Sixteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Active and contemplative. At work and at rest. These are dynamics we all face in our lives, and if we're honest, we might not always balance perfectly! In this Sunday's Gospel, our daily tensions play out in two sisters. Mary "sat beside the Lord at his feet listening to him speak." Martha, on the other hand, is "burdened with much serving." This, as it turns out, is not necessarily "the better part."

All of us reading this have some sort of labor we engage in. We have different trades or careers. We have responsibilities as family members, some of which may take up most of our time. In the time of Scripture, showing hospitality to guests was one of the most important values in society. Our work is important. Jesus himself spent decades as a carpenter. So what's the problem with Martha? Martha is burdened, anxious, and worried. Not only that, but she resents her sister's choice. "Tell her to help me," she demands of Jesus.

How easy it is to get very busy doing good things. We need to provide for our families and plan for retirement. We need to make sure children are clothed, fed, and educated. Our committees, ministries, and sports schedules need to stay on track. However, without a balance of work with rest, without contemplation in the midst of our action, we will miss the point. While many parts are required for our life in the world to function, the better part is our relationship with God. This week, make time in your busy schedule to sit at Jesus' feet. Maybe this is 20 minutes with Scripture, participating in a daily Mass, or a quiet walk alone in the park. Receive what Christ wants to speak to you.

Lord God, you alone are the great Healer. We pray for those who have asked our prayers. Give them strength and reassurance. Surround them each day with the presence of your love and compassion. Quiet their spirits so they may know your goodness and be filled with your peace. Heal them, Lord, according to your plan. This we pray through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Church Carillons/Bells Collection Progress

Church carillons/bells

Holy Assumption has not had ringing bells for 5 years. To help and try to get the bells working the Human Concerns committee is having a Penny-A-Pound fund raiser to start the funding for these magnificent bells to ring out once again in West Allis. Wouldn't it be a beautiful calling to prayer by our bells? We need a Catholic identity in West Allis. If you wish to contribute to the bells please drop your donation in the collection basket marked "For Bells". The old carillons/bells will cost $8,000 to be replaced. So far we have collected $1,053.20. Thank you for your prayerful contribution. God Bless.

Human Concerns School Supply Drive

Human Concerns will have the annual school supply drive for our pantry families from now through August 18th. It's an exciting time for students and us former students alike. Come join in with their future plans by donating a needed item or two. We are especially looking for backpacks, the store 5 Below has backpacks for $5.
