TODAY'S SCRIPTURE REFLECTION

If you took your child to the restroom during the Liturgy of the Word, you might walk away with one of two interpretations of Jesus as King. The first and second readings are bold and victorious. We see Christ coming on the clouds for the final judgment of heaven and earth. The Gospel sets a very different tone. Jesus is under arrest and facing death before Pontius Pilate. We know how this story will end. So if Christ is King, what does it mean? Is he a glorious conqueror or a suffering servant?

“My kingdom does not belong to this world.” Here is the heart of Jesus’s reign. He is a king — and his “subjects” are alive and well on earth — but, ultimately, Jesus’s kingdom transcends our earthly concepts of power. Jesus faced down the temptation of a solely earthly kingship. At the close of his 40 days in the desert, the devil offered him the kingdoms of the world. Jesus only had to sacrifice his heavenly values and worship Satan. The same temptations to distort the kingship of Christ are present to us today. Jesus’s invitation also endures. “Everyone who belongs to the truth listens to my voice.” It is important for us to belong to the full truth of Christ’s kingdom.

First, our own hearts must be transformed. Our own rebellions in favor of selfishness and against holiness must be conquered by God’s grace. Second, we must work to transform the world as best we can in our own corner of it. Like Jesus shows us by his life and death, this doesn’t mean domination. It means service, sacrifice, respect, and love. Our lives must “testify to the truth” of Jesus Christ, who lays down his life for his people. That is the true beauty of Christ the King!
