WORDS WITH FATHER

What does it mean to be a parishioner at a parish? Some answer this with a very simple legalistic answer, and they wouldn't be wrong. However, the question comes down to some very simple language. Are you engaged in parish life? This necessitates a number of elements:

1) Are you spiritually engaged in the life of the parish? Do you attend and participate in Sunday Mass at the parish regularly? Are you following Jesus Christ personally and with others in the parish?

2) Are you attending parish events? Are you paying attention to the communications and activities of the parish, and contributing your time, skills, and material support to meet the needs of the community?

3) When there are challenges that arise in parish life, are you engaging positively to find solutions so that all who belong to the parish can be a blessing to one another?

I ask each of you to ask yourselves these questions. The honest answers help us to know before God how we can respond well to the call of Christ to know, love, and serve Him at St. Peter and St. Martin Parishes. The Lord has much for us to be about – are you engaged in His mission?

Fr. Chris

ARE YOU THINKING OF BECOMING CATHOLIC OR KNOW SOMEONE WHO IS?

Are you interested in becoming Catholic, or perhaps just want to know more about what the Catholic Church teaches? Are you in need of any sacramental preparation for Baptism, Confirmation, Eucharist or Confession? Then RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) could be right for you!

Becoming a Catholic is the most joyous experience that someone could experience, for it is accepting the Way, the Truth, and the Life--Christ himself. Becoming Catholic means that someone is choosing the way of Christ over the way of the world; he or she begins the process of conversion that will last a lifetime, but will hopefully lead him or her into salvation and eternal life with God.

The sacraments of initiation--Baptism, Confirmation, and Holy Eucharist--are necessary for complete unity with the Catholic Church, for all Catholics. The process of becoming initiated into the Church looks different, depending on how many of these sacraments have already been received.

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or just want to inquire, please email Michelle LeVeque at faithformation@ashtoncatholic.org or call 572-3844.
