St. Isidore the Farmer Parish

Thank you to everyone who sent me those beautiful cards, kind words and generous gift.

Thank you cards have gone out but, some gifts and cards were secretly given, so to those, a big thank you also.

Blessings for the New Year!
Christal

Time & Talent

It's time again for our Time and Talent fundraising event. We are asking for your donations of time and talent. Items could include crafts, wood items, gift certificates, services, bakery items etc. All items are appreciated but because of past comments about prizes being used, we no longer can accept items that are not new. In order to donate larger prizes you may want to consider getting together with family and friends.

Donation sheets are available in the entrances of the churches and our website. Donation commitments must be turned in no later than February 10th.

We will have a section in the book for Made or Given by Smaller Hands. We would like to try to get the children involved in this event by giving them their own spot in the raffle booklet. Be creative and use your imagination.

Donation sheet are on our website: stthereseonline.com
