THE BAPTISM of the Lord

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire." - Lk 3:16bc

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCC

MISSION OF ST. RAPHAEL

As friends and followers of Jesus, we are devoted to fostering households and communities of discipleship through the mission and ministry of the Catholic Church.

From our Deacon

This weekend we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. What a wonderful time to reflect on our own reception of the Sacrament of Baptism!

As Catholic Christians we believe we are joined to Jesus Christ through baptism, for “through Baptism we are freed from sin and reborn as sons of God; we become members of Christ”. (CCC,1213) At our baptism we are anointed with the sacred Chrism accompanied by the words “He now anoints you with the Chrism of salvation, so that you may remain as a member of Christ, Priest, Prophet and King, unto eternal life.”

What then does this mean, what does it look like in our daily walks with Jesus and each other? “The faithful exercise their baptismal priesthood through their participation, each according to his own vocation, in Christ’s mission of priest, prophet, and king.” (CCC,1546)

- Through our common priesthood we pray to God our Father through our Lord Jesus Christ. We offer Him the gift of our love.
- As prophets we are called to proclaim the good news of Jesus, that God is love. We share the wonderful news of God’s love for us in many ways. Through our words, service toward others, loving our families, and in the very way in which we live we proclaim a prophetic witness.
- We have become adopted sons and daughters of the Father through Jesus Christ in our baptism. We are the very family of God!

Last weekend when we celebrated the Epiphany of the Lord, Mass concluded with a solemn blessing. Mindful of our own baptism let us recall these words: “And since in all confidence you follow Christ who today appeared in the world as a light shining in the darkness. May God make you, too, a light for your brothers and sisters.” As we go forth this week may we share the light of God’s love with all we meet. Amen!

Blessings,
Dcn Mark

Special thanks to catechists Beth Ballwanz and Nancy Rahmlow who assisted with facilitating Family Session 1 on Jan. 4/5. You are a blessing!

January is the month dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. Here are some ways your family can grow together in faith this month.

On January 9 we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord. Celebrate as a family with by saying a Renewal of your Baptismal Promises, which can be found on this page. Then enjoy a special dinner or dessert to celebrate!

You can also celebrate the baptism of the Lord by taking time to look at each family member's baptismal pictures and share special memories from their baptismal day.

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

- Do you reject Satan? I do.
- And all his works? I do.
- And all his empty promises? I do.
- Do you believe in God, the Father Almighty, creator of heaven and earth? I do.
- Do you believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was born of the Virgin Mary was crucified, died, and was buried, rose from the dead, and is now seated at the right hand of the Father? I do.
- Do you believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Catholic church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting? I do.
- God, the all-powerful Father of our Lord Jesus Christ has given us a new birth by water and the Holy Spirit, and forgiven all our sins. May he also keep us faithful to our Lord Jesus Christ for ever and ever. I do.

Good Samaritan Fund

St. Raphael has a Good Samaritan Fund which is a fund to provide emergency help for people in our community. The fund has been used to help people with medical bills, rent, temporary housing, gas and similar needs. Funds are distributed through our pastor. If you wish to contribute to this fund, you may use the envelope in the December contribution envelope packet, give online at raphael.org/give or simply send a check with a note that it is for the Good Samaritan Fund. Thank you to all who make this outreach possible.

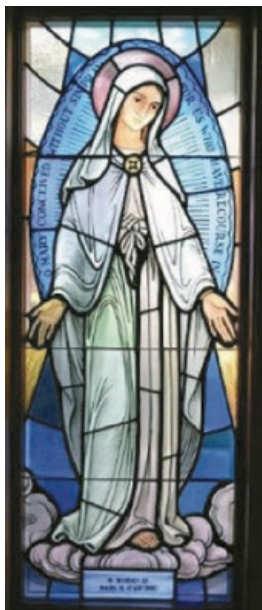

Please be advised that in case of inclement weather, refer to our website www.raphael.org for any cancellations.

Surpassing our $10 million goal offers greater assurance and broadened opportunities

In order to expand Catholic education and strengthen the Catholic faith in the Oshkosh community for generations to come, Lourdes Academy and the Oshkosh parishes partnered together to raise $10 million through the one by One campaign. Overwhelming community-wide support from alumni, parishioners, families and friends has brought us to our goal (more than $10.1 million to date), and our vision will become a reality. But our work doesn't stop here. Surpassing our goal is essential to offer greater assurance and broadened opportunities.

