MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

Happy New Year! As we celebrate the feast of the Epiphany today, we remember the many ways in which Christ comes to us. Like the Magi, we need to be intentional in seeking Him. As they followed the star to Christ, we can also follow a path that will lead us closer to Him.

In this new year, I invite you to consider ways in which you can grow closer to Christ and his Church. If you struggle to make prayer a daily habit, I invite you to begin there. Find a time of day in which you can commit to 10 minutes of prayer. Choose a place to pray. Then begin!

After establishing a regular prayer time, there are lots of ways you can expand and grow in your faith. Here are just a few, not in any order:

- Regular participation at Sunday Mass
- Celebrate of the Sacrament of Reconciliation
- Read and pray with the Sunday readings prior to Mass
- Pray the rosary
- Come to the Lectio Divina presentations led by the Missionaries of the Word (Jan 7 and 8)
- Come to the monthly holy hour (first Thursday of the month) for Eucharistic Adoration.
- Check out The Chosen app on the life of Christ and the disciples

As we keep growing in faith, people may want to look into:

- Participating in Adult Faith Formation opportunities (watch the bulletin)
- Checking out Formed.org and the amazing array of Catholic faith resources available
- Participating in Christian Family Movement, Esto Vir or That Man is You
- Downloading the Relevant Radio app and listen to Catholic talk radio
- Learning about scripture through The Bible in a Year podcast with Fr. Mike Schmitz
- Signing up for daily meditations from Dynamic Catholic or Real Life Catholic or other sites
- Visiting On This Rock Catholic bookstore in Oshkosh and find a good spiritual book or Bible
- Lots of other options

If our goal is to be with Jesus, we need a plan. Let's start this new year with a plan to grow in our relationship with Him, so that He can make us into the people we are meant to be!

Gratefully,

Fr. Tom

Holy Hour!

Holy Hour this Thursday

Our monthly Holy Hour will be Thursday, January 6 from 3:30 to 5:30pm. All are invited to gather in church to pray for all or part of this time.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament begins at 3:30, and Benediction begins about 5:20. The Sacrament of Reconciliation is available during Holy Hour.

Good Samaritan Fund

St. Raphael has a Good Samaritan Fund which is a fund to provide emergency help for people in our community. The fund has been used to help people with medical bills, rent, temporary housing, gas and similar needs. Funds are distributed through our pastor. If you wish to contribute to this fund, you may use the envelope in the December contribution envelope packet, give online at raphael.org/give or simply send a check with a note that it is for the Good Samaritan Fund. Thank you to all who make this outreach possible.

RE Updates

- Family Session 1 will take place during all weekly class sessions on Jan. 4/5. A letter was sent to families on December 6. See the family handbook for further details.
- There will be a First Eucharist PARENT meeting on January 11/12 at 4:30. Families preparing their children for First Eucharist need to attend ONE of the meetings. Details were mailed to parents the week of December 20.

January is the month dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. Here are some ways your family can grow together in faith this month.

January 2 is the Epiphany of the Lord. To celebrate, read the story of the visit of the Magi found in Mt 2:1-12. Then color and cut out the picture found on this page of the bulletin.

January 4 is the Feast of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, who was the first canonized American born saint. She also founded the first Catholic girls' school in the United States. To honor St. Elizabeth Ann Seton write a thank you note to a teacher who has made a difference in your life.

Please be advised that in case of inclement weather, refer to our website www.raphael.org, for any cancellations.

Reflecting on the Scriptures

It has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel. --- Eph. 3

Happy Epiphany! This is OUR feast day! Epiphany, is the day that the birth of Jesus Christ our Savior, is revealed to the non-Jews, like most of us! Yes, this is the day in which the Lord revealed that He came not only for the Israelites---the Jews---but He also came for you and for me! Today we celebrate!

The Magi at the manger represent the inclusion of the outsiders in the people of God. In the words of Paul, "It has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit: that the Gentiles are coheirs, members of the same body, and copartners in the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel." They remind us that we can expect God to consistently undermine the safe and convenient barriers we like to draw between ourselves and the 'other'. The peace and justice that God-with-us brings is "uncomfortable" for the comfortable.

Today's Gospel also directs and challenges us. In what way? Well, this news was disturbing for the Jewish people, that they were not exclusively God's chosen people. In our nation today, many like to exclude others: from safety, refuge, freedom, providing for their families, being welcomed, and the list goes on. As we know, Joseph learned from God in a dream that he needed to take Mary and Jesus to Egypt to flee from his homeland to a country where they all would be safe. Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, as refugees, fled to a safe and different land. Jesus himself welcomed the Samaritan woman, the tax collector, the widow, and did not exclude anyone.

Sacred Scripture is our guide as Christians. We are children of God first and foremost of all. As a disciple of Jesus, we are inclusive of all peoples, disregarding nationality, education, political issues, religious differences, etc.

