We are Disciples: Learning, Loving & Living Christ's Mission

This Week: We are Disciples: Entrusted with Stewardship

In our readings today, we hear St. Paul say, "If I do so willingly, I have a recompense, but if unwillingly, then I have been entrusted with a stewardship." St. Paul is telling us that we must spread the Gospel at all times, even when we don't feel like it. Many people believe that spreading the Gospel is work for someone else to do, but that can be no further from truth. We all have been entrusted with a commission or a stewardship to share our faith story with others and/or to spread the Good News of Jesus Christ. We are called to share how God has touched our lives, what He has done for us, and encourage people to try God's way because of what He has brought to us or freed us from. God leads us to true meaning in life, purpose, wisdom and ultimately lasting happiness.

Our way and not God's way (individualism) is a trend that is ever increasing in our world today. This individualism wants us to buy in to the belief that emphasizes, "I was created for myself so that I could satisfy all my needs and wants." While on the other hand, Catholicism wants to emphasize that we have been created by God and for God, not for own purposes but for God's purposes.

We must overcome self or individualism. In regards to this battle, Aristotle said, "I count him braver who overcomes his desires than him who conquers his enemies; for the hardest victory is over self" or as Jesus said, "If you want to be my disciples you must deny yourself pick up your cross and follow me." We are not our own. We have been purchased at a price, the price of the cross. All that we have comes from God, it belongs to Him but He allows us to use His things. We are called to steward them or to manage them in a way that they will grow and be around for our generations and the next.

Anytime you are responsible for something that belongs to someone else, that is stewardship or in other words, a steward is someone who manages someone else's things. Taking care of a friend's dog while they are out of town, babysitting your neighbor's kids, valet parking someone's car, etc. are all examples of stewardship. In this same way, God entrusts His gifts and resources to us. Everything we have, we have because of Him. While they are in our possession and we can use them however we please, God trusts that we will do much more than spend it on ourselves or only on things that matter to us. God challenges us to use those resources and gifts in ways that advance His interests. We are called to use them for the betterment of the Kingdom and provide for the needs of our neighbor. He gives us the responsibility to manage them wisely, on His behalf.

The first step to being a good steward is realizing that you are a steward. Every single person on this earth, Catholic, another denomination or no denomination is a steward. The responsibility of being a good steward is applying our time, talent and treasure in a way that represents Christ. In our Gospel reading today and throughout the New Testament, we hear of Jesus healing the sick, helping the poor and vulnerable, hanging around those who were considered "less than" in society and He invites us to be a part of His mission.

This week you will receive a brochure detailing the "We are Disciples..." program our parish that we will be participating in over the next few weeks. Our "We are Disciples..." program has continued (even through 2020) to make a great impact in our parish and community over the last 3 years. I invite you to prayerfully look through this brochure and consider ways in which you can share your time, talent, and treasure in a way that represents our Lord. Our goal for this program is to bring souls to Christ, increase transparency, raise awareness, and advance God's interests. Our annual commitment Sunday will be held at all Masses on the weekend of February 13th and 14th, 2021. Please prayerfully discern your ability to renew your weekly offertory gift to support of Church of the Blessed Sacrament.

It is in giving that we truly receive!

We are Disciples...

This week you will receive a brochure introducing our We are Disciples... Program. Our community has spent the last several months responding to this historical crisis in so many ways. I'm proud to be to part of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament faith family. Throughout 2020 and still today, we have had to get creative on ways to bring Jesus to parishioners and those in the community. With the challenges of COVID, we had parishioners step up in ways like never before both in ministry and financially. . We are so grateful for the sharing of your time, talent and treasure. Our parish would not be here without you!

Next weekend (Feb. 13/14) we will have our yearly commitment weekend at all Masses. We began our We are Disciples...program in 2017 as a way to begin or recommit our financial blessings to our parish family. The importance of the We are Disciples...program is that it helps us bring souls to Christ, increases transparency, raises awareness, and serves as a reminder that it is in giving that we truly receive.

