PASTORAL COLUMN

Scriptures: Acts 4:32-35; 1 Jn 5:1-6; John 20:19-31

WOW! What a wonderful Triduum we just celebrated. What an incredible blessing to be able to join in person to celebrate this Holy Week. I wonder if anyone realizes how much time and effort goes into preparing for the Triduum celebrations? The honest answer is probably not! The countless hours of preparation for next year's Triduum actually begins this week, as evaluations are compiled of this year's services.

By Monday morning, I had received several calls and emails about the Triduum services and Easter Masses. Many were praising the beautiful celebrations that were the result of untold hours of planning, organizing, decorating, directing and practicing. A few were recommendations for changes.

Many people spent a lot of time preparing such beautiful and spiritual celebrations. I would like to thank all of them for their time and effort. Although many of the hours are put in behind the scenes, they do not go unnoticed or unappreciated. Thanks to all who decorated our chapels, and organized or participated in the many ministries for our liturgies. Thanks to the Liturgy Committees and anyone who helped prepare and deliver deeply spiritual liturgies.

Finally, thanks to everyone who attended the Holy Week liturgies. The more of God's people that gather together to worship, the more we become the Body of Christ. If you did not get the opportunity to join us for the Triduum celebrations this year, please consider joining us in the future. A most blessed Easter season to all of you.

Deb Hamm, Pastoral Associate

THE YEAR OF ST. JOSEPH

Dear St. Joseph,

You helped Mary to give birth to our Savior. You brought Mary in to protect her and your Holy beloved son. You kept God's word to protect Jesus and to go to Bethlehem. You also would have made the crib with your hands at your home, but you followed God in what He said to do. You thought this journey was going to be easy, but it wasn't. You helped Mary get to the stable when there was no room in the Inn. You thought that there was going to be a nice crib, but there was a trough that had hay and cloth for the baby Jesus. You helped Jesus with his work and showed Jesus to be a carpenter. Amen.

DS HUMAN CONCERNS

Thank you to everyone who donated for our recent food drive. The Pantry received three trunks full of food plus some cash. They were very appreciative. This past Tuesday the makings for an Easter meal including ham or turkey was distributed to approximately sixty clients and their families. The Pantry recently purchased a used van. Food is delivered to clients who have no transportation. Also, donated food from Piggly Wiggly's in Port Washington, Saukville, and Cedarburg is picked up with the van. This includes bakery, fruit and other items that haven't sold. Piggly Wiggly is very generous to our pantry.

Thirty-three flowers were distributed with Easter cards by members of the Human Concerns Committee, on Palm Sunday weekend to our shut-ins. Thanks for the contributions and for the names called in to our Parish Office.

FRATELLI TUTTI ON FRATERNITY & SOCIAL FREINDSHIP, POPE FRANCIS

"He [Pope St. John XXIII] supported the conviction that arguments for peace are stronger than confidence in the use of weaponry. The opportunities offered by the end of the Cold War were not, however, adequately seized…Instead, it proved easier to pursue partisan interests without upholding the universal common good. The dread spectre of war thus began to gain new ground." (§260)

While this quote was said before my time, it seems to relate to our present reality quite well. 2020 was a year filled with violence and division, the constant squabble between political parties, which, at times, resulted in violence, the Covid-19 pandemic, which just seemed to fuel the fire, multiple shootings, racial injustice against African Americans, and against Asians, claiming that they are to blame for Covid-19.

For a creature that God endowed with reason and common sense, there sure seem to be many people who allow their gift of reason to collect dust in the recesses of their mind. The more I see of the human race, the less I want to be a part of it. And then, when my hope in humanity is waning, someone reminds me of the tremendous good and kindness that exists in the human race.

With the gift of reason and the use of our bodies, God gives us the power to shape our future. What an incredible gift that is!

Our future doesn't have to be a recurring cycle of war and unsettled peace. We have the power to eliminate hate and violence and establish strong foundations of peace with one another. Is this not the future we want for ourselves and for our children?

Amanda Gronemeyer, OLL Outreach Coordinator

AREA & ARCHDIOCESAN EVENTS

Archdiocesan-wide Annual Mass of Atonement - The annual Mass of Atonement will be held on April 15, at 6 pm, at St. Monica Parish (5681 N. Santa Monica Boulevard, Whitefish Bay). This Mass is one of the ways that the current leadership of the Archdiocese publicly atones for the clergy abuse crisis and scandal. Mass will be available for in-person attendance and will be live-streamed. We invite you to join us in support of the survivors, family members, and communities that have spoken or unspoken stories of survival and pain. If you are unable to attend, we would ask that you please remember all those that suffer from the wounds of abuse in your prayers for peace, healing, and justice. Please visit www.archmil.org for more information.

Texas Roadhouse has extended their Church Bulletin program to every day instead of just Sundays. They are open from 12:00-8:00 pm daily. The program donates 10% of your total food purchase to the church of your choice. Simply present a copy of the weekly church bulletin to Texas Roadhouse and quarterly they will send us a check with their donation.

Stamps for the Salvatorian Missions - Please drop off your stamps on the OLL Parish Office back porch.
