PRAY TO PROTECT HUMAN LIFE!

Three years ago, Pope Francis asked us to mark this Third Sunday in Ordinary Time (today) as the Sunday of the Word of God. It is a day to reflect on the central importance of scripture in our life of prayer and action.

In focusing on the Word of God, we recognize that the scriptures help us strengthen our bonds with the Jewish people and to pray for Christian unity.

The Word of God is a primary way in which God speaks to us. So often we say that we can't hear God. Yet, what is scripture if not God's voice speaking to us.

In order to hear God, we need to regularly listen to His voice in the scriptures. Our Catholic faith is so rich in ways of praying with the bible. Every day of the year, there are scripture readings for the Mass of that day. Begin with the gospel reading for the coming Sunday. Spend a few minutes praying with it before coming to Mass, so that you are already familiar with it, and so God can speak more deeply to you at Mass. The Word Among Us is available in the gathering space each month. It contains the Mass readings, as well as a reflection, for each day. Take one home and pray with it.

The Mass itself is filled with scriptural references. As we become more familiar with the bible, we recognize phrases and images at Mass that are drawn from the pages of scripture.

The rosary is a way of praying with the mysteries of the life of Christ and His mother. The Our Father, Hail Mary and Glory Be prayers are all rooted in scripture.

If you are ambitious, I invite you to pray the Bible in a Year with Fr. Mike Schmitz. It is available as an app that gives daily readings and a reflection. In about 20 minutes a day, over the course of a year you will have heard and reflected on the whole Bible.

For me, the scriptures have been one of the main ways in which God speaks to me. It is not about reading a lot of words, but about finding those phrases and verses which speak to my heart on a given day. God's word is alive and active. God wants to talk to us, but we need to listen!

Let's take some time today to recommit to listen to God speak to us through the scriptures.

Gratefully,

Fr. Tom

Study: The History of the Church

As Catholics, we are the inheritors of holy men and women who over two thousand years built a great civilization and spread the gospel throughout the world. The history of the Church is not just the recitation of popes and saints; it is a story of adventure, intrigue, rebellion, reform, and devotion. In this study you will learn about the important people, places, and events in two thousand years of Church history - true stories behind the Crusades, the Spanish Inquisition, and the Protestant Reformation as well as the massive persecution of Christians in the twentieth century. Steve Weidenkopf, presenter, will help you gain an understanding of the workings of the Holy Spirit in our Church. Part 2 of this study will be held on Mondays @ 6pm on the following dates: Jan. 24, 31, Feb. 7, and 14. The next part of EPIC will be held in the early part of fall next year. Anyone who would like to join in this study is welcome!

RE Updates

- There will be NO weekly class sessions on January 25/26.
- Families of Faith will meet Sunday, January 30, 3-5 pm
- There is a First Eucharist parent/child class Feb. 15/16, 4:30-6pm

January is the month dedicated to the Holy Name of Jesus. Here are some ways your family can grow together in faith this month.

January 28 is the Feast of St. Thomas Aquinas, doctor of the church and patron saint of schools. Celebrate his feast day by saying a prayer for a special student or teacher in your life OR if you are a student, say the prayer on this page for guidance as you prepare for the coming week.

After saying the prayer to Thomas Aquinas, take some time to color and cut out the picture of Thomas Aquinas below.

School Prayer †

Grant me,
O Lord my God,
a mind to know you,
a heart to seek you,
wisdom to find you,
conduct pleasing to you,
faithful perseverance in waiting for you,
and a hope of finally embracing you.

Amen.

-St. Thomas Aquinas

This feast celebrates the fortieth day after Christmas, celebrating the day Mary and Joseph brought Jesus to the Temple. In the sixth century France, they added solemn blessings and processions of candles, popularly known as "Candlemas." In the middle ages, the feast became associated by farmers with predictions about the weather. Please join for Candlemas either in the morning or evening!

- 8:00 am with solemn entrance and blessing of candles
- 6:30 pm candlelit Mass with blessing and procession of candles

You may bring personal candles to be blessed. Set them on the table in back of Church for the morning Mass, or on the table in Good Samaritan Hall for the evening Mass.

The evening Mass will begin in the hall with the blessing of candles, and you will process into the sanctuary while holding a vigil candle.

THAT MAN IS YOU!

Something awesome is continuing in Oshkosh beginning February 2, the seventh year of That Man Is You!

That Man Is You is a men's program focused on the development of men in the modern world. It combines Scripture, solid research and a little fun to help men become authentic leaders capable of transforming themselves, their families and greater society.

This year's title is "Thy Kingdom Come" and builds on the incredible success of the first six years of That Man Is You. Yet, anyone can begin at Year Seven without having first attended the previous years! And, this year's new program features ten dynamic speakers!

This all-city, all-Parishes program will be held, in-person, on Wednesday Mornings from 5:30 – 7:00 a.m. at St. Jude the Apostle Parish – Sacred Heart site in Leannah Hall beginning on February 2.

There is also the option of watching the week's video presentation online, at your leisure, and attending a virtual (Zoom) small group session from 7:00 a.m. to 7:30 a.m. on Wednesday mornings.

And, there is no homework, you can miss sessions when necessary, and there is no fee! You can get more information and register through the Parish office, at one of the sessions, or call Bruce at 920-231-3527.

Men, join TMIY to "Become A Man After God's Own Heart" as "Thy Kingdom Comes!"

Reflecting on the Scriptures

As a body is one, though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit. Now the body is not a single part, but many. You are Christ's body, and individually parts of it.

Christmas appears to be over. Or is it?

