2ND SUNDAY OF LENT

While he was still speaking, a cloud came and cast a shadow over them, and they became frightened when they entered the cloud. Then from the cloud came a voice that said, "This is my chosen Son; listen to him." - Lk 9:34-35

Second Sunday of Lent

There is so much wisdom in the first commandment. The daily demands of life, current political ideologies and dynamics, social expectations, corporate philosophies, and even technology can easily become lesser gods. We can find ourselves beholden to and held captive by these secular constructs and systems. Even for those who profess a faith in the one true God, these lesser, attractive but false gods are a temptation. Being overly preoccupied and even obsessed with the state of our present lives, we lose sight of our real destiny and purpose.

Jesus showed his disciples a glimpse of this destiny when he was transfigured before their eyes. In fact, Peter was so caught up in the brilliance, awe, and sacredness of these fleeting moments that he wanted to extend them as long as possible. Wonderful things happen when we leave our illusions and discover something that is true. This is why creating some sacred space in our lives for reflection, prayer, renewal, refreshment, centering ourselves, and disconnecting from the noise is so important. It shows us how false and shallow our lives can be and what is really of importance. Do you create some kind of sacred space in your life? Lent is a perfect time to do so.

St. Irenaeus, one of the early fathers and martyrs of the Catholic Church, said that, "he who was the Son of God became the Son of Man that man ... might become the son of God." We mistakenly believe that life is all about us. It's not. Ours is a journey of transformation in which we become more and more one with the mind of Christ and Christ himself. St. Augustine saw this same transformation occurring when the Eucharist is received. In receiving the Eucharist, we become what we eat, the Body of Christ. Honestly acknowledging false gods that we cling to can open the door for God to show us the wholeness and holiness to which we are called. Take time to discover the sacred. When we do, we will want to stay there for a while. Then, when we return to our personal affairs, we will see more clearly. ©LPi

*From Father Paul's desk...Lorica of Saint Patrick (Feast Day March 17)Author: Saint Patrick

I arise today through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,

Through a belief in the Threeness,

Through confession of the Oneness

Of the Creator of creation.

I arise today through the strength of Christ's birth and His baptism,

Through the strength of His crucifixion and His burial,

Through the strength of His resurrection and His ascension,

Through the strength of His descent for the judgment of doom.

I arise today through the strength of the love of cherubim,

In obedience of angels,

In service of archangels,

In the hope of resurrection to meet with reward,

In the prayers of patriarchs,

In preachings of the apostles,

In faiths of confessors,

In innocence of virgins,

In deeds of righteous men.

I arise today through the strength of heaven;

Light of the sun,

Splendor of fire,

Speed of lightning,

Swiftmess of the wind,

Depth of the sea,

Stability of the earth,

Firmness of the rock.

I arise today

Through God's strength to pilot me;

God's might to uphold me,

God's wisdom to guide me,

God's eye to look before me,

God's ear to hear me,

God's word to speak for me,

God's hand to guard me,

God's way to lie before me,

God's shield to protect me,

God's hosts to save me

From snares of the devil,

From temptations of vices,

From everyone who desires me ill,

Afar and anear,

Alone, or in a multitude.

I summon today all these powers between me and evil,

Against every cruel merciless power that opposes my body and soul,

Against incantations of false prophets,

Against black laws of pagandom,

Against false laws of heretics,

Against craft of idolatry,

Against spells of witches and smiths and wizards,

Against every knowledge that corrupts man's body and soul.

Christ shield me today

Against poison, against burning,

Against drowning, against wounding,

So that reward may come to me in abundance.

Christ with me, Christ before me,

Christ behind me,

Christ in me, Christ beneath me,

Christ above me,

Christ on my right, Christ on my left,

Christ when I lie down, Christ when I sit down,

Christ in the heart of every man

who thinks of me,

Christ in the mouth of every man

who speaks of me,

Christ in the eye that sees me,

Christ in the ear that hears me.

I arise today

Through a mighty strength, the invocation of the Trinity,

Through a belief in the Threeness,

Through a confession of the Oneness

Of the Creator of creation

ASCS SCHOLARSHIPS:

Scholarships are available for Holy Family students, Kindergarten through Eighth Grade, who attend All Saints Catholic School to assist with tuition costs for the 2022-2023 school year. Applications are available at the church from Father Appel or Father Nicholas after each Mass. All applications must be received in the parish office by April 30th. Applications are awarded per student and are not based on income. Each application will be reviewed and families will be notified by May 30, 2022.

