LITURGY OF THE WORD

Reading I: Amos 8.4-7

Response: Psalm 113 — cantor first, then assembly

Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor.

GLORIA

Glory to God in the highest,
 and on earth peace to people of good will.
 We praise you,
 we bless you,
 we adore you,
 we glorify you,
 we give you thanks for your great glory,
 Lord God, heavenly King,
 O God, almighty Father.
 Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
 Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
 you take away the sins of the world,
 have mercy on us;
 you take away the sins of the world,
 receive our prayer;
 you are seated at the right hand of the Father,
 have mercy on us.
 For you alone are the Holy One,
 you alone are the Lord,
 you alone are the Most High,
 Jesus Christ,
 with the Holy Spirit,
 in the glory of God the Father.
 Amen.

NICENE CREED

I believe in one God,
 the Father almighty,
 maker of heaven and earth,
 of all things visible and invisible.
 I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
 the Only Begotten Son of God,
 born of the Father before all ages.
 God from God, Light from Light,
 true God from true God,
 begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father;
 through him all things were made.
 For us men and for our salvation
 he came down from heaven,
*and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate
 of the Virgin Mary, and became man.*
 For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
 he suffered death and was buried,
 and rose again on the third day
 in accordance with the Scriptures.
 He ascended into heaven
 and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
 He will come again in glory
 to judge the living and the dead
 and his kingdom will have no end.
 I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
 who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
 who with the Father and the Son
 is adored and glorified,
 who has spoken through the prophets.
 I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
 I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins
 and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

More “Blah, Blah, Blah” from Msgr. Mark

There’s a clever one-liner that “Jesus educated grown-ups and played with children, while the contemporary Church educates children and plays with adults” ... that is, we put a lot of emphasis on initial instruction for children (our schools, faith formation classes, sacramental preparation, etc.), while only gathering adults “to play” (socials, gaming, and raffles). It’s not as true as it used to be. In the 19th century, except for a few professions, it was assumed that after grade school one would put the books down and work. They didn’t think peoples’ brains were full, it’s just that, after adolescence, now was the time for labor. Few had the leisure for what we think of as “ongoing education.” Now that’s part of most of our employments ... and faith, too.

As the programming year begins and we send our kids and grandkids off for schooling, I aim to nudge the rest of you in the next few bulletin columns to consider where some growth in faith is called for by highlighting a job description for discipleship. Last week, I offered the first bit of my pattern for maturity in Christ, raising the question, “Do you know the story?” In a church tradition as large and rich as ours, there is no end to intellectual growth opportunities. As with human friendship, the better I understand God, the richer my love for God can be.

But that was last week. The second part of my job description for discipleship builds on that friendship analogy: Do I have a worthy, personal prayer life? I hear a lot of folks who struggle with prayer. They have the desire, but they stumble in the implementation. Some struggle because they continue to bring the expectations and practices of childhood lessons about prayer into their adulthood. The prayer forms I learned as a kid are still alive in me and useful, but I have adult questions and adult problems now. Perhaps something more will be demanded. Another problem is that we often find it very hard to make the time ... and so our prayer becomes occasional thoughts-about-God throughout the day without sitting down for a real “date.” Again, nothing wrong in itself in “chatting with God” as we make our way throughout the day ... but there’s more to a friendship than occasional quips.

What do you ask or expect of those you bless with the name “friend”? If you are like most people, you figure on spending time together by plan, not by chance. You hope for mutual sharing. You trust the other has your best interests in mind, and so let him or her in on your hurts and influence your decisions. These are the delights—and the price—of being “in relation” with another. Prayer for adults is not just “giving God a moment.” If you know how to be a friend, you already know how to be a friend of God. He asks nothing more of us ... and nothing less. So, the second part of my discipleship job description would invite me to consider whether I treat God as a vending machine ... or as a friend? As with any friendship, have I set a time aside ... not chance meetings while driving, or emptying the dishwasher, but a regular, daily, scheduled appointment ... just God and me, one-on-one?