Like the magi we leave from our encountering Jesus, changed. If I allow myself to enter the scene, where Jesus lay in the manger, I could pick up the child, receiving him the way I receive the Eucharist. I could say, "Amen." Amen to this gift, this love, this saving redemption, this mysterious way of surprising me into seeing my vulnerable God's love for me. I can imagine how different it will be to say "Amen" when I next receive the Eucharist! May I receive Jesus so completely that my heart is able to receive with love all of the other people God created, regardless of who they are, where they come from, what they believe, or how they vote.

Betty Schwandt - Pastoral Associate

Christian Family Movement

A blessed Advent and Christmas season to you all! I pray that as we have been called to "Prepare the way of the Lord, make straight his paths" (Luke 3:4) during the season of Advent, we will continue to welcome Jesus into our daily walk, recognizing and removing hindrances that prevent our drawing closer to Him.

Sneak Peek: Bartimaeus faced physical obstacles and in faith cried out to Jesus. What spiritual and physical obstacles might we be facing as we grow in our relationship with God and each other? Do we recognize and support others who also face challenges?

- Look forward to an announcement from your group leader about a service opportunity that we will all be able to take part in!
- Those gathering at the parish on January 8th, please check the poster in the gathering space listing the room numbers in which you will meet. For most, locations will be the same as in December
- For those gathering in homes keep an eye or ear out for an email or phone call from your group leader.

If you will be unable to attend our next gathering please let us know at cfmraphael@gmail.com, call the parish office, or contact your group leader.

Blessings, Dcn. Mark

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

While many of us may still have our Christmas trees up, if you're anything like me it feels like Christmas was weeks – rather than just days – ago. Even the 'after-Christmas sales' are winding down. Hats and noisemakers have replaced Santas and snowmen on store shelves and there's nary a Christmas carol to be heard. And we might find ourselves asking, "What difference does it make anyway?" Or, perhaps more to the point, "What difference does Christmas make in our lives?"

Matthew's Gospel describes a world of class distinctions and crooked politicians and prejudice, a world divided between those who 'have' and those who 'have-not'. In other words, Matthew describes a world very much like our own. But then something happened, something that made a difference.

"And you, Bethlehem...from you shall come a ruler, who is to shepherd my people Israel." Shepherds were looked down upon. They spent their lives moving from place to place with their sheep – and they smelled like it. There were many shepherds around Bethlehem. "[B]ehold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem..." The magi were astronomers, the 'college professors' of their time. "They prostrated themselves and did him homage." Picture Harvard faculty bowing down before the janitor's son! "Then they...offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh." Evidently these men were also wealthy. It must have cost quite a lot to make such a trip, not to mention the cost of their gifts. Something was happening – something that would make a difference.

But that was 2000 years (or maybe just a few days) ago. Christmas is over and Valentine hearts have replaced Santa in the mall. But wait a minute – maybe that's OK. In fact, maybe that's exactly the point! Christmas isn't about political power or prestige – Christmas is about love. Christmas isn't about what we get – it's about what we give! Maybe we need to be more like the magi, more concerned about bringing gifts than getting them. Maybe that's what would make the difference! The magi went away changed, departing "...by another way." Can we say the same? Are we changed? What difference does Christmas make in our lives?

Vinal Van Benthem

Father Ripley's Believe It or Not!

"But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, though you are small among the clans of Judah, out of you will come for me one who will be ruler over Israel, whose origins are from of old, from ancient times."

This prophecy was written around 700 years before the birth of Christ. It singled out Bethlehem as the town in which the messiah would be born, the descendant of David to rule over Israel in an everlasting kingdom. Since then, there has only been one person widely accepted as the messiah, and He was born in Bethlehem.

Bethlehem. In Hebrew, split into two words--"bet" and "lehem"--it means "house of bread." In Arabic, it is "bayt" "lahm," which means "house of meat." In God's amazing providence, Jesus was born there. Jesus, who would later call himself the Bread of Life and tell his followers that they must eat his flesh, was laid in a manger, an eating trough. The Eucharist is the Bread of Life, the flesh of Christ for the life of the world.

When I stayed in Bethlehem for a few weeks, the air of the early mornings was filled with the smell of--believe it or not--fresh bread. What a wonderful reminder that was of our Savior.

Study: The History of the Church

As Catholics, we are the inheritors of holy men and women who over two thousand years built a great civilization and spread the gospel throughout the world. The history of the Church is not just the recitation of popes and saints; it is a story of adventure, intrigue, rebellion, reform, and devotion. In this study you will learn about the important people, places, and events in two thousand years of Church history - true stories behind the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, and the Protestant Reformation as well as the massive persecution of Christians in the twentieth century. Steve Weidenkopf, presenter, will help you gain an understanding of the workings of the Holy Spirit in our Church. Part 2 of this study will be held on Mondays @ 6pm on the following dates: Jan. 17, 24, 31, Feb. 7, and 14. The next part of EPIC will be held in the early part of fall next year. Anyone who would like to join in this study is welcome!