Schedule for Padre Pio Relic Visit @ St. Alphonsus Parish, Davenport: Wednesday, March 16, 2022

- ◆ Adoration from 8:00am-6:00pm.
- ◆ Relic will be viewed from 8:00-10:00am & 2:00-6:00pm.
- ◆ Mass at 6:00am.
- ◆ Confessions will be available throughout the day.

Unbound Book Study

Thursdays during Lent, thru April 7, 2022

5:00pm (Immediately after the close of Adoration)

Please join Father Nicholas for a book study: Unbound by Neal Lozano. As a teacher on deliverance, Neal Lozano knows that many believers struggle with the same sin areas time after time. Yet victory can be as simple as tapping into the potent power of the gospel. By focusing on Jesus and his work, rather than on the intimidating aspects of evil spirits, readers can reset their mindset about their spiritual struggles.

In Unbound, Lozano shows readers how to do just this. Unbound is a practical, thorough, and easy-to-follow guide to deliverance and freedom. It also includes practical instruction on praying for others to be set free. A soup supper will follow. Books are available in the church or at the church office.

BAZAAR WORKSHOP POTLUCK/PARTY

Wednesday, March 16th—6:30pm—Enright Hall

Please bring a dish to share—everything else will be provided. The annual Bazaar Workshop Potluck & Party is a THANK YOU celebration for all who worked last year at Workshops and/or donated items to the Bazaar, AND for those who would like to help this year. We'll look at how we did last year and talk about what the future holds. If you have any good ideas, suggestions, or projects, please bring them along. With the support of all Holy Family parishioners, we hope the Bazaar will enjoy continued success for many years to come. Your input is welcome. Come join us!

REGULAR BAZAAR WORKSHOPS will begin on Wednesday, March 23rd—mornings from 9:00-11:00am and evenings from 6:30-9:00pm. Just check the weekly church bulletin for our schedule. Whether you come once in awhile or regularly, we welcome your help and thank you for your dedication. Hope to see you there!

Canned Goods For Lent—600/600

Our Holy Family Knights of Columbus are joining councils around the state to collect canned goods for Lent. From now until April 10th, they are asking you to donate canned goods that will then be distributed to three local charities that help feed the hungry (River Bend Food Bank, Café On Vine, and The Friendly House). Their goal is to collect 600 pounds of non-perishable food items and $600 in cash donations. Non-perishable Items may be placed in the food pantry collection baskets in the church. Monetary gifts may be placed in the collection basket or mailed to or dropped off at the church office. Please note that this is for "Canned Goods for Lent" and any checks should be made payable to Holy Family. Holy Family will support this endeavor as our 2022 Parish Lenten Project. As always, we appreciate the generous spirit of our parishioners and friends.

SOCIAL ACTION CORNER A LENTEN SERVICE PROJECT: MAKE A HOUSE A HOME. WELCOME REFUGEES TO THE QUAD CITIES.

We will have another opportunity to help a refugee family feel welcomed and settled here in the Quad Cities. Holy Family Parish is again teaming up with St. Paul the Apostle Parish.

World Relief has several families arriving and plans to assign us a family of 6 expected to arrive at the end of March. We don't have all the details yet, but we need to have everything ready to go when they do arrive so they can move in right away. So, we'll start now to collect donations of essential household items and furniture (new is greatly preferred, "gently used" in "very good condition" is accepted). See the list of items needed and sign-up for donations at: <https://tinyurl.com/yc7up353>. Please drop off your donations at the Holy Family parish office by Thursday, March 31st at 4:00pm. The list of items is lengthy, but we did fill every slot last time! We will also need volunteers again to move the furniture into the home and set it up—tentatively planned for Monday, April 4th, to load and unload the truck and Tuesday, April 5th, to set-up and decorate the home. Sign-up to volunteer at the same link listed above.

Let's help another family feel welcome in our community this Lent!

If you have questions, contact Deacon Steve at 563-355-7522 or bartons@diodav.org.
