Weekly Message from Father Manno

Newman Family,

Jesus is coming again! This is good news, yet news that we also need to be prepared to receive. With Thanksgiving arriving soon, many of us will be preparing for people to come to our homes to have a tasty meal. If that is the case, then we know that we will most certainly be cleaning the home, sprucing things up, and making sure everyone in the home looks great!

This is because we want people to see us at our best. We want people to enter a home that is clean and welcoming. This truth must also exist in our hearts. We must cleanse our hearts and ask ourselves if we are ready to welcome Jesus fully into them.

A great way to do this is to evaluate our prayer life. We must ask ourselves if we are praying daily and spending time in scripture allowing God to speak to us. Also, today is a great day to ask how often I go to confession. If it's been awhile then do not be afraid. The confessional is a place of mercy, not judgement. So allow this day to be a day of incredible transformation. Head to the confessional as soon as possible and spend time daily in prayer talking with Jesus and preparing your heart to welcome him when He comes again!

God bless,
Fr Manno

Society of St. Vincent de Paul

November 14 - Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time:

The Gospel predicts end times; our challenge though is to live faithfully now. When we live in conformity to the Word, hearing Jesus' words and living them out, the future holds no fear for us.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box, know that you are hearing the words of Jesus and living them out.
