LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading I: Acts 5.12-16

Response: Psalm 118

Leader then All

This day was made by the Lord; let us re-joice, let us be glad!

This day was made by the Lord; let us re-joice in sal - va - tion!

Reading II: Revelation 1.9-11a, 12-13, 17-19

Gospel Acclamation

Al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia, al - le - lu - ia!

I believe in God,
 the Father almighty, Creator of heaven and earth,
 and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord,
*who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
 born of the Virgin Mary,*
 suffered under Pontius Pilate,
 was crucified, died and was buried;
 he descended into hell;
 on the third day he rose again from the dead;
 he ascended into heaven,
 and is seated at the right hand
 of God the Father almighty;
 from there he will come to judge
 the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
 the holy catholic Church,
 the communion of saints,
 the forgiveness of sins,
 the resurrection of the body,
 and life everlasting.
 Amen.

More "Blah, Blah, Blah" from Msgr. Mark

I want to let you in on a little secret. During Holy Week a lot of good-hearted people express concern for how exhausting it must be for clergy to celebrate the liturgies of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, the Vigil of Easter, and Easter Sunday morning. And while I have never been one to dismiss such kind words, the truth is that, while there are a lot of details to oversee through the various services of the Triduum ... you need not worry about us clergy. We're focusing on the most essential things these days, so there's no better time in a parish priest's life.

If you keep track of such things, you might have noticed that Fr. Joe and I weren't in the same place at the same time last week. Last year, Fr. Joe's first Triduum with us, he and I concelebrated the Holy Thursday and Easter Vigil liturgies, while each of us took one of the Good Friday services and two of the Easter Sunday Masses. We had planned the same thing this year, and then duty called. A couple weeks before Holy Week Fr. Gus Biel, pastor in Bevent and Galloway, fell on some ice and tore his rotator cuff, and so was put out of commission as we approached Holy Week and he waited for a date with a surgeon. Fr. Joe "volunteered" for the Holy Thursday and Good Friday services in Galloway, and I presided at the Easter Vigil in Bevent, and two other priests parachuted in to cover other services ... but we were able to celebrate a full Triduum cycle here as well as there.

I have a great reason to be doubly grateful then! Your presence and participation in Lent, Holy Week, and the Easter Triduum was so very uplifting. Beyond that, for the first time in two years it seemed that we had an outpouring of worshippers something like I was used to seeing at St. Michael's and Resurrection Parish "B.C." (Before COVID). Hallelujah! Kudos as well to the many, many that helped produce our celebrations: church cleaners, those who changed the seasonal environment, participants in the foot washing, our deacons, ushers, readers, musicians, communion ministers, and Fr. Joe of the Burning Bush. It takes an army to pull off the Easter Triduum.

There is a new icon in the sanctuary at St. Michael's for the season. It's not exactly a portrait of Easter Sunday but what happened on Holy Saturday. It does not show Christ coming out of the tomb, like a superhero, with a banner that says, "I cheated death," but the Lord descending into the very realm of the dead. Christ, as the Light of the World, wears all-white. The wounds in His hands and feet are visible. He stands on two doors, the gates of Hades, now broken down by the Resurrection. The most prominent figures after the Lord, are Adam and Eve, the symbols of a human race created in God's image and likeness which had been distorted by sin. Jesus doesn't clasp their hands as an equal but grabs them by their wrists like a lifeguard as he pulls them out of Hell. Below the doors of Hell is a presentation of Death, itself now chained. To the left of Christ are the figures of King David and Solomon and John the Baptist, to the right Abel (the first person to die in the Bible), Moses, and a third figure I am not able to identify. These righteous figures of the Old Testament died with faith that something greater was coming, and now they share in it. Jesus did not "cheat" death ... He destroyed it. And because of his victory we, too, have confidence and are not discouraged. Let this image talk to you throughout the fifty days of Easter.

Readings for the Third Sunday of Easter
May 1

Acts 5:27-32; Psalm 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11-13;
Revelation 5:11-14; John 21:1-19

On the Third Sunday of Easter we are still considering the appearances of the Risen Jesus ... but we have moved out of the immediate moment (right after Jesus' death) and the original place (Jerusalem). It is now weeks or even months later, and the disciples have returned to Galilee, their home area, and an old pastime, fishing. As in other post-Resurrection appearances, the disciples don't recognize Jesus immediately. Once again, he calls them away from their nets. The encounter must have felt so familiar—a meal hosted by Jesus. The after-breakfast conversation is a call story in which Peter must pledge his love for the Lord before he is ready for work. What images of the Eucharist do you find in the Gospel story? Why do you think Jesus repeats his question to Peter three times?

Thank you to Gary and Nancy France for their donation to the new Paschal Candle in memory of the deceased members of the Albers, France and Gajewski families.

Is a baby in your future? Baptism prep classes will be held soon.

We ask first-time parents who are hoping to present a child for baptism to undertake some preparation by way of a pair of formation sessions. Our next series of baptism classes will start soon (and then perhaps not again for a couple months). Rather than wait for your child's birth, we welcome your preparation before you deliver. Call the parish office at 715-842-4283 to get on the list.

Calling home all stuffed CRS rice bowls

We hope your cardboard Catholic Relief Service "rice bowls" kept challenging you to make room in your lives and pocketbooks for the hungry of the world. Now is the time we would welcome them back as the fruit of your Lenten charity. There will be a basket at the back of both churches for the next few weekends, ready to receive your "stuffed" Rice Bowls. Once we have them all together, we'll send our gift on to Catholic Relief Services.

To Touch is To Heal, To Heal is To Touch

"After that, He poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet drying them with a towel that was wrapped around him." John 13:5

In our culture, the feet are considered as one of the dirtiest parts of the body. But, we should not take for granted the important role that feet play in our lives. The feet are an extension of our legs, and they help us move and perform our daily functions. Have you ever worn a pair of improperly fitting shoes for the day? I have and at the end of the day I was ready to throw them in the garbage and walk barefoot. It is noticeable also, that when our feet hurt, it makes everything else seem to be out of sorts. You don't think right when your feet are hurting, and it makes your fuse shorter with others.

Life would be challenging if we did not have feet. We need the Lord to guide our footsteps continually. Lord, I thank you for my feet!

Jesus, the Savior of the world served others through the washing of their feet. The call to serve others is evidence of our faith and values at work in our lives. The greatest joy comes from giving and serving others. Take a moment to give praise to God for allowing you to help and be kind to others as the hands and feet of Jesus!

"Give careful thought to the paths for your feet and be steadfast in all your ways." Proverbs 4:26

As we continue on our Easter journey be glad for the guidance from the Lord, as he will make plain the path for your life and guide your feet. The Lord will continue to make paths for your feet.

Blessings, Pam Frary RN

COVID procedures at Sunday Masses

Here's a rundown of our current procedures at worship:

- For the unvaccinated, the wearing of face coverings is welcomed.
- The first and last pew in each section will continue to have a "buffer" row behind or in front of them for those who would welcome more space between themselves and others.
- We have begun to invite the assembly to exchange the Sign of Peace. You are welcome, at your comfort level, to exchange it within your family/household grouping, but don't assume that everyone around you will welcome a handshake.