While reaching our goal was paramount to our success, surpassing it will allow us to meet unforeseen obstacles, unanticipated needs, and unbudgeted improvements to the existing Lourdes building.

Unbudgeted improvements to the existing building remodel have already been identified, including LED lighting; updated HVAC controls for higher efficiency; updated fire alarm system; controlled access doors and cameras for heightened security; and improved WiFi, communication and phone systems. In addition, an expanded budget for playground equipment will enhance the outdoor space. The multi-purpose room in the elementary addition can also feature repurposed stained glass windows honoring Our Lady of Lourdes and featuring other images of our Catholic identity.

To learn more about the one by One campaign or to learn how you can support this endeavor, visit www.Lourdes.today/onebyone.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

We are looking to train students in middle school (grades 6+) and high school, and adults to be altar servers. We will offer two options for training sessions: Wednesday, January 26 at 6:15pm (No RE that evening) or Saturday, January 29 at 2 pm. Both sessions will last about an hour. We ask that a PARENT stay for the training session, as we will also discuss the scheduling of servers that is both family-friendly and will work for the parish. Parents may also wish to serve with their middle or high school child

Ushers and Greeters Opportunities

As we begin the New Year, we are reviewing our need for additional ushers and greeters. These ministries greatly assist our Mass flow each weekend. We are looking for additional ushers especially for the 11am Mass time but happily will train for any Mass time. Please call Karen Moehn at (920) 410-5857 to set up a training time or for further information. Ushers are emailed on a weekly basis for our weekend sign up needs. We are also looking for additional greeters. Please contact Betty or Deb at 920-233-8044 if you are interested.

Church Environment: Looking for Leaders

We want to thank all who decorated our church so beautifully for Christmas. Special thanks to Kathy Martyna who has been leading the decorating for many years. She, along with her crew, does an amazing job.

We are hoping to allow her to step back after her years of service, but we need others to step forward. We are looking for one or several people. We need three skill sets.

Art and Decorating – Someone to plan the designs for different seasons, especially Christmas and Easter. We have existing themes, materials and ideas in place, which can continue to be used, or can be changed.

Coordinator of executing the design – Someone to be able to understand the plan and create steps to implement it. This person will need to direct others to know how to help in setting up and taking down. There is an existing crew of volunteers (although more are always welcome).

Care of Plants and Flowers – Someone to oversee and care for the flowers, especially during Christmas and Easter seasons, and green plants throughout the building year round.

This could be one person, or three different people who may or may not know each other yet. Please contact the parish office if you would like to discuss any of these possibilities.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

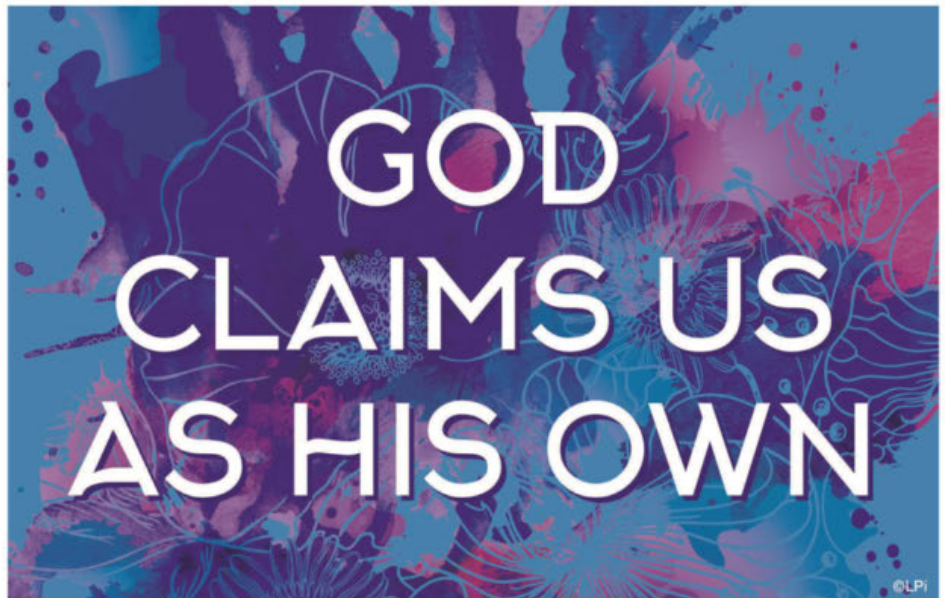

ENCOURAGE DEEPER UNDERSTANDING OF SCRIPTURE

"We are called to live our baptism every day, as new creatures, clothed in Christ."

