The Universal Prayer

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
 of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son
 is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

More "Blah, Blah, Blah" from Msgr. Mark

This may seem impossibly early, but classes in our Catholic schools begin this Thursday, things in Wausau public schools will ramp up late next week, and I know some parishioner college students who are already back to campus. So it's time to pray ... for them, their teachers, and for the parents and families who send them off. I hope you will find these two prayers suitable to "clip" and post on your refrigerators or place with your daily prayer materials. Both are by my colleague from Boston, Fr. Austin Fleming. The first would be suitable to pray with your children at the start of the school day (or slip it in their school bag); the other for parents and grandparents after the kids are gone and you have a moment of quiet. And if you have no children, or they are beyond school age, why not pray these prayers for those in the middle of this enterprise upon which we invest such hope.

A Student's Prayer

*Help me remember that you're always by my side, at school and all day long.
Help me be the best student I can be,
using all the gifts and talents you've given me.
Help me study well and often
– especially when I don't feel like studying at all!
Help me finish all my homework – on time.
Help me listen to my teachers and coaches.
Help me play fair and play safely.
Help me be honest when I'm tempted to cheat.
Help me always tell the truth.
Help me be kind to everyone at school and to treat others as I'd want them to treat me.
Help me make good friends
and help me be a good friend to others.
Help me see how I can help others
and to ask for help when I need it myself.
Help me love and respect, trust and appreciate my parents
- and be honest with them.
Help me remember that you're with me always, Lord,
and that you'll never leave my side. Amen.*

A Parent's Prayer for Students

*Dear Lord, as my children leave for school,
I pray you keep them in your care.
Send your Spirit to open their minds to all that's true and beautiful and good.
Help them see the gifts and talents
you have given them
and teach them to use them well.
Help them to grow in knowledge and wisdom.
Help them to be kind to others and lead others to be kind to them.
Give their teachers patience and understanding and help them teach what's just and true.
Send your angels to guide and guard my children and to keep them from all harm.
Open their young hearts to your presence and enfold them in your peace and protection.
Hold them in the palm of your hand, Lord,
and at day's end, bring them safely home. Amen.*

Mass and reflection opportunities are available throughout the week on our website at eastsideparishes.org

- ◇ The 8:30am Sunday Mass at the Church of the Resurrection is live-streamed for immediate viewing and then available for re-viewing for several days.
- ◇ One of the clergy records a reading from the daily Mass and shares a 5-8 minute (audio-only) reflection.

Scripture readings for this week can be found at: <https://bible.usccb.org>

Readings for the 22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time September 4, 2022

Sirach 3:17-20,28-29; Hebrews 12:18-24a; Luke 14:1,7-14

Pay attention: Jesus spends lots of time in Luke's Gospel at the supper table, and more is at stake in his advice about where to sit at table than a lesson in etiquette. He presents another example of the "downward mobility" that he has predicted for himself (and expects of those who would follow him). The sharing of a meal signified that there was a relationship between the host and the guests. If invited, the poor, the crippled, the blind, lack the means to reciprocate. To give without thought of return is itself a form of humility, the very opposite of self-promotion. As was the Master, so should the servant be. Name a time that you were changed by receiving from someone who expected nothing in return.

Mission Cooperative Visitor for the Summer: Fr. Kyle Laylan

When this area was initially opened to European settlement, the Church wasn't far behind. Missionary priests would follow the rivers that served as highways into this region and gather Irish, French-Canadian, and German settlers to establish the Church. Their salaries, catechetical books, and materials for building mission stations were often paid for by mission societies made up of clergy and laity in Germany and France where the Catholic community was already well established. Now it is our turn. So, annually the parishes of the Diocese welcome a priest or religious with experience of the emerging Church to speak about the life and needs there. So, this weekend, August 20-21, Fr. Kyle Laylan, a priest of the Diocese who has worked at the Casa Hogar Juan Pablo II orphanage in Peru will preside and preach at all the Masses. Do welcome him.!

The Jubilee House Meal, an ecumenical outreach meal served at St. Matthew's on Thursday, September 1, will be prepared and served by our Eastside Parishes volunteers. If you are not already on their volunteer list, please call 715-842-4283 to become involved.

Please remember all of our homebound and hospitalized parishioners from Resurrection and St. Michael Parishes in your prayers this week.

Mass for Labor Day, September 5, at 9:00 am.

