13TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God." - Lk 9:61-62

Youth Ministry Colored Envelope Fundraiser

Our annual youth ministry fundraiser is back! On the weekend of July 16-17, you'll hear from our teens and adults participating in Love Begins Here and our EDGE and Lifeteen programs. Youth ministry is an entire parish effort! We could not do this ministry without your prayers and continued support of our mission to lead souls to Christ. That same weekend our popular colored envelope fundraiser will begin. Envelopes will be marked with a number and a week for you to pray for our program. We will have 2 boards (one at each church). We invite you to take an envelope, fill it with the amount listed, and return it the following weekend in the collection basket. More information will be shared by our speakers and found in the envelopes.

Parish Updating Records

PLEASE HELP US! The Parish Center is working on updating our list of current parishioners. Eventually, we will be making phone calls, but if you could call us or email us, that would eliminate some of our phone calls! We are looking for email addresses, phone numbers, and addresses, or any other changes to your parish membership. We're also happy to add any new members! Please call Beth at the Parish Center at (920) 674-2025, or email her at bschweiger@stjohnbaptist.net or Sue at sloof@stjohnbaptist.net
Not sure if you have any updates?
 Call or email and we will let you know!

Gospel Mediation

And to another he said, "Follow me." In every moment of every day, in every circumstance and experience, God is calling us. We can easily get distracted and not hear it or simply ignore it, pretending it wasn't even heard. When we do hear it and favorably respond, there are some conditions that must be met. Jesus makes it clear that once we say yes to his invitation, we must stay focused and forge ahead. We cannot keep looking behind or worry about unfinished business. There are some tasks, and discipleship is one, that require our full devotion.

There are many "masters" vying for our attention. We need something or someone to give us direction. Human nature requires it. Our motives and actions reveal what has our allegiance. It is tempting to give ourselves to masters that lure us with intriguing promises. When given the choice between a "master" that promises worldly success, abundant wealth, status, privilege, and security versus a "master" that asks for self-sacrifice, hardship, suffering, ridicule, and death, to whom do we go? While the promise of immediate pleasure is enticing, there is always a catch. For all that secular masters can promise, they always keep us looking behind, checking on ourselves, second guessing choices, calculating options, and being slaves to excessive worry. Our guard can never come down. Only one master really promises life: Jesus Christ. Hearing his call, we either trust him or we don't.

Saying yes to following Christ does come with a risk. But it also comes with the brightness of future hopes and dreams. There is no need to keep looking behind. Sins are forgiven and regrets serve no effective purpose. God is not there. He's moved beyond all that stuff. God is in the today and the tomorrow and what he can continually do with our daily affirmation to follow Him. All we need to do is be obedient. St. Gianna Molla is credited with saying, "The stillness of prayer is the most essential condition for fruitful action. Before all else, the disciple kneels down." Begin with prayer. We will not only hear God's call but find the courage to trust that He will guide us where we need to be. God uses us in the most ordinary of ways through the simple daily expression of our lives.
