August is the month dedicated to our Lady of Sorrows.
Here are some ways to celebrate with your family this month:

September 5 is the Feast day of St. Teresa Of Calcutta. St. (Mother) Teresa was known for her service to the poor To honor her, participate in a corporal or spiritual work of mercy as a family. A few examples include volunteering at a food pantry, praying for those who have died, visiting a sick neighbor relative or friend, sending a card to someone who is lonely, and donating gently used clothing to St. Vincent DePaul.

September is also the month that children, youth, and teachers begin a new school year. Say the School Prayer by St. Thomas Aquinas on page five of the bulletin as a way to start the new school year!

Sunday Aftershock Returns!

Sunday September 12 following the 5pm Mass, we will be kicking off the Aftershock LifeNight year with a big cookout and yard game Olympics. All High School students are invited to attend for community, competition and the Olympic debut of "nine-square in the air"

Reflecting on the Scriptures (Mark 7:33-36)

He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"-- that is, "Be opened!" --And immediately the man's ears were opened, his speech impediment was removed, and he spoke plainly.

Parents have highly developed listening skills. When their child is a baby, they listen for their child upon waking. When children are young and quiet, parents perk up their ears to the quiet, wondering what mischief may be occurring. Parents sleep while also listening closely for their teenage son/daughter to return home safely. Today's gospel focuses on the double gifts of listening and speaking. They both have to do with "ephphatha", meaning "be open."

During Mass, we first listen to the Word of God and then respond by thanking God. "In the beginning was the Word" and then the Word was spoken. Listening is "attending" or paying attention to the sound that the ear hears. There is a great grace involved in listening, which is more than hearing.

I pray that I may communicate rather than merely talking. And further, that in conversing, which is two-way, during my day, and especially in my dedicated prayer time, that I listen more than speak. Jesus removed the obstacles that separated the man from his community by opening his ears, mouth, and heart.

I pray for the freedom to listen first to the Holy Spirit's voice within, then to God's Word, and then to God's people, especially those in need. I pray for the inner freedom and enthusiasm to speak of the goodness of God in my life, in the lives of others, and this world. I pray to speak of God's mercies, which are new every morning. (Lam. 3:21-23) I pray also to speak the truth of the Gospel especially in the areas of injustice, violence, and the needs of the poor.

"Seeing God in all things" is at the heart of Ignatian spirituality. In addition to ears and mouth, I pray that my eyes, too, "Be open", to seeing and hearing God's love in all the events of life. God is present at all times and in all circumstances, so I pray to "Be open" to seeing Him in all things.

Betty Schwandt - Pastoral Associate

Study: The History of the Church

As Catholics, we are the inheritors of holy men and women who over two thousand years built a great civilization and spread the gospel throughout the world. The history of the Church is not just the recitation of popes and saints; it is a story of adventure, intrigue, rebellion, reform, and devotion. In this study you will learn about the important people, places, and events in two thousand years of Church history---- true stories behind the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, and the Protestant Reformation as well as the massive persecution of Christians in the twentieth century. Steve Weidenk, opf, presenter, will help you gain an understanding of the workings of the Holy Spirit in our Church. Part 1 of this study will be held on Mondays @ 6pm on the following dates: Sept. 20, 27, Oct. 5, 19, and 26. (No class Oct. 12) The next part of EPIC will be held in the early part of our next calendar year. Purchasing the study set is optional, but helpful; it includes a workbook, timeline chart, and bookmark. Cost is $30. To register, please call the parish office. If you'd like the study set, please submit $30 at the time of registration. Study sets will be ordered on Sept. 13.

Interested in the Catholic faith?

If you are interested in becoming part of the Catholic faith, or learning more about it, please call the parish office and set up a time to meet with either Betty Schwandt, Fr. Tom, Fr. Kevin or Dcn John Ingala. Any of them would be happy to talk to you about this.

Working with the Scriptures

When I was in high school in Chicago I took the elevated train every morning with one of my classmates. This girl, who was a friend of mine, had a speech defect. Born with a cleft palate her speech was somewhat guttural and difficult to understand. For most of us who knew her this posed no problem, but while she was growing up there had been those who had teased and made fun of her. Consequently, she was somewhat shy.

Years later while attending a breakfast meeting in downtown Chicago I found myself sitting across from an attractive woman of about my age. As we talked over coffee she told me that she was in marketing, having started her own business a few years prior. Somehow we got around to talking about where we had gone to school and I was surprised and delighted to find that the shy teenager I had known in high school had grown into this gracious and confident woman. Doctors had been able to correct the defect and speech therapy had enabled her to overcome her shyness. It truly seemed like a miracle.

In John's Gospel Jesus says, "…that person who has faith in me will do the works I do and greater far than these." I doubt that the surgeons and therapists who healed my friend thought of what they were doing as "miraculous." They were just human beings doing their job, nothing out of the ordinary, all in a day's work. The surgery was routine, the therapy that which was usually indicated for this condition.

"People brought…a…man who had a speech impediment…" Jesus' actions were also quite ordinary. It was a human hand that reached out and touched the man, human spittle that healed him. But Jesus knew that God worked through His hands, as I believe God worked through the hands of my friend's surgeons. In fact, I believe that all the work we do bears God's fingerprints. And Jesus promised that this would be so. Do we believe what He told us? Do we recognize the miraculous in the ordinary work of our human hands?

HOLY WATER

We have a holy water dispenser in the Gathering Space. You may bring a container from home to fill, or take one of the holy water bottles at the table.

Father Ripley's Believe It or Not!

Let's do the math: nine months before Christmas is March 25. That's the Solemnity of the Annunciation of the Lord, which would mark the Incarnation or the virgin conception of Jesus in the womb of Mary. We also celebrate the Immaculate Conception of Mary on December 8, which is when Mary was conceived without original sin in the womb of her mother Anne. Therefore, nine months after that brings us to September 8. Happy birthday, Mary!

When I was in Jerusalem a couple years ago, two friends and I paid a visit to an Orthodox monastery and church which claims to be built above the birthplace of Mary. Since cities are built in layers over the centuries, it would be underground. They had some very narrow stairs going down a couple flights through a tunnel, which led to a small shrine where several people were in vigil praying. Believe it or not, but this could be the very spot. It sure felt sacred!

Just next door is the Church of St. Anne, which claims to mark the spot of Mary's childhood house, assumedly before she went to Nazareth. It is a very acoustically-designed building, and countless groups pause to sing songs they've prepared. My class schola didn't sing "Happy Birthday," but we sang "If Ye Love Me" by Thomas Tallis. You can listen to it here: shorturl.at/dtAMP or by scanning this code with your phone:

Catholicism 101: Ever wish you knew more about your Catholic Faith? Then this One Is for You!

Many of us know our Catholic faith but don't really feel like we KNOW it, or understand it well enough to speak easily with others about it. Different topics will be offered. Some topics are only 4 sessions and some are only 1 or 2!

During the month of August St. Raphael Parish sponsored a workshop for 3 of our Youth Choir members. Look for these young singers at future Masses. We are blessed to have them! We thank you for your dedication to our Music Ministry Program.