Christmas is a wonderful celebration of God's coming to earth in the incarnation of Jesus, and so we celebrate His birth. While here on earth, Jesus healed, loved, exorcised demons, raised Lazarus, changed water into wine, always caring, and loving, especially those on the outside of mainstream society. At the end of his time here on earth, Jesus commissioned those closest to Him to love as He loved. He told them that they would do greater works than He. (John 14:12)

So how will all this loving, care, transformation, and care of the poor, those on the fringes of society continue? After all, Jesus has ascended. Yet the incarnation was not just for Jesus' life while on earth. The incarnation continues---how can that possibly be?

The ascension of Jesus does not end the incarnation. God continues still to have real flesh on earth. St. Paul explains, "Now you are Christ's body, and individually parts of it". To clarify, Scripture uses "the Body of Christ" to mean three things: 1) Jesus, the incarnate Son of God, who walked this earth for 33 years; 2) the Eucharist, and 3) the body/community of believers.

While Jesus walked this earth, he transformed it with His love in action for others. So who is to love and care for people at this time in history, in this place? It is you and I who are the hands, the feet, the head, heart, lips, and ears of Christ.

Which part of the body am I? Am I the ears who listens well to others in pain, in struggle, in loneliness, in joy, and in grief? Am I the head who can plan, organize, schedule, be a leader? Am I the person who can cook, care for, clean, etc., using my hands to love and serve others? Am I the feet, who run the errands, chauffeur others, mow the lawn, or visits those who cannot get out? Or am I the mouthpiece of God who teaches, makes others smile, sings, prophesies to the truth? Am I the eyes who sees the needs, recognizes the pain, and looks with love on others? Am I the heart who has empathy that translates into prayer and action? What part of the body of Christ am I? Whom am I called to?

In John's Gospel, Jesus tells us that, as His disciples, we can do all the things that He does, and even greater things as the body of Christ. Like Jesus, we, too, can freely forgive, heal each other with touch and compassion, and reach through death in praying for our loved ones. The incarnation began when Jesus was born, and it continues today through you and through me. As the community of believers, we are the mystical body of Christ.

When you find yourself in the position to help someone, be happy and feel blessed because God is answering that person's prayer through you. Remember, our purpose on earth is not to get lost in the dark, but to be a light to others, to be the hands and feet of Christ so that they may begin to know Him through Christ in us.

In the words of St. Teresa of Avila---

Christ has no body now, but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes through which He looks, compassion on this world

Yours are the feet with which he wants to do good

Yours are the hands with which he blesses all the world.

Yours are the hands. Yours are the feet. Yours are the eyes. You are his body.

Christ has no body now but yours. No hands, no feet on earth but yours.

Yours are the eyes through which he looks. Compassion on this world.

Christ has no body now on earth but yours.

WORKING WITH THE SCRIPTURES

(Lk 1:1-4; 4:14-21)

A friend of mine had cataract surgery on his left eye a few months ago and was so delighted with the outcome that he immediately asked the doctor to do the other eye as well. He was like a kid with a new toy – seeing colors he hadn't been able to see before, reading road signs that had previously been only a blur until he was practically on top of them. Without his even realizing it his eyesight had been slowly deteriorating. He had forgotten how red a stop sign was or how many shades of green there were. Driving became fun again (and a lot safer for the rest of us!) and each ornament on his Christmas tree, no matter how old, looked shiny and new.

“The Spirit of the Lord is upon me...to bring glad tidings to the poor...and recovery of sight to the blind...” I doubt very much that the ophthalmologist would ever claim that the Spirit of the Lord was upon him but I have seldom seen gladder tidings than the pronouncement that the surgery had gone well and my friend would indeed recover his sight! And it's not just my friend. This doctor does hundreds of these surgeries every year – hundreds of minor miracles; hundreds of lives lifted from the poverty of lost vision to the glad tidings of color and light; hundreds of people oppressed by restrictions on driving and reading set free to travel and enjoy their morning newspaper or a good murder mystery.

Why is it so hard for us to believe that God can use our gifts? What does it take for us to recognize the Spirit of the Lord upon us? What miracles do we require? How many successful cataract surgeries? How many people liberated from blindness? “Today this Scripture passage is fulfilled in [our] hearing.” God invites us to use our gifts to bring glad tidings to the poor – to proclaim liberty – to free the oppressed. How do we respond? Do we use the gifts the Spirit pours out on us? Or do we remain blind to the Spirit's presence in the work we do?

Father Ripley's Believe It or Not!

"The Bible in a Year" podcast by Fr. Mike Schmitz reached the top of the charts earlier this month. How much of the Bible do we hear read out loud at Mass? If you attend every Mass, on Sunday and on weekdays, for three years, you will have heard proclaimed 13.5% of the Old Testament and 71.5% of the New Testament (including 89.8% of the Gospels).

Believe it or not--and this is not necessarily a bad thing--but before the Lectionary (i.e., the book at Mass with all of the readings in it) was revamped in 1969, the Old Testament was never read on Sundays. It was only read on special vigils, such as the Easter Vigil and Pentecost Vigil, and on a handful of important weekdays. Therefore, only about 1% of the Old Testament was read.

Similarly, not too much of the New Testament, just 16.5%, was read. For example, the Letter of St. Jude, the Book of Revelation, and the two Letters to Timothy were not read at all. It just so happens that the feast of Ss. Timothy and Titus are coming up this Wednesday.

The goal of changing it was to more widely spiritually nourish the Church with the Word of God. Surely the level of interest Catholics have in studying Scripture has increased, and Catholics are now much more familiar with various Biblical stories. Some might argue that having a more clear focus was beneficial, too. It was in place since 1590, so it must have worked well. Yet, the Church does develop and grow, and the Holy Spirit is always at work to make that happen.