There. That’s Item #2 on what could make us disciples of Jesus. Perhaps you have noticed that even as I am laying all of this on you, elsewhere in the bulletin I’m advertising Tuesday night “short courses.” You don’t suppose that’s an accident, do you? Nudge, nudge.

Msgr. Mark Pierce

Connect with Worship at Home

Mass and reflection opportunities are available throughout the week on our website at eastsideparishes.org

- ◇ The 8:30am Sunday Mass at the Church of the Resurrection is live-streamed for immediate viewing and then available for re-viewing for several days.
- ◇ One of the clergy records a reading from the daily Mass and shares a 5-8 minute (audio-only) reflection.

Scripture readings for this week can be found at: <https://bible.usccb.org>

Readings for the 26th Sunday in Ordinary Time September 25

(Amos 6:1a,4-7; 1 Timothy 6:11-16; Luke 16:19-31)

“Woe to the complacent ... they are not made ill by the collapse of Joseph!” Today’s first reading, pointed at those with comfortable lives, might trigger a little unease in us all as we reflect on the comfort of our own lifestyles. Neither this phrase from the prophet Amos, nor Jesus’ parable of the Rich Man and Lazarus, are about pain for pain’s sake. They are concerned about the lack of awareness of others’ plights. “Joseph,” by the way, is a nickname for the northern tribes of Israel. In the Gospel, the poor man lies just outside the house of the rich man but is ignored. Jesus and Amos stand together in expecting concern for the powerless as an aspect of God’s Law. The Rich Man may have, in other ways, been an admirable descendent of Abraham. For example, he does demonstrate concern for his family, but he failed to see beyond his door. Why do you think a righteous person would come to the aid of Lazarus? What mandates from Scripture do you have a hard time following?

Faith Formation Registration Open

Registration forms and calendars are available on our website for Faith Formation (Grades 1-12).

A Parent Meeting and Open House for all grades will be at St. Michael’s on September 21 at 6 pm.

The Men’s Group launched last Friday... ... there’s still time to join!

The brief essays in Bishop Robert Barron’s new book, “Redeeming the Time” will be the stuff of our discussions. We meet twice a month in Francis Hall at Resurrection Parish, beginning at 6:30 am with a light breakfast and coffee, before joining in discussion and prayer with release about 7:45 am. We had our initial meeting last week and will gather again this Friday, the 23rd. At this point, you don’t need to call ahead ... just show up.

Is a baby in your future? Our Baptismal preparation program is coming soon.

We ask first-time parents who would present a child for baptism to participate in a two-session preparation program scheduled to meet the calendars of the participants. Your attendance at this series now—even before your child is born—will allow you to schedule the sacrament without any delays. Call the offices to get on board: 715-842-4283 or 715-845-6715.

How about joining Fr. Mark for a six- or seven-week, Tuesday evening, brief course on faith?

Taking a break from “Catholicism 101” this year, Fr. Mark is going to offer two or three short courses on Tuesday nights. Each series will be a separate topic over a limited number of weeks. Then, there will be a break before we launch the next one. You can choose one or all of them. The first short course will begin the end of September or the first week of October. The topic will be selected by way of a beauty contest. See the options below. The one that gets the most votes will be first up. Call 715-842-4283 or email smoffice@eastsideparishes.org to leave your name and phone number/email and which one(s) you are interested in:

- Option A: The Bible for Bozos – how to approach the Scriptures and develop a plan for personal use.
- Option B: Praying Like an Adult – practical plans for developing a deeper, richer prayer life.
- Option C: Stump the Pastor – those in attendance will select topics in history/theology they want to explore.

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy
name; thy kingdom come;
thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and
forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who
trespass against us;
and lead us not
into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

*Deliver us, Lord, we pray, from every evil...
and the coming of our Savior, Jesus Christ.*

For the kingdom,
the power, and the glory
are yours, now and forever.

INVITATION TO COMMUNION

*Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper
of the Lamb.*

Lord, I am not worthy
that you should enter
under my roof,
but only say the word
and my soul
shall be healed.
