We offer our prayers and deepest sympathy to the family and friends of

Todd Andrew Gayeff

Todd passed into eternal life on Sunday, April 17th. His Mass of Christian Burial was held on Monday, May 2nd at St. Joseph & St. Patrick Church with Father Timothy Ferguson officiating.

Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him.

SHOUT OUT to the students at Holy Name School who raised $158.10 to support the refugees in the Ukraine through their “Pennies for Peace” drive. These young people wanted to help support our recent fundraising effort from the Ethnic Food Festival in which we were able to donate over $13,000 to Caritas Ukraine to provide relief for the refugees in the Ukraine. Thank you for your generosity and compassion for our brothers and sisters suffering from the violence of war in their homeland. God Bless you all!

Celebrating the Wisdom of Bishop Baraga

Fr. Baraga was often grieved because he encountered hardened un-Christian Indians, who undoubtedly had come into contact with bad Christians, but Fr. Baraga nevertheless labored with his undaunted spirit.
~Joseph Gregorich

You can transfer your Elmer's Rewards Card points in 500 point increments (500, 1000, 1500, etc.). Please pick up your St. Joseph & St. Patrick Parish card from the tables at the back of the church.

-Also-