— Pope Francis

What reference point do you use when making decisions? Many times, impulse takes control and decisions are made based solely on emotion and desire. We all know that these types of decisions can often get us into trouble. When a person has a confident sense of who they are and a real understanding of what is important and of value, the likelihood of kneejerk impulsive choices diminishes. Baptism gives us what we need to make well informed and purposeful decisions. By this simple gesture, God claims us as His own and provides us with the identity and purpose we need to properly live life.

It is tremendously reassuring, when we truly embrace this revelation and realize that we no longer have to wonder about the purpose of our lives or struggle to find our way. The answer of who we are in God has been given to us. We no longer have to fumble around, trip over ourselves or walk aimlessly about. Issues surrounding the sacredness of life, the meaning of death, the protection of those most vulnerable, care for the weak and the poor, offering hospitality to those in search of a home, the purpose and proper place of work, how to create a just social order, caring for creation, and understanding our roles as heralds and stewards are just a few of the wonderful gifts baptism brings. When we make decisions based on things such as these core Gospel truths we really act as Christ himself, revealing to others the new creations that we are. This is how we live our baptism.

It is difficult to walk against the tide. Yet, that is precisely what baptism calls us to do. Although we are sinners, in need of mercy and far from perfection we are called to order our life and make decisions based upon the wisdom and guidance of Almighty God. He alone is the one who can claim us as His sons and daughters. Standing up for our principles will not make us popular. But who ever said Christianity is a popularity contest? Baptism calls us to stand up for that which goes against the grain of secularism. Standing in line with other sinners, we have our anchor to steady us in the tempests of life and God is very pleased. Forge ahead. There is nothing to fear.

"I am baptizing you with water, but one mightier than I is coming. I am not worthy to loosen the thongs of his sandals. He will baptize you with the Holy Spirit and fire."

- Lk 3:16bc

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

Archbishop Desmond Tutu, Nobel Peace Prize-winning Anglican cleric, has died at the age of 90. His work for civil and human rights made him a revered leader during the struggle to end apartheid in his native South Africa. South African President Cyril Ramaphosa describes Tutu as “A man of extraordinary intellect, integrity and invincibility against the forces of apartheid tender and vulnerable in his compassion for those who had suffered oppression, injustice and violence under apartheid, and oppressed and downtrodden people around the world.”

Apartheid, South Africa’s official policy of racial segregation, ended in the early ‘90s. Nelson Mandela became president of the country and Tutu was named chair of South Africa’s Truth and Reconciliation Commission. In 2012 he was recognized for “his lifelong commitment to speaking truth to power.” The following year he received the Templeton Prize for his “work in advancing spiritual principles such as love and forgiveness...”

In today’s readings from the Prophet Isaiah we hear the Lord say, “Here is my servant...he shall bring forth justice to the nations...” And in another place, “Comfort, give comfort to my people...” Certainly Archbishop Desmond Tutu did this. The current archbishop of Cape Town described Tutu’s legacy as moral strength, moral courage and clarity, saying “He cried because he felt the people’s pain. And he cackled with delight when he shared their joy.” The current Archbishop of Canterbury has described Tutu as “a prophet and a priest, a man of words and action...”

The person or group of people addressed in Second Isaiah is often referred to as the Suffering Servant and assumed to be the Messiah. But perhaps there is more to it than that. In 2011 Episcopal Priest Robert V. Taylor wrote, “Desmond Tutu had no reason to act as he did other than his profound sense of our shared humanity in working for a world in which justice and the wellbeing of all is an expression of his ethical leadership of compassion.” Isn’t this what it means to be God’s servant? This is what Archbishop Desmond Tutu dedicated his life to. Are we not called to do the same?

Vinal Van Benthem

Father Ripley's Believe It or Not!

As Catholics, along with the other mainstream Protestant communities, we believe that Baptism can only be done once in someone’s lifetime. There is an indelible mark left on the soul, and the child or adult is permanently made an adopted child of God. The body is made a temple of the Holy Spirit. The stain of original sin is removed. Sanctifying grace is given. The list could go on.