Below you will find the importance of this program and how it helps us grow:

Year	Commitment Cards Rec'd	$ increase	% increase
2017	287	$314,531	112%
2019	236	$134,604	31%
2020	213	$113,619	27%

- Our Church of the Blessed Sacrament Outreach program served 106 clients!
- We exceeded our giving Tuesday goal of $3,800 to help with PPE @ St. Mugagga.
- We hosted our 12th ALPHA session with the challenges of COVID and had 65 participants & team members!
- We continue to form 88 families through our family based faith formation program.
- We hosted Jubilee Christmas for 30 families with a total of 81 children in a new way because of COVID but with the same love and care.

What does CBS mean to you?

"Church of the Blessed Sacrament is an important part of my life. It is where I developed a relationship with God and met my faith family. I am loved unconditionally by God. He forgives my sins, all I have to do is ask. He has blessed me with so many gifts and strengths. When I share them with others, it comes back ten fold. He teaches me everyday, through scripture and faith, and sends the Holy Spirit to guide me. All I have to do is listen. I give because I can and should. When I share my God given gifts, I benefit the people God has placed in my life and spread His love. It is God at work. It is what you and I are put here to do on our journey to eternal life." – Paulette Moody

Our goal for the program is 100% participation. I invite you to use this time to prayerfully discern where you can share your gifts and talents with your parish family. Can you pray an extra rosary for our parish? Attend Daily Mass? Offer a Holy Hour? There are many ways to be involved in this process and we need you!

Please bring your commitment card to Mass the weekend of Feb. 13/14. If you forget, an usher would be happy to bring you one during the commitment process. You may also fill out a commitment card online at blessedsacramentwl.org/wearedisciples. Please pray for our parish and the success of this program.

ECHO Apprentice

This month the Echo apprentice will be embarking on a week-long immersive conference/course on Theology of the Body. Here is a brief explanation of what this branch of theology offers:

John Paul II speaks of the body as a theology, that is a study of God. Christopher West, a catholic author and speaker, calls Theology of the Body, “a revolution not only for Catholics, but for all Christians”. Theology of the Body educates us on what it means to be human. John Paul II said this theology can be “the rediscovery of the meaning of the whole of existence, the meaning of life.”

Our bodies, in the full truth of their masculinity and femininity, proclaim God’s mystery, while yet remaining transcendent. “John Paul II provides a lens through which to view the whole plan of God for humanity: God’s eternal plan is to “marry” us (Hosea 2:18) – to live with us in an eternal union of life and love. And God wanted this eternal “marital plan” to be obvious to us that he impressed an image of it in our very being by creating us male and female.” (Christopher West). The body is important to our theology and the understanding of human life because the Word became flesh. God in the person of Jesus, became man and sacrificed His Body for our sake. And we continue to encounter Him in the Eucharist. Theology of the body allows us to see heavenly mysteries brought to earth. God’s kenosis (self-emptying) love comes to encounter us in the form of bread and wine, in the face of our neighbor, and in our daily life. God reaches our human senses.

Our bodies are living tabernacles; we are called to be the living Gospel: to share the good news. The mystery of communion is stamped into our very being, our personal experience of being bodies, we, the Church, are Christ’s body and the core of the Gospel is to share the good news, we are the living Gospel called to profound communion. There is an “inseparable connection between the person, his life and his bodiliness” (Christopher West).

Este mes, el aprendiz de Echo embarcará en una conferencia / curso inmersivo de una semana sobre la Teología del Cuerpo. ¿Qué es la Teología del Cuerpo?

Juan Pablo II habla del cuerpo como una teología, un estudio de Dios. Christopher West, autor y orador católico, llama a la Teología del Cuerpo, “una revolución no solo para católicos sino para todos los cristianos.”

