 3:8-14

Do not ignore this one fact, beloved, that with the Lord one day is like a thousand years and a thousand years like one day. The Lord does not delay his promise, as some regard “delay,” but he is patient with you, not wishing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord will come like a thief, and then the heavens will pass away with a mighty roar and the elements will be dissolved by fire, and the earth and everything done on it will be found out.

Since everything is to be dissolved in this way, what sort of persons ought you to be, conducting yourselves in holiness and devotion, waiting for and hastening the coming of the day of God, because of which the heavens will be dissolved in flames and the elements melted by fire. But according to his promise we await new heavens and a new earth in which righteousness dwells. Therefore, beloved, since you await these things, be eager to be found without spot or blemish before him, at peace.

GOSPEL Mark 1:1-8

The beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ the Son of God. As it is written in Isaiah the prophet: Behold, I am sending my messenger ahead of you; he will prepare your way. A voice of one crying out in the desert: “Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths.” John the Baptist appeared in the desert proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. People of the whole Judean countryside and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem were going out to him and were being baptized by him in the Jordan River as they acknowledged their sins. John was clothed in camel’s hair, with a leather belt around his waist. He fed on locusts and wild honey. And this is what he proclaimed: “One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.”

PENITENTIAL ACT Form A, Confiteor

I confess to almighty God and to you, my brothers and sisters, that I have greatly sinned, in my thoughts and in my words, in what I have done and in what I have failed to do, through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault; therefore I ask blessed Mary ever-Virgin, all the Angels and Saints, and you, my brothers and sisters, to pray for me to the Lord our God.

PENITENTIAL ACT Form B

Priest: Have mercy on us, O Lord.

People: For we have sinned against you.

Priest: Show us, O Lord, your mercy.

People: And grant us your salvation.

May almighty God have mercy on us, forgive us our sins, and bring us to everlasting life.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify
you, we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.

Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son, Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer; you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.

For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord, you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father.
Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.
For us men and for our salvation
he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary,
and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried,
and rose again on the third day
in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated
at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory
to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
 who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven, and is seated
 at the right hand of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting. Amen.