When I was in college, a friend of mine who was baptized as a baby asked me whether or not it was okay to get rebaptized. I told him no, I think you can only receive it once. He explained that the church he attended was inviting him to do so as a way of making a public profession of his faith. I said that there are other ways you can do that, but baptism is effective - it’s something unearned and received, not a work that we accomplish. Babies have been baptized since the Acts of the Apostles.

When I was a student chaplain at the Cleveland Clinic, I was called upon during a night shift to attend to an actively dying man. The family asked that I Baptize him. This was my first night of being on call and my first situation where I could actually - as a layperson - perform a Sacrament. Anyone can baptize in an emergency, so make sure you know the ritual! The thing I had to verify was whether or not he was already baptized, and they said (believe it or not) that their Evangelical church would not let him, since he was physically not able to climb up the stairs to the stage and get in the water. So, now at the end of his life, they gathered around, we found some water, and hopefully I did it right.

Catholicism 101:

Ever wish you knew more about your Catholic Faith? Then this One Is for You!

Many of us know our Catholic faith but don’t really feel like we KNOW it, or understand it well enough to speak easily with others about it. Different topics will be offered. Some topics are only 4 sessions and some are only 1 or 2! The first one on what we believe, the Creed starts January 18. Three sessions: Jan. 18, 25 and Feb.1. Tuesdays, 6:15 – 7:45 pm

Reflecting on the Scriptures

After all the people had been baptized and Jesus also had been baptized and was praying, heaven was opened and the Holy Spirit descended upon him in bodily form like a dove. And a voice came from heaven, "You are my beloved Son with you I am well pleased." --- Luke 3

November 23 is the most important date in my life. No, it's not my birthday. But a day much greater than that. It's the day I was baptized.

Luke gives the account of Jesus' baptism. First, it is clear who Jesus is: Jesus is the Son of God the Father. Then the depth of that relationship is expressed, "With you I am well pleased." I imagine how awesome it would be to hear God the Father say that to me. The awe and wonder in this account of Jesus' baptism is that the identity and depth of love the Father has for His son Jesus is the same identity, depth of love, and affirmation which I can claim, thanks to my Baptism. What Jesus possesses by nature, I possess by adoption, the incredible gift of God's mercy toward me. I am a beloved daughter; the Father is "well pleased" with me. But how difficult it is for me---and you---to accept this identity, this relationship, this love! What endless evasions I construct and conditions I place on that simple truth!

Today I am going to sit quietly with the phrase, "With you I am well pleased" and let it wash over me. I will pay attention to what comes up in my heart and then relate all of that to God. And then in that quiet encounter, overcoming objections and healing whatever obstacles may appear, the Lord will move me to embrace the truth of his generous love for me.

My baptism, November 23, was the beginning of my life as a child of God! I was welcomed into the family of God, and the relationship of all three persons in the Trinity. The meaning of "baptism" is plunging into the depths. It signifies dying and rising to new life. My old (sinful) life is put to death, and, through baptism, I rise to new life in Christ--which is pure grace and gift. I am no longer a child of the world, but a child of God, daughter/son of God. And, like Jesus, through my baptism, I, too, am commissioned. I am sent out to continue the mission of Jesus. I am called to be the body of Christ in the world after receiving Christ's body at communion, and to go forth loving and being present in kindness, patience, generosity as Jesus did. My mission is to live and proclaim the "good news" just as Jesus did.

Study: The History of the Church

As Catholics, we are the inheritors of holy men and women who over two thousand years built a great civilization and spread the gospel throughout the world. The history of the Church is not just the recitation of popes and saints; it is a story of adventure, intrigue, rebellion, reform, and devotion. In this study you will learn about the important people, places, and events in two thousand years of Church history - true stories behind the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, and the Protestant Reformation as well as the massive persecution of Christians in the twentieth century. Steve Weidenkopf, presenter, will help you gain an understanding of the workings of the Holy Spirit in our Church. Part 2 of this study will be held on Mondays @ 6pm on the following dates: Jan. 17 24, 31, Feb. 7, and 14. The next part of EPIC will be held in the early part of fall next year. Anyone who would like to join in this study is welcome!

Interested in the Catholic faith?

If you are interested in becoming part of the Catholic faith, or learning more about it, please call the parish office and set up a time to meet with either Betty Schwandt, Fr. Tom, Fr. Kevin or Dcn John Ingala. Any of them would be happy to talk to you about this.