La Teología del Cuerpo nos educa sobre lo que significa ser humano. Juan Pablo II dijo que esta teología puede ser “el redescubrimiento de la existencia y el sentido de la vida”. Nuestros cuerpos en plena verdad de su masculinidad y feminidad proclaman el misterio de Dios. Juan Pablo II nos ofrece la perspectiva de que podemos ver el plan eterno de Dios para la humanidad: en el matrimonio. Dios quiere vivir con nosotros en una unión eterna de vida y amor (Oseas 2:18). Dios nos hace obvio este plan a través del matrimonio donde dos se hacen uno. Así Dios imprimió su imagen en nuestra creación como hombres y mujeres.

El cuerpo es importante para la teología y la comprensión de la vida humana porque el Verbo se hizo carne. Dios en la persona de Jesús, se hizo hombre y sacrificó Su Cuerpo por nosotros. Y continuamos nuestra comunión con Dios en la Eucaristía. La teología del cuerpo nos permite ver los misterios celestiales traídos a la tierra. El amor de Dios, es un amor kénosis (auto-vaciamiento), un amor que se vacía por otros. Dios se encarna, y viene a nosotros en la forma del pan y vino, en el rostro del prójimo, y en nuestra vida diaria. Dios llega a nuestros sentidos humanos.

Nuestros cuerpos son tabernáculos vivientes; estamos llamados a ser el Evangelio vivo: a compartir la buena noticia. El misterio de la comunión está grabado en nuestro propio ser, en nuestra experiencia personal de tener un cuerpo. Nosotros como la Iglesia, somos el Cuerpo de Cristo. Somos el Evangelio vivo llamado a una comunión profunda y vemos una “conexión inseparable entre la persona, su vida y su corporalidad” (Christopher West).

Febrero- Mes del amor. ¿Qué es el amor? Dios es Amor y fuente del amor.

“El amor es la vocación fundamental e innata de todo ser humano”. (Cf. JUAN PABLO II, exh. Ap. Familiaris consortio, 80)
Queridos míos, amémonos unos a otros, porque el amor viene de Dios. Todo el que ama ha nacido de Dios y conoce a Dios. El que no Ama no ha conocido a Dios, pues Dios es Amor.
(1 Juan 4,7-8)

En esto está el amor: no es que nosotros hayamos amado a Dios, si no que él nos amó primero y envió a su Hijo como víctima por nuestros pecados.

Queridos, si Dios nos amó de esta manera, también nosotros debemos amarnos mutuamente.

A Dios no lo ha visto nadie jamás; pero si nos amamos unos a otros, Dios está entre nosotros y su amor ha llegado a su plenitud en nosotros. (1 Juan 10-12)

Por nuestra parte, hemos conocido el amor que Dios nos tiene, y hemos creído en él. Dios es amor: el que permanece en el amor permanece en Dios y Dios en él. (1 Juan 4,16)

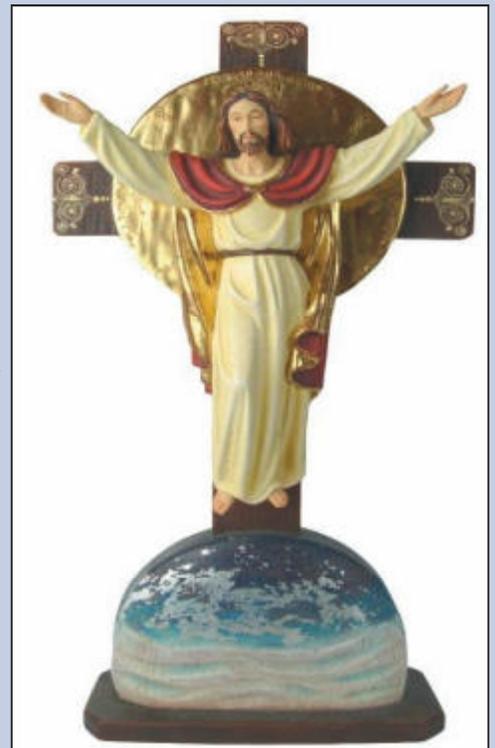

En el amor no hay temor. El amor perfecto echa fuera el temor, pues hay temor donde hay castigo. Quien teme no conoce el amor perfecto.

