Truth and Mercy Series (Holy Week)

“Our one desire is that every one of you should go on showing the same earnestness to the end, to the perfect fulfillment of our hopes, never growing careless, but imitating those who have the faith and the perseverance to inherit the promises.” (Hebrew 6:11)

During my office of the reading today this text spoke out to me and I am sharing this with you my beloved parishioners as we enter into Holy Week of 2025, in the Jubilee of Hope. The Holy Week is so called because the greatest mysteries of our faith were enacted, and manifest for the very first time. This week is called Holy because the holiest events in human history took place therein. It is also called Holy week because the entire desire of all the ages came to fulfillment during this week.

During this week the connection between Christmas becomes so clear. The Infant King who came to save is mounting His throne: CROSS to free us from the captivity of sin. The love of God the Father is made manifest in His Son who was “given for the life of the world.” Those Words are not empty because they come alive in the paschal mystery: His Passion, Death and Resurrection. This tree is not the tree of death like that which led Adam and Eve to sin but the tree of life, restoration and freedom. Rather than the serpent which deceived the people of God, we have the Lord of life who brings life from the wood of the cross.

This week calls for true earnestness to follow and participate in the liturgy. The peak of which comes from Holy Thursday until Easter Sunday. On Holy Thursday, Our Lord of life offers a new and eternal covenant in His Blood for the forgiveness of sin. You will recall the words of the Archangel Gabriel at the announcement, “his name will be Jesus, for he will save his people from their sins.” (Matthew 1: 21). On this day, He also instituted the priesthood, His continuous institution to continue the celebration of this sacrifice for all ages. A new priesthood, without ancestry, called by God like Aaron was. A dignity not accorded to angels.

Good Friday is truly a special day! The wood of the CROSS is unveiled for us to kiss and acknowledge the saving work Our Lord did and continues to do for us. Without the Cross, there is no hope for fallen humanity. The cross has not ceased to save even after 2000 years. The celebration of the Sacred Passion on Good Friday is a clear testimony to the Lord’s presence with us illuminating our world through His victory over death and its many manifestations.

I invite you earnestly to join as a community to celebrate the height of the mysteries of our Faith. This will inspire our hope in the Lord who never tires of freeing us from all principalities and powers. Let us devote time to prayer and silence. This usually helps to relive the experience and also open us to graces to understand and show gratitude to the Lord of all of History. Amen.

Fr. Nicholas Akindede,

THE “GOLDEN ARROW” PRAYER

To atone for the sins of blasphemy against God's Name. Sins of blasphemy are like 'poisoned arrows' continually wounding God's Heart, but this "Golden Arrow" has the power to wound Him "delightfully."

“May the most holy, most sacred, most adorable, most incomprehensible and unutterable Name of God be always praised, blessed, loved, adored and glorified in Heaven, on earth, and in the Hells, by all the creatures of God, and by the Sacred Heart of Our Lord Jesus Christ in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar. Amen.”

OUR LORD TO SR. MARIE OF ST. PETER

“By offering My Face to My Eternal Father, nothing will be refused, and the conversion of many sinners will be obtained.”

HOLY FACE OF JESUS

GLANCING WITH LOVE ON THE FACE OF JESUS

Prayer for Final Perseverance and a Happy Death

Grant unto us, Lord Jesus, the desire to truly follow the Gospel and the grace to obtain final perseverance. Help us Lord, ever to follow the example of Thy holy Family, that in the hour of our death Thy glorious Virgin Mother together with blessed Joseph may come to meet us and we may be worthily and joy received by Thee into everlasting dwellings: Who livest and world without end.
Amen.

"The Feast of Mercy emerged from My very depths of tenderness. It is My desire that it be solemnly celebrated on the first Sunday after Easter. Mankind will not have peace until it turns to the Fount of My Mercy." (Diary #699)

How do we receive the Feast of Mercy graces?

To receive the Divine Mercy graces, simply receive Holy Communion in a state of Grace on Divine Mercy Sunday, and perform acts of Mercy, such as attending Mercy Sunday and venerating His Image.

A plenary indulgence is available for those who attend the Divine Mercy Sunday Celebration and fulfill the usual conditions for a plenary indulgence. Sacred Heart has also been designated as a pilgrimage site for the Jubilee this year, so an additional plenary indulgence is available.

Everyone is welcome to celebrate God's Mercy with us in this Jubilee year!
