In this year dedicated to St. Joseph, Guardian and Foster Father of the Redeemer, Spouse of the Virgin Mary, and Patron of the Catholic Church, the Respect Life Ministry is collecting items for the Women's Support Center of Milwaukee, a pro-life Pregnancy Help Center offering 100% free services to those in need. Needed items include: clothing and sleepers size newborn-12 months, diaper rash cream, baby wash, baby lotion, baby bottles, wipes, pacifiers, receiving blankets (neutral color), infant car seats, pack n plays, and baby socks. The Women's Support Center asks that all items be new and, if possible, still in their package.

Young men in high school and middle school are invited to join Fr. Luke, Fr. John, and Milwaukee seminarians for Camp De Sales, an opportunity to encounter God in prayer and community. All camps will be held at St. Francis de Sales Seminary.

We wish him safe travels.

From the Desk of Fr. Lawrence.....

Dear Parishioners,

As promised, I would like to share with you the second part of an article I found on Kevin Di Camillo's blog of October 3, 2017, in which he tells us of the saints listed in Eucharistic Prayer I (the Roman Canon). Here goes:

"The second grouping starts off with "the last of the Prophets," St. John the Baptist, and continues with:

Stephen: The protomartyr and first of "The Seven Deacons" in the Acts of the Apostle whose death closely parallels that of Our Lord.

Matthias: The man chosen to replace Judas Iscariot (also from Acts).

Barnabas: Always considered and celebrated as an Apostle (though not as "one of the Twelve") and the last name mentioned in Holy Scripture to appear in the Canon.

Ignatius [of Antioch]: With this great saint, we enter into the post-apostolic age and into the patristic one. Said to have been a disciple of St. John the Apostle, he is the bridge between the last of the Apostles and the greater emergence of the Church Suffering—in this case under the Emperor Trajan. A friend and mentor to St. Polycarp, many of his writings, mainly letters to the Churches, have survived. Martyred in Rome by lions. Prestige point: said by some to have been the "child Jesus placed in their midst" (Matthew 18: 2)

Alexander: Like Ignatius, an early Eastern Bishop, in this case of Alexandria. (He was the immediate predecessor of St. Athanasius). He brought the Arian heresy—and Arius himself—to heel. The first non-martyr to appear in the Canon (pace St. Joseph: Mary, we learn from St. Bernard, was a "Martyr in spirit").

Marcellinus: Like John and Paul, and Cosmas and Damian, Marcellinus was part of a pair of early Church martyr-saints. Marcellinus was a priest and was beheaded in 302 with…

Peter: An exorcist and friend and confidant of St. Marcellinus. This Saint Peter is apparently the first and only saint in the Canon who was only in "minor orders."

Felicity: Another half of a pair of martyrs—and the first woman to the appear in the Canon after the Blessed Virgin Mary—Felicity was a pregnant slave-girl who was thrown to the lions and then dispatched by the sword in 202 along with…

Perpetua: A noble woman of high rank in Carthage who would not go back on her faith, she shows, with St. Felicity, that any person, whether of high or low estate, male or female, can win the martyr's crown.

The remainder of the second group of saints will be in next Sunday's bulletin.