Our Monday schedule usually calls for an "after work" Mass option at 5:30 pm at Resurrection, but since Monday, the 5th of Sept. is Labor Day, as we have done on other Monday national holidays, we will be moving the Mass for that day only to a 9:00 am timeslot.

Eastside Parishes Pictorial Directory Information:

- ◆ The picture-taking dates remaining are Aug. 23-27 and Sept. 13-17.
- ◆ Visit eastsideparishes.org and click on the purple banner for more details and to sign up for a time slot.
- ◆ If you prefer, please call 715-842-4283 to sign up.
- ◆ Each family who is photographed will receive a pictorial directory and a complimentary 5"x7" or 8"x10" photo.

Week Two of picture-taking begins this Tuesday. If you haven't done so yet, please sign up soon!

Parishioners who are homebound or in a nursing home and are unable to come to have their picture taken, but would like to be included in the directory, may call 715-842-4283 to make arrangements for someone to visit them and take their picture. Please call with any questions or to schedule an appointment.

Friday Morning Men's Group this fall will discuss a new book by Bishop Robert Barron.

Men are ... well, different. Many of us find it hard to know what to say when the topics stray from the Packers, work, and the like. Some of us tend to lose our voices when the other gender, who seem to share so easily, begin to speak. One remedy is a Men's Group: a study and social group for the men of the Eastside Parishes. We meet two Fridays a month, usually the first and third Fridays of the month, from 6:30-7:45 am for a light breakfast, discussion, and prayer in Francis Hall at Resurrection Church. The starting date for this year will be Friday, September 16. The "agenda" will be a readthrough of some of the essays in Bishop Robert Barron's new book, "Redeeming the Time." So again, September 16, 6:30 am, Francis Hall at Resurrection. Call 715-842-4283 to get on the list.

The new phone system for our parish offices has been installed and is operating. We are in the process of fine-tuning the phone-tree process. Ideally, when all is set properly, a staff member will answer the phone when you call in, unless they are away from their desk or on another line. The office phone numbers will remain the same.

Faith Formation Registration

Registration forms, calendars, and information are available on our website for both Faith Formation (1-12*), and Sacramental Preparation (typically 2nd grade for 1st Reconciliation and Communion, and typically 10th grade for Confirmation).

Detailed information on texts used for all age groups is in the Faith Formation Handbook and available online, as well as in the hard copy registration packets in the back of church. Middle and high school will be highlighting a comprehensive youth ministry focus within the class sessions and beyond (for special events like retreats and service experiences.)

*You'll notice that all high school youth are invited to continue receiving ongoing faith formation through 12th grade. Receiving the sacrament of Confirmation in 10th grade does not change the need to learn the story of our faith and how best to integrate faith into our daily lives: if anything it deepens the hunger to do precisely that.

Contact Michelle at 715-842-1810 or email michelle@eastsideparishes.org with questions.

Go to www.eastsideparishes.org/ff today to access registration forms and other helpful information.

Volunteers are needed...

Catechists - Faith-filled people with a love for God who would like to share in the invitation to 'let the little children come to Him', and our middle and high school youth, too, are invited to prayerfully consider becoming a catechist, catechist aide or small-group leader for grades K-12. Resources are provided for those who choose to serve with any of the age groups.

High school teens are welcome to serve as catechist aides in grades 1-8, and peer ministers with high school for those who have been confirmed.

A comprehensive youth ministry perspective will guide the middle and high school sessions, which is most effective with a number of small-group leaders to engage the young people.

Preparation of Gifts and Altar — cantor first, then assembly

Come to the feast of heav-en and earth! Come to the ta- ble of plen - ty! God will pro-vide for all that we need, here at the ta - ble of plen - ty.

Preface DialogueEucharistic Acclamations — *see sidebarSong during the Communion Procession— cantor first, then assembly

We shall rise a-gain on the last day with the faith - ful, rich and poor. Com-ing to the house of Lord Je - sus, we will find an o - pen door there, we will find an o - pen door.

Song after the Final Blessing

1-2 to Verses Final

EUCCHARISTIC ACCLAMATION

Holy, Holy, Holy
Lord God of hosts.
Heaven and earth
are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest.
Blessed is he,
blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest.
Hosanna in the highest.

MYSTERY OF FAITH

When we eat this Bread
and drink this Cup,
we proclaim your Death, O Lord,
until you come again.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us;
and lead us not
into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil...
and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
are yours, now and forever.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

*Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world.
Blessed are those called to the supper
of the Lamb.*

Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter
under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul
shall be healed.
