Twenty-Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

If you saw someone dead come to life tomorrow, what would you change about your life? Would you say "nothing"? That's what Jesus seems to hope. After all, we already know what to do. In this Sunday's Gospel, a rich man and a poor man pass away, the former to damnation and the latter to peaceful rest alongside the Jewish patriarchs. The rich man asks if the poor man can appear to his brothers and advise them to live a more virtuous life. The parable offers a strong rebuke: "They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them." In other words, they should already know what to do.

We, too, know what to do. More than Moses, Jesus Christ himself has spoken, and continues to speak through his Church. The rich man did not heed the wise words, despite knowing them. If we are convicted against certain Christian teachings in our heart, how much good will miraculous "proofs" do? We know more than the law and the prophets - we know the prophetic law of love proclaimed by Jesus Christ. Are we living like we believe it?

Where in our lives are we like the rich man? Do we know how to treat the poor but still we ignore them in our excess? Do we know the third commandment, but the Sunday liturgy feels "optional" when other weekend commitments arise? Have we heard Christ's teachings on sexuality, but consider them out of reach for us? We have received a great many truths as Christian people. We are blessed by God with the sacraments and the abundance of His graces. We have what we need - in Him - to begin to live a virtuous life now.

Lord God, you alone are the great Healer. We pray for those who have asked our prayers. Give them strength and reassurance. Surround them each day with the presence of your love and compassion. Quiet their spirits so they may know your goodness and be filled with your peace. Heal them, Lord, according to your plan. This we pray through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Chair Lift

The New Chair Lift is still getting installed in the church. It is taking longer then expected. We will have an announcement in the bulletin and at the pulpit as soon as the Chair lift is able to be used. We are sorry for any inconvenience this may cause.

Ministry Training

We are going to have a training weekend for all those who are now, or who would like to become, proclaimers of the Scriptures at Mass. After both weekend masses, 4pm and 10:30am, September 28/29 Readers will have training on use of the microphone and other aspects of reading. Parishioner Sharon Huizenga will be conducting the sessions. Please contact Mary Schum, 771-9256, or Sharon Huizenga, 774-4241. We are doing this so our Mass celebrations will give glory to God.
