1st SUNDAY OF LENT

“This is the time of fulfillment. The kingdom of God is at hand.
Repent, and believe in the gospel.” - Mk 1:15

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

From the Pastor's Desk

Fr. Michael

Please take a few minutes this week to ponder the words of Don Hying, Bishop of Madison:

LETTER FROM BISHOP DON HYING

The attacks, accusations, and demands fly in from every side:

“You supported Trump in the election and are complicit in the attack on the Capital.”

“You are in the back pocket of the Democratic Party.” “You made abortion the only issue in the election.”

“You were not vocal enough in defense of life.” “You need to help stop the steal.”

“I demand that you publicly affirm that Biden is the legitimate president.”

“I am leaving the Church because you are too (take your pick)
...conservative, liberal, silent, vocal, weak, strong.”

These are all messages I and probably every bishop in the country have been inundated with these past months and it is actually getting worse. The anger and vitriol is palpably toxic.

Our cultural, political, and social divisions, exacerbated by COVID; the elections; and the violence in our streets and cities have unfortunately entered into the Church and are seriously wounding our unity in Christ. We now seem to have Biden Catholics and Trump Catholics, perhaps just the latest incarnation of traditional and progressive Catholics, but a division that is louder, angrier, and far less compromising than all the previous rifts in the Body of Christ. Any words of moderation, actions of conciliation, benefit of the doubt given to another point of view, or attempt to find middle ground is dismissed as betrayal and disloyalty to the truth.

Most Catholics are simply trying to live their faith, focus on Jesus Christ, become holy, and do God's will. Many people had questions and concerns about some of President Trump's policies and actions, as many do about President Biden. The Catholic bishops of the United States called abortion the “preeminent” issue facing our nation because of its intrinsic evil as the deliberate taking of human life in its fragile beginnings, but “preeminent” does not mean “only.” I articulated this point in my letter last September. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops has always tried to work with every presidential administration, supporting policies and programs consonant with moral teaching and resisting those which are not. The fact that President Biden is a baptized Catholic who attends Mass and asserts faith as the guiding principle of his life gives greater urgency to the need to challenge those of his policies which are opposed to moral teaching based on the natural law. Some may mistakenly assume the Church is taking political sides, but Her actions are always inspired by the truth of God's revelation and the dignity of the human person. And that cuts both ways, as the Word of God is “sharper than a two-edged sword.” Hebrews 4:12

All Catholics have to be careful to engage in political life in a manner that reflects the Gospel, but clergy need to exercise special caution so that their political activity is consistent with their vocation in the Church. Bishops, priests and deacons, as individuals and citizens, obviously can vote and hold political opinions. As pastoral leaders and members of the hierarchy, however, our task is to preach and teach the Catholic faith to the laity and to lay out the revealed priority of moral issues (and indeed for pastors to fail to preach the truths of our faith is to fail in loving our people). The task of the laity is to form their consciences and apply the teachings of the Church to the spheres of politics, economy, society, and culture. Clerics should not be publicly voicing overt and purely political opinions regarding individuals, parties, election results, the current news cycle, nor engaging in ad hominem attacks. Such actions threaten to politicize the Church and divide our people even more. Furthermore, canon law places legitimate limits on clerical engagement in political activities. This is not a matter of being timid or politically correct, remaining neutral on moral issues, or protecting the Church's tax exempt status, but of acknowledging and honoring the respective roles of the clergy and the lay faithful.

I have a suggestion for everyone, including myself. Let's spend these months leading up to Easter in deeper prayer, penance, and almsgiving. Instead of pointing accusatory fingers at others, let's point one at ourselves. How can I be more patient, kind, gentle, and compassionate to others, especially those I disagree with? Get off social media and get in front of the Blessed Sacrament. Stop watching so much news and start reading the Good News. Spend the time on volunteer service to help the poor instead of writing angry emails. Examine your conscience regarding the sins of calumny, rash judgement, violent anger, and malicious speech. And then go to confession. (continued on next page)

“Faith is to believe what you do not see. The reward of faith is to see what you believe.”

ST. AUGUSTINE OF HIPPO

Would you pray for a priest each day? “Be close to your priests with your affection and with your prayers that they may always be shepherds according to God's heart.” - Pope Francis

From the Principal's Desk

Mary Laidlaw-Otto

Last Wednesday, we began our preparations for Easter with our Ash Wednesday liturgy. In a normal year, we would have celebrated Paczki with Pop on Fat Tuesday, inviting all of our dads, granddads, uncles, and friends into our building for some early morning treats and conversation. This year, members of our Home and School braved the extremely cold weather and provided drive-through paczki and coffee for our parents. Although this certainly can't match fellowship in our building, it is a wonderful way to let our parents know how important they are to us!

Our children will focus on fasting, prayer, and almsgiving throughout the Lenten season. We love the season of Lent. It is an opportunity to take some time for quiet activities before the busy spring season begins. Our children will benefit greatly from time spent in Adoration, and frequent classroom opportunities for prayer. Our students (and staff members) will abstain from unnecessary treats. We also encourage our students to consider giving up a bad habit. Unkind words toward family members and other students are often a struggle for our children. Lent is the perfect time to stop and consider how we can improve our relationship with God, and with each other.