Amemos, pues, ya que él nos amó primero. Si uno dice “Yo amo a Dios” y odia a su hermano, es un mentiroso. Si no ama a su hermano, a quien ve, no puede amar a Dios, a quien no ve.

Pues este es el mandamiento que recibimos de él: el que ama a Dios, ame también a su hermano.
(1 Juan 18-21)

Si ustedes me aman, guardarán mis mandamientos. (S. Juan 14,15)

¡Así amó Dios al mundo! Le dio al hijo único, para que quien crea en él no se pierda, sino que tenga vida eterna. (San Juan 3,16)

Faith Formation & Youth

Kylie Mann

Pastoral Asst. for Evangelization & Youth

Faith Formation has continued to connect and grow together (safely distanced of course).

Last month we had a seminarian from our diocese come talk about the Commandments and what they can truly mean in our lives. For our community meeting, we had a virtual clothing/food drive. All items collected will support non-profits in our local community such as Lafayette Urban Ministry, the YWCA, and Trinity Mission. It was great to exercise the virtue of charity and follow God's example by giving back. For everything we have, was given to us by God. He gave us life, He gave us His one and only Son, and by this, He has given us everything we have and ever will have! May we always keep this in mind and continue to give however we are able.

Acts 20:35 "In every way I have shown you that by hard work of that sort we must help the weak, and keep in mind the words of the Lord Jesus who himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'"

LifeTeen

The youth have been hard at work growing in their faith too. LifeTeen is our highschool fellowship program where we encourage and support them in becoming disciples of Christ. They're quick to volunteer and help wherever the opportunity arises. So far this has been helping with the Christmas decorations, Jubilee Christmas, and more! We even learned a lot through Bible Trivia! This year we're going to focus on harnessing our gifts from God, learning more about the Catholic faith, and growing together in support of our church and each other. This upcoming Sunday we are going to celebrating Super Bowl Sunday from 6-8 PM in the basement. All high school students are invited and encouraged to bring a friend!

We're always looking to grow and connect with more people, so if you know any teenagers (Catholic, non-Catholic, etc.) tell them to contact me and we can get them started in the awesome opportunity that LifeTeen is! If you have also have any volunteer opportunities that LifeTeen can get involved in, please reach out!

Hello!

I hope all of you are well – please know of my continued prayers for you, and please pray for me also!

Spanish Mass Cantor Callout

I am seeking out any/all who would be interested in cantoring for our Spanish Masses, which occur each Saturday at 7:30pm. Ideally, our Spanish Mass Cantors will have some proficiency in reading Spanish and music (though reading music is not an absolute requirement).

We continue to grow at our Spanish Mass with our other Liturgical Ministers, so I'm happy to begin opening it up for singers. While it may be a while longer before we can have many musicians at this Mass, this will help us get the ball rolling for when we can.

If this is an opportunity that interests you, please contact me at your earliest convenience at cschultz@dol-in.org, and we'll setup a time for an audition to verify fit. I look forward to meeting you!

Hola! Espero que todos estén bien - quiero que sepan que yo estoy orando por todos ustedes- y por favor oren por mí también.

¿Gustan cantar en la Santa Misa de español?

Estoy buscando personas interesadas en cantar en nuestra Santa Misa de español los sábados a las 7:30 pm. De preferencia personas que sepan leer en español y leer las notas musicales y si no sabes leer las notas musicales no te preocupes te enseñamos.

Los ministerios hispanos en nuestra parroquia siguen creciendo y estoy feliz de poder abrir las puertas a personas con talentos musicales, vengan y empecemos a cultivar sus talentos para estar listos cuando ya podamos tener nuestro coro en español.

Esta es una gran oportunidad que nuestro Dios nos da para desarrollar los talentos que nos ha dado.

Si sientes el llamado de Dios contáctame: cschultz@dol-in.org

Estoy para servirte, ven, no faltes.
Muchas Gracias & Dios te bendiga!
