THE HOLY FAMILY

“For my eyes have seen your salvation, which you prepared in the sight of all the peoples.”

- Lk 2:30-31

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Michael

CHRISTMAS THANK YOU

On behalf of myself and the entire parish staff, I offer you a hearty thank you for the many Christmas greetings, note cards and Christmas treats. It warms our hearts to be recipients of such generous kindness. It gives us the sense of really being appreciated. Again, thank you.

This weekend, we celebrate the feast of the Holy Family. Let us pray for our families living and deceased, that we may grow closer to Christ in the coming new year.

For New Years, we have two Masses, one at 4:00pm on New Year's Eve and a 9:30am Mass on New Year's Day. We celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God. It is a Holy Day of obligation.

This weekend is also the feast of St. John the Evangelist, the Patron of our parish. We will formally bless the new icon of St. John the Evangelist. The depiction of St. John is at the chest of Jesus at the last supper. It is a very appropriate image for our parish with over 35 years of Eucharistic Adoration. May we always hunger for the bread of life.

END OF YEAR GOOD NEWS

A couple of pieces of good news as the year comes to an end.

The first item of good news came from the Archdiocesan Stewardship Appeal. They sent us a note stating that we have surpassed our goal by a little over $4,000. The total amount to date collected from our parish is $69,585. I believe this is the first time in the past nine years that we did so well. Thank you one and all who participated in this annual appeal. The monies collected for the Archdiocesan Stewardship are well-spent dollars as they help support all the ministries of the Archdiocese.

Secondly, I am pleased to announce that the Bipolar Air Cleaner arrived early and was installed immediately. Also, the money for the new air cleaner has been collected. A big thank you to those who financially made this possible.

The high-tech air purification system is used in many hospitals to clean the air by killing bacteria and viruses, along with many other air impurities. The way it works is that millions of positive and negative charged oxygen ions are sent into the air which attach to pathogens and kill them.

Any additional funds that come into the parish will be used for the repair of the roof on the shed. This project will begin immediately. Also, we continue to collect monies for the completion of our sidewalks replacement project which is scheduled to begin in Spring.

Many blessings to you and your families in the new year.

24-HOUR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

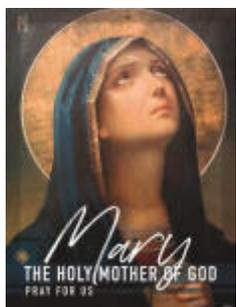

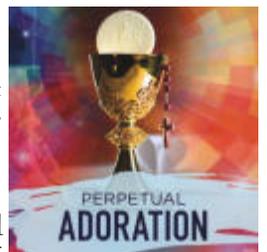

“God does not despise these hidden struggles with ourselves, so much richer in merit because they are unseen,” said St. Therese of Lisieux. She cites Proverbs 16:32.

A patient man is better than a warrior, and he who rules his temper, than he who takes a city.

“By our little acts of charity practiced in the shade, we convert souls far away, we help missionaries, we win for them abundant alms, and by that means build actual dwellings both spiritual and material for our Eucharistic Lord.”

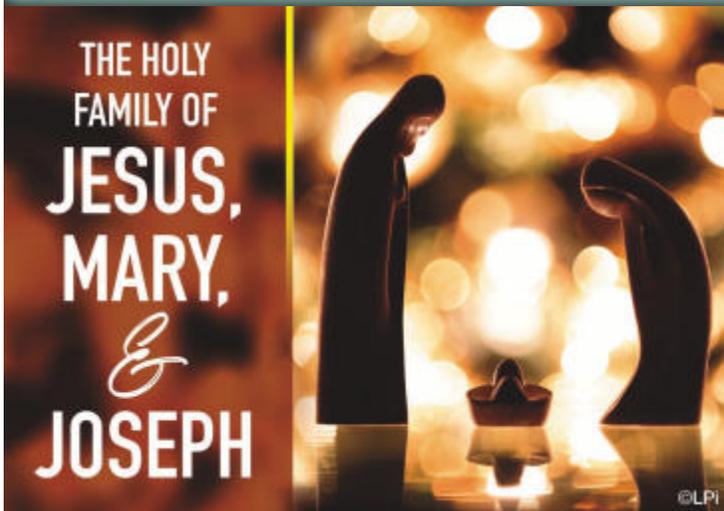

—St. Therese of Lisieux

St. John's is fortunate to have 24-hour Perpetual Adoration. Please take advantage of this beautiful opportunity to stay close to God. Hand sanitizer is available at the Adoration entrance (south side of Church) and we ask that you wear a mask and stay at least six feet from others while in Church.

Would you pray for a priest each day? “Be close to your priests with your affection and with your prayers that they may always be shepherds according to God’s heart.” - Pope Francis Tragedy and disappointment are inevitable. What sees you through this? There will be challenges, changes, unexpected circumstances, interrupted plans, hurts, and injustices experienced by every human being at some point in their lives. We will be asked to adjust our plans, change course, and even encounter suffering and death. Where do we learn all of the lessons we need to live life well? Some of them we learn along the way but much of what we bring to life, positive and negative, comes from our early beginnings, our families. This is our early world and provides the blueprint for how we see the bigger, more inclusive world, which unfolds before us.

