MEET & GREET

This Sunday is our monthly Meet & Greet in the undercroft after Masses. This is a wonderful opportunity to meet new faces, catch up with old friends, or register as a new parishioner.

Reverse Collection

Our PARISH FOOD PANTRY accepts donations of non-perishable food items all year round but every other month we have a Reverse Collection food drive. YOU take something out the basket (that's the reverse part), in this case it's a short shopping list of food items that are most in need at the pantry. While you're doing your own shopping this week, pick up the items on the list and drop them off in the barrels found in the vestibule and Pavilion next weekend, Nov. 16- 17. Lists are in the baskets located on the tables near the entrances.

Saint Stanislaus Kostka, whose feast day is November 13, is the patron saint of many things, including: Youth, students, and seminarians, broken bones, heart palpitations, serious illness, and Poland. St. Stanislaus Kostka was born in Poland in 1550 and died in Rome in 1568. He was a Polish noble who was devoted to prayer and study. He is known for his youthful holiness and determination to follow God's call.

Some highlights about him:

- At age 16, he became seriously ill.
- He prayed to Saint Barbara for help, and was restored to health after a mystical experience.
- The Catholic Church declared him a saint in 1726.
- His tomb is located in the church of Sant'Andrea al Quirinale in Rome, Italy.

In the Basilica, the window on east wall is the apparition of the Blessed Mother with the Baby Jesus to St. Stanislaus Kostka