In addition, our students will receive Reconciliation and we will gather to pray the Stations of the Cross each Friday afternoon. Unfortunately, this year we are not able to invite our families or parishioners to join us as we pray the Stations. Please consider stopping whatever you are doing each Friday afternoon and saying a quick prayer for our students. Your prayers support the efforts of our teachers and students as we all travel on the path to Heaven.

Together in God's Name.

LETTER FROM BISHOP DON HYING (continued)

I am not implying that we should be silent in the face of evil, injustice, and wrongdoing, but we need to stick with the moral issues and refrain from the personal attacks. If we do not even desire to heal the divisions among us, how can we ever rediscover our unity in Christ? The painful experience of these past months tells me that we as fallen human beings can become divisively tribal. We instinctively associate with people who think, act, and live as we do. While this may be a reflexive human response due to our fallen nature, Jesus Christ calls us to a far greater reality, indeed a supernatural unity, founded in the very life of the Most Blessed Trinity. Jesus served, loved, died, and rose from the dead to establish a New Covenant in His Blood, a redeemed humanity of every race, tribe, and tongue, incorporating every culture, nationality, class and people into the Church. For us Christians, water is thicker than blood, for the communion we discover in the waters of Baptism is far deeper and significant than the ties of race, nation, political party, and even family. If we are bound together in Christ as His Mystical Body, then how can we keep tearing each other apart? We are brothers and sisters in Christ.

“But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.” Galatians 5:15

Blessings and prayers,

THE JUBILEE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH - ST. JOSEPH PRAYER
St. Joseph, by the obedience which Jesus rendered to you, make me always obedient to the will of God.

24-HOUR EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

“Perpetual Adoration, Eucharistic Adoration offers to our people the opportunity to join those in religious life to pray for the salvation of the world, souls everywhere and peace on earth. We cannot underestimate the power of prayer and the difference it will make in our world.”

—St. Teresa of Calcutta

St. John's is fortunate to have 24-hour Perpetual Adoration. Please take advantage of this beautiful opportunity to stay close to God. Hand sanitizer is available at the Adoration entrance (south side of Church) and we ask that you wear a mask and stay at least six feet from others while in Church.

CD of the Week:
The Jewish Roots of Holy Week

Holy Week is the holiest week of the year. But why do we call the entire week “holy?” Does anything important happen on the days between Palm Sunday and Easter Sunday? Follow Scripture scholar and professor Dr. Brant Pitre as he walks through each of the seven days of Holy Week, and explains how the words and actions of Jesus on the last seven days of His life are deeply significant, relevant, and rooted in the Old Testament. Enter Holy Week and make it your most life-changing week yet.

Pick up a copy of this CD in the Narthex. Suggested donation is $4.

Parishioner News

St. John the Evangelist is a Roman Catholic Eucharistic community faithful to the values and traditions of the Church. We strive to live our faith every day, to embrace stewardship, and to be nurtured by continuous Christian Formation.

We welcome the following children who will be baptized this Sunday into our parish community:

Peyton Rae Van Dusen and Ava Elise Condecon-Acker

May God bless them and their parents and families, as they continue to grow in God's love.

PRAYER SHAWL MINISTRY UPDATE

The St. John's Prayer Shawl Ministry has blessed prayer shawls, lap blankets, fingerless gloves and 'twiddlemuffs.' What are 'twiddlemuffs,' you may ask? They are for people with dementia to put their hands into and twiddle with the numerous trinkets that are attached. All of these items are available FREE to anyone, to bring comfort in a time of need. To request items, please call the Parish Office at 414-321-1965 or email to: rectory@stjohns-grfd.org. We pray that the recipients of these lovely stitched creations will be touched by God's love and amazing grace. If you have yarn to donate to the ministry, please drop it off at the Parish Office. Blessings to all!

LENTEN SPIRITUAL ADOPTION EVENT

The Lenten Spiritual Adoption Event was to begin last weekend. However, due to the extreme cold weather, the kickoff was moved to this weekend. After all Masses, parishioners and guests can pick up either a pink or blue prayer card or one of each! The cards contain a special prayer for the unborn, and a space for you to add the name of your adopted unborn child. You can pick any name that you like, boy or girl. You will be making a commitment to recite this prayer for your child each day during Lent. The Respect Life Committee especially encourages kids and teens to join in. They need everyone to remember our preborn brothers and sisters, with their prayers and sacrifices during Lent. Members of the Respect Life Committee will be in the narthex to answer any questions you may have.

Also, the "40 Days for Life" campaign, which started at the beginning of Lent, fits in perfectly with your prayers for your spiritually-adopted preborn child so please include both with your daily "40 Days for Life" prayers.

RESPECT LIFE HOLY HOUR

Just a reminder of the Holy Hour for the unborn babies that occurs every fourth Wednesday of the month at 7:00pm. Please join parishioners and guests this coming Wednesday, February 24. As Catholics, we have an obligation to pray for these children and their moms.

RETREAT FOR MEN

A retreat for men will be held Friday, February 26 to Sunday, February 28 at the Perpetual Help Retreat Center in Oconomowoc. Check in is between 6:00pm and 6:30pm on Friday. The retreat starts at 7:00pm and runs through Noon on Sunday. Car pooling is available. Social distancing and mask wearing will be required. For details and to sign up, please contact Ron Hesel at 414-448-7117 or call the retreat center at 262-567-6900.
