GRIEF SUPPORT

Grief Support Series - Dates will be chosen to fit the schedule of participants. Please call Deb Hamm for information.

YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Pope Francis proclaims “Year of St Joseph” - You may have heard that, with the Apostolic Letter “Patris corde” (“With a Father’s Heart”), Pope Francis recalled the 150th anniversary of the declaration of Saint Joseph as Patron of the Universal Church. The Holy Father proclaimed a “Year of Saint Joseph” from December 8, 2020, to December 8, 2021. There is not much Scriptural or historical information regarding St. Joseph. However, Church Tradition has something to tell us about him, and other secular traditions have long been associated with him. Please watch our cluster bulletin in the coming months for prayers and stories about St. Joseph. Also, we will be lighting candles on St. Joseph’s altar at OLL during our weekend Masses in honor of this holy man.

PASTORAL COLUMN

Scriptures: Dt 18:15-20; 1 Cor. 7:32-35; Mk 1:21-28

As long as I remember, I’ve heard people in the church complain about people in the church, and about the church itself. Sometimes I’m the person people complain about, and if I’m honest, I have sometimes been the complainer. We human beings have a way of recognizing faults in others much more often than we care to admit our own faults and weaknesses. As much as we strive to follow Christ, our humanness means failure is part of the package. We sometimes fail. We fail God, we fail others, and we fail ourselves.

This is what we are about as Church. We share life and death, laughter and tears, suffering and joy. We celebrate together, cry together, and fail one another. We help each other rise about tragedy and sin. We sometimes hurt one another. We ask for, receive, and offer forgiveness to one another. As much as we try, we often fall short of the call to be ever more Christ-like. We aren’t perfect, and if we are the Church, we can’t expect a perfect church.

Our Church isn’t perfect, because we are in it! A church made up of imperfect humans can never be perfect. The good news is that, even though we aren’t the perfect church, we can move ever closer to that reality. God offers forgiveness when we fail to live up to our call. We are a church that believes in forgiveness, conversion, mercy, compassion, love and hope. We believe in a God who continues to call us back, no matter how often we stray.

Let us all try to be more Christ-like with a more loving, forgiving, compassionate attitude, and let us search for ways to make the Church better rather than dwelling at those things we find troublesome. Christ has come into the world many times over, and yet, our world is weary and waiting for Christ’s coming again and again and again. We hear in today’s first reading that God will raise up a prophet to speak God’s word. Our world, and our Church, could use more prophets to rise up and speak God’s words of challenge, mercy, conversion, love and hope. Let us rise up with courage and strength to be those prophets, to speak God’s word.

OUTREACH

Project Angel Hugs Valentines - Thank you to everyone who donated Valentines to Project Angel Hugs! In total 369 Valentines were donated! The cards will be taken to Project Angel Hugs in Plymouth and will be distributed to children with Cancer.

Do you want someone to pray for you and for those you love? - Our Family of Faith has provided a prayer intention book that can be found at the front of RL Chapel on Mary’s altar. All are welcome to write personal prayer intentions. A rosary will be offered up for all these intentions every Wednesday before Mass. Your intentions will be entrusted to Our Lady and will not be read aloud. Intentions need not be serious in nature. All that concerns us is important to God, from anxiety of a child to an important job interview. Prayer is powerful and Our Lady wants to bring all our cares to her Son, Jesus.

DSCS is excited to be kicking off Catholic Schools Week! We have some fun activities planned to help celebrate our Parish, Community, Families, Nation, Faculty and Staff, Students, and Vocations. On Monday we will dress in our assigned class colors, on Tuesday we will Dress Our Best, and on Wednesday we will wear Red, White & Blue. Thursday is Crazy Day. Students and staff will wear crazy hair, crazy socks and/or a crazy hat. Thursday will show how CRAZY we are for our Catholic School! On Friday we will show our DSCS pride by wearing spirit wear. It will be a busy week full of celebrating and service too! We will be holding a Soup Collection for the Port Washington Food Pantry, making a surprise for Father Gideon, creating thank you cards for our many school helpers and supporters, and so much more!

