FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

Good Shepherd Sunday

In this Sunday's gospel, Saint John reminds us of the image of the good shepherd. "I am the good shepherd. A good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep...I am the good shepherd, and I know mine and mine know me, just as the Father knows me and I know the Father... I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. These also I must lead, and they will hear my voice, and there will be one flock, one shepherd." The image of a shepherd was very familiar in the time of Jesus. Raising sheep was a common means of making a living. A shepherd was to protect, guide, and lead the sheep to green pastures. In the same way, Jesus is the shepherd of a flock, the Church. He is the good shepherd, the perfect shepherd who teaches, nourishes, guides, protects, loves, knows, and saves his flock.

A good shepherd loves his sheep. Jesus is the good shepherd, as seen all throughout the gospels. He taught in the synagogues; he fed the people through the multiplication of the fish and loaves; he showed the way to the father to his disciples; he defended the rights of the poor and marginalized; he loved the good and bad alike; he knew everyone's needs; he saved humankind from the power of sin. The sheep trust the shepherd because they see his love in his actions. In the same way, we are to trust in Jesus since we have seen his love for us. Jesus is constantly teaching, nourishing, guiding, protecting, loving, and saving us. Let us reflect on the way Jesus is the good shepherd to the Church.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations: The Church needs shepherds

Jesus engaged Peter to be the first shepherd for the Church: "You are Peter and upon this rock I will build my Church." Jesus gave Peter the authority to shepherd the Church: "I will give you the keys of the kingdom of heaven; whatever you bind on earth will be bound in heaven, and whatever you loose on earth will be loosed in heaven." After the resurrection, Jesus said to Peter one more time, "Tend my sheep... feed my sheep." Peter, his successors, and all the ordained ministers of the Church share the mission to shepherd the Church. How can the world know the good news if there is no one who can preach it to them? We need shepherds for the Church for the harvest is abundant and the laborers are few.

This Sunday is also known as the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. While marriage is a vocation, on this particular Sunday, we pray for and promote vocations to the religious life, permanent diaconate, and the priesthood. The men and women who embrace these vocations give themselves to God, dedicating their time and talents entirely to him. They are called to serve the Church through prayer and ministry. Some are called to a contemplative life, praying for the needs of the world, and others to a more active life helping and walking along with others in their journey of faith. We ask God to open the hearts of more people to hear the call to serve the Church. A vocation is a decision one makes to follow in the steps of Jesus and spread his message to the world in serving the Church. Every vocation is rooted in love for Jesus; it is a covenant one makes to dedicate one's life to the service of God's people.

The Church needs more men and women who can dedicate their lives to spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ to the world. There are many who have generously responded to this call but as we hear in Matthew 9:37-38: "The harvest is abundant, but the laborers are few; therefore, pray to the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into his harvest." Good Shepherd Sunday is a good time for us to encourage, support, and pray for those who have the vocation to priesthood, religious life, or permanent diaconate.

Peace
Fr. Lara

MINISTRY TO THOSE WHO ARE SICK OR HOMEBOUND

Care for parishioners who are sick is always important to us. Please notify the Parish Center at 847-729-1414 to ask for prayers for yourself or anyone in need. If hospitalized, tell the hospital staff the religious affiliation and parish of the patient. Also, you can contact the hospital's Pastoral Care Office at any time.

During the current pandemic, unfortunately our Ministers of Care cannot bring communion to hospitals or homes. Fr. Lara is available to anoint sick or dying people who do not have COVID-19. Specially designated priests from the archdiocese will minister to the sacramental needs of those with COVID-19. Call the Parish Office for any of these circumstances.

PARISH OFFICE INFORMATION

The parish office is now open for day-to-day business. Other uses of the building, such as for meetings, are still on hold pending further guidance from the Archdiocese.

Also: Free prayer shawls and blankets sealed in zippered bags are available at the office for those who are grieving, ill, or in need of comfort for any reason. Please call to arrange to pick one up.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTIONS FOR THE MONTH OF APRIL

LIVE THE LITURGY

The cornerstone is the first stone that is laid and the stone that determines how the other stones are placed and the position of the entire structure. As human beings, we need a cornerstone or reference point so that our lives can be properly placed and positioned. Our cornerstone determines not only how we see ourselves but who we will become. Without a cornerstone or reference point, we will be disconnected, disoriented, and poorly positioned for effective action in our world. In order to be the children of God we are, Jesus Christ needs to be our cornerstone and the reference point for all that we do. He alone is the Good Shepherd who can guide us through life's questions and challenges, bringing us to proper pasture. Without this proper base, we can easily fall into the trap of self-aggrandizement and quickly lose our way. If that happens, then moral principles, proper conduct, justice, wisdom, and virtue will be difficult to find. We need to listen to the right voices and allow God to show us how to build our house well. Salvation only comes from God and only God will protect us, no matter the cost.

PRAY FOR VOCATIONS

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is observed this Sunday, April 25. According to the US Conference of Catholic Bishops, the purpose of this day is to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). As a climax to a prayer that is continually offered throughout the Church, it affirms the primacy of faith and grace in all that concerns vocations to the priesthood and to the consecrated life. While appreciating all vocations, the Church concentrates its attention this day on vocations to the ordained ministries (priesthood and diaconate), consecrated life in all its forms (male and female religious life, societies of apostolic life, consecrated virginity), secular institutes in their diversity of services and membership, and to the missionary life.

Prayer for Vocations to Priesthood and Religious Life

Almighty God, You desire that all people be saved and come to the knowledge of Your truth. Raise up new and holy vocations for the Archdiocese of Chicago and throughout the world. May many young men and women respond to your call to priesthood and religious life, so that the Church may continue to give witness to your love and to the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. Give courage and generosity of heart to all priests and religious men and women who consecrate their lives to the work of your church, and help us to participate in the mission of your love as we respond to our Lord's call to discipleship.

Bless our families, the fount of all vocations. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

FIRST SATURDAY DEVOTIONS IN REPARATION TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY

On December 10, 1925, Mary said to Lucia, "My daughter, look at My Heart surrounded with the thorns with which ungrateful men pierce it at every moment by their blasphemies and ingratitude. You at least try to console me, and say that I promise to assist at the hour of death with all the graces necessary for salvation all those who on the first Saturday of five consecutive months, go to Confession and receive Holy Communion, recite five decades of the Rosary and keep me company for a quarter of an hour while meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary, with the intention of making reparation to me."

Come observe the next First Saturday, May 1. Join fellow parishioners in celebrating the 8:00 AM Mass, praying the Rosary and then meditating on the mysteries of the Rosary.