Our families of origin can be sources of grace, heartache, or a combination of both. Families are intended to be pivotal in providing us with proper social structure and understanding, a support system, lessons about relationships and communication, and the unconditional acceptance and love we so desperately crave. They can also determine whether we have an accessible and healthy relationship with God. Many of life's challenges can literally bring us to our knees and require that we possess a strength of character that resides well beyond the superficialities of our world. At some point we will all need three coping gifts that can be given to us only by God: faith, hope, and love. Our families help us learn that we are not the ones responsible for their creation, but God!

Our experience of early family life colors all of our relationships and what we expect to achieve from life in general. Resolving conflicts, dealing with difficulty and suffering, celebrating accomplishments, prioritizing our needs, listening to God's call, understanding relationships, understanding disappointment, learning about the virtues and living a centered, focused life are all lessons our families either succeed in teaching or do not. To succeed, as God has designed and ordered our world, is to discover his presence and then trust that Presence. The Holy Family can teach even the most dysfunctional family how to best use God's gifts of faith, hope, and love to find him and do his will. Their simple humble example is always before us, showing us the way. Jesus, Mary and Joseph, pray for us! ©LPi

This weekend's Feast of the Holy Family is a celebration in honor of Jesus, his mother, and his legal father, St. Joseph, as a family and to present them as a model for all Christian families. Scripture tells us practically nothing about the first years and the boyhood of the Child Jesus. All we know are the facts of the sojourn in Egypt, the return to Nazareth, and the incidents that occurred when the 12-year-old boy accompanied his parents to Jerusalem. The Church hurries over this period of Christ's life with equal brevity. The general breakdown of the family, however, at the end of the past century and at the beginning of our own, prompted the popes, especially the far-sighted Leo XIII, to promote the observance of this feast with the hope that it might instill into Christian families something of the faithful love and the devoted attachment that characterize the family of Nazareth. The primary purpose of the Church in instituting and promoting this feast is to present the Holy Family as the model and exemplar of all Christian families.

—Excerpted from With Christ Through the Year, Rev. Bernard Strasser, O.S.B.

A PRAYER FOR THE HOLY FAMILY

O God, who were pleased to give us the shining example of the Holy Family, graciously grant that we may imitate them in practicing the virtues of family life and in the bonds of charity, and so, in the joy of your house, delight one day in eternal rewards. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

CD of the Week: Making P.E.A.C.E. With Difficult People

Dr. Gregory and Lisa Popcak, through a five-part P.E.A.C.E. process, offer powerful insights to help you work through difficult situations with the people in your life. This system will assist you in resolving problems and work towards more fully reconciling with them. Full of practical guidance, this presentation will show you how to better love and relate to the difficult people in your life.

Pick up a copy of this CD in the Narthex. Suggested donation is $4.

A PRAYER FOR THE NEW YEAR BY DEBBIE MCDANIEL

Thank You for making all things new. Thank You for all that You have allowed into our lives this past year, the good along with the hard things, which have reminded us how much we need You and rely on Your presence filling us every single day.

We pray for Your Spirit to lead us each step of this New Year. We ask that You will guide our decisions and turn our hearts to deeply desire You above all else. We ask that You will open doors needing to be opened and close the ones needing to be shut tight. We ask that You would help us release our grip on the things to which You have said "no," "not yet," or "wait." We ask for help to pursue You first, above every dream and desire You have put within our hearts.

We ask for Your wisdom, for Your strength and power to be constantly present within us. We pray You would make us strong and courageous for the road ahead. Give us ability beyond what we feel able, let Your gifts flow freely through us, so that You would be honored by our lives, and others would be drawn to You.

We pray that You keep us far from the snares and traps of temptations, that You would whisper in our ear when we need to run, and whisper in our heart when we need to stand our ground. We pray for Your protection over our families and friends. We ask for Your hand to cover us and keep us distanced from the evil intent of the enemy; that You would be a barrier to surround us, that we'd be safe in Your hands. We pray that You would give us discernment and insight beyond our years, to understand Your will, hear Your voice, and know Your ways.

We ask that you would keep our footsteps firm, on solid ground, helping us to be consistent and faithful. Give us supernatural endurance to stay the course, not swerving to the right or to the left, or being too easily distracted by other things that would seek to call us away from a close walk with You. Forgive us for the times we have worked so hard to be self-sufficient, forgetting our need for You, living independent of Your spirit. Forgive us for letting fear and worry control our minds, and for allowing pride and selfishness to wreak havoc over our lives. Forgive us for not following Your ways and for living distant from your presence.

We ask that You make all things new, in our hearts, in our minds, and in our lives, for this coming year. Keep Your words of truth planted firmly within us, help us to keep focused on what is pure and right, give us the power to be obedient to Your word. And when the enemy reminds us where we have been, hissing his lies and attacks our way, we trust that Your voice speaks louder and stronger, as You remind us we are safe with You and Your purposes and plans will not fail. We ask that You will be our defense and rear guard, keeping our way clear, removing the obstacles, and covering the pitfalls. Lord, lead us on your level ground.

We ask that You would provide for our needs, we ask for Your grace and favor. We pray for Your blessings to cover us, we pray that You would help us to prosper and make every plan that You have birthed in our heart to succeed. We pray that others would take notice of Your goodness and could not help but to say, "These are the ones that the Lord has blessed." Help us to be known as great givers, help us to be generous and kind, help us to look to the needs of others and not be consumed by only our own.

May we be lovers of truth, may the fruits of Your spirit be evident in our lives - Your love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. Shine Your light in us, through us, over us. May we make a difference in this world. May all Your plans succeed. May we reflect Your peace and hope to a world that so desperately needs your presence and healing. To You be glory and honor, in this New Year, and forever. Amen.