Be sure to mark your calendars for our first ever Virtual Open House on Wednesday, February 3. We will be hearing from many of our teachers and working on some fun snowflake projects together in the zoom meet. All current families, prospective families, and parishioners of any age are welcome! Call (262) 692-2141 or email Holly in the school office for access to the zoom link at hmasengarb@dscsfredonia.org. Be sure to also pick up an Open House Bag so that you have what you need when you join us, or just have paper and scissors handy! We are also scheduling in person tours of DSCS. Call the office to schedule a tour TODAY!

If you are looking for a way to help support Divine Savior Catholic School you may consider participating in our Annual Day of Giving. On February 2-3, DSCS will be participating in the NCEA Day of Giving. All money raised from this event will stay right here at DSCS to help support important school initiatives. To donate you can go to our website, dsoll.org, and search for the link or follow us on Facebook at DSCS Fredonia. This year we have built in special incentives for our students as we reach each goal!

$100.00- All School Extra Recess
 $300.00- All School Pajama Day
 $500.00- All School Popcorn Party
 $1,000- All School Donuts
 $2,500- All School Pizza Party
 $5,000 - All School Movie Theatre Trip

Catch us live on Facebook the day of the event to watch the excitement build as each prize level is reached.

Over the next several weeks, I would like to highlight how learning happens in each of our fabulous classrooms. I think you will be surprised at how innovative, faith-filled, and creative our DSCS staff is. Staff members will also highlight some needs for their classrooms in preparation for our “Sponsor a Classroom Initiative” this month. Perhaps you will be willing to help make their dreams come true!

Featured Classroom: DSCS Reading Support

The reading support classroom is an important part of our school where every student works hard to be successful readers, writers, and critical thinkers. DSCS readers improve their word study, fluency, and comprehension, along with building their writing skills. With the digital world competing for attention on a daily basis, having the motivation to read can sometimes be challenging. Having a wide variety of high-quality, high-interest books that foster enthusiasm for reading and help to build lifelong literacy skills is at the top of the reading room wish list.

Within the reading room library, sets of nonfiction guided reading books that cover social studies topics for the upper-level students to read would be a wonderful addition. The 5th-8th graders are highly curious about the United States and the world around them. While we do sometimes take short virtual visits to see important artifacts, having books that can help students engage with civilizations and historic events at a much deeper level would greatly enhance their learning.

THE CURIOUS CATHOLIC

Q. What's the deal with "tithing"?

"Tithe" is an Old English word which means 10% and is used to talk about contribution and distribution of goods. The original idea of tithing to the church started back in the early part of the Old Testament. Abraham's grandson Jacob was the father of twelve sons who started the tribes of Israel. In the beginning, all of them received a parcel of land to live off of and prosper with, except Levi. His line of Levites was the priesthood of the tribes. Rather than land, they received 10% of the prime crops and riches from the other tribes. Some faiths continue with this traditional thought of members contributing 10% of their gross wages to the church. The Catholic faith does not.

When I think of tithing, I recall the story of the poor widow who only gave a few copper coins into the collection, while wealthy individuals flaunted their large donations. Jesus states that this poor widow gave more, because even in her impoverished state she, gave all she had. The others gave from their abundance. This is what all of us are called to do. God has blessed us in so many ways and has given us so much, and only asks for so little back. It is our duty as Catholics to help keep our churches up and running, so we always have a place to worship and receive the Sacraments. It is also our duty to support those who have little and are not having their basic needs met.

Do we give from our surpluses or do we sacrifice now and then to help out more? Do we put too much importance spending on entertainment and luxuries because "we deserve to pamper ourselves", or do we give up comforts occasionally for the good of others?

"The point is this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and he who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each one must do as he has made up his mind, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that you may always have enough of everything and may provide in abundance for every good work."
(2 Corinthians 9:6-8)

Terri Riesselmann, Director of DS Youth Faith Formation
