Feast of the Holy Trinity: The God of Love

Originally published on June 14, 2014 by William Ockham on teillard.com. Reflection by Fr. Michael Campbell-Johnston, SJ, a former provincial of the British Jesuits.

“The dogma of the Holy Trinity is a mystery we can never fully understand, at least in this life. How can there be only one God yet three separate persons each with their own nature and equal to each other? But it does teach us one very clear truth, crucially important and with practical consequences. The very essence of God’s nature is not a mystery of isolation or individualism but of sharing, of mutual outpouring, of giving and receiving. The exchange of love between Father and Son is what Jesus called the Holy Spirit, the spirit of love.

This is why, apart from the philosophical definition given to Moses in the Bible, “I am who am”, the only true definition we have of God as a person is that given us by St John, “God is love”. And it is because of this love that you, me, and everything else exists. We were created by love in order to love. And this is where the practical consequences come in. Our whole purpose in life is to learn what love is or, better put, to learn how to love.

This is explained very clearly by Pope John Paul II in a letter he wrote to families. “God created man in his own image and likeness: calling him to existence through love. He called him at the same time for love. God is love and in himself He lives a mystery of personal loving communion. Creating the human race in his own image and continually keeping it in being, God inscribed in the humanity of all people the vocation, and thus the capacity and responsibility, of love and communion. Love is therefore the fundamental and innate vocation of every human being.”

The great Jesuit palaeontologist Teilhard de Chardin also saw this very clearly and declared that love is the fundamental law of the universe, the prime and indispensable motor of its progress. “Love has always been carefully eliminated from the realist and positivist concepts of the world, but sooner or later we will have to acknowledge that it is the fundamental impulse of life or, if you prefer, the one natural medium in which the rising course of evolution can proceed. With love omitted, there is truly nothing ahead of us except the forbidding prospect of standardisation and enslavement; the doom of ants and termites. It is through love and within love that we must look for the deepening of our deepest self, in the life-giving coming together of humankind.”

There is however a fly in the ointment. God’s love consists in a total gift of self and we can only share in this, the purpose of our existence, when we too are able to give ourselves totally. Yet we are all born with a love that is selfish, turned in on self. And it is no easy task to rid ourselves of the selfishness or egoism we all have. In fact the whole of our life can be considered as a long gradual struggle to achieve a love that is ever more selfless, more geared towards the other. And the extraordinary thing is, the more we give and go out to others, the more we ourselves receive and the richer our life becomes. As Jesus taught, if we die to ourselves, we become alive in others and in God. Let us make an effort today, the celebrate this feast of the Holy Trinity, to perform one act that makes our love less centered on self, more unselfish, more open to another.”

CHANGING THE TRAJECTORY OF YOUNG LIVES THROUGH YOUTH SPORTS AND RECREATION

By: Claude Robinson

As a child, I could not have imagined the role sports and recreation would play in shaping my life’s purpose. What I did know was how much fun and enjoyment sports brought to my life. I felt so alive, free, and light while competing in sports. My desires, motivations, and passions were ignited through these experiences. Playing sports allowed me to develop those life skills that you might not learn in other activities. Leadership, communication, and team building are just a few skills that I was able to develop over the years, and I apply these skills in my everyday life at work, school, in my home and still on the court. I can see that same zest and ambition in the eyes of so many young people in North Lawndale. As a servant leader, I am determined to create similar opportunities for youth to achieve greatness.

Claude Robinson

The North Lawndale Athletic and Recreation Association (NLARA) is a youth recreation collaboration initially established by UCAN Chicago, where I serve, the North Lawndale Community Coordinating Council, Play Like A Champion Today and Old St. Patrick’s Church. It began in 2016 with a vision of ensuring that North Lawndale’s youth can have opportunities to have fun and grow in a world class sports and recreation environment.

The NLARA exposes them to a variety of diverse experiences through play. It gets them up off the couch and active while simultaneously affirming their self-worth and propelling their trajectories so they will reach their fullest potential in life. It further enriches them by putting them in touch with positive mentors, helping them learn about good health, reducing their boredom and idleness, teaching them lessons about preparation, teamwork, discipline, hard work and more. The NLARA is totally life changing for young people in a neighborhood that previously had few positive outlets. Dorian Robinson, a rising senior and student-athlete at the College of Mount Saint Vincent mentioned, “Playing sports allowed me to develop a ton of life and leadership skills that help me succeed on and off the court”.

The NLARA’s vision of collaboration and cooperation between the multiple youth sports organizations, healthy interactions between adults, young people and parents, and training adult volunteers receive to serve as skillful and honorable coaches and mentors has been a game changer for the community as a whole.

There are many benefits to youth sports and as a result, worldwide, parents that have the means collectively invest millions of dollars to support their children’s participation in these programs. Sadly, young people in families and communities without the financial means are unable to reap the same benefits unless generous donors and mentors step in to provide the resources. Inequities such as these are being addressed through caring people’s continued investment in the NLARA.

The horn has sounded, and it is time to help North Lawndale’s young people get in the game. I’m in to help today just like so many adults helped me in my youth.

Claude Robinson is the Executive Vice President of External Affairs and Diversity at UCAN Chicago and the current volunteer NLARA Director. Learn more about Claude, UCAN and the NLARA at www.ucanchicago.org.

CATHOLIC WORKER

OSP ENCOUNTER CATHOLIC WORKER SERVICE TRIP RETREAT

June 15 - June 19

We invite you to join OSP Encounter for 5 days of service with Lake City Catholic Worker. Leaving the morning of Tuesday, June 15th and returning the evening of Saturday, June 19th.

Lake City Catholic Worker is a faith-based farming community in the Catholic Worker tradition of a land and craft-based economy, the works of mercy and Restoration Agriculture. Believing in the sacredness of the land, their agricultural practices strive to be ecologically sustainable, economically sound, and socially just. Their animals are humanely raised and their farming is perennial-based. They bring a spirit of joy to our work and share our excitement for local food and culture with our community. Their main focus of work is creating a just business through the selling of kombucha and vegetables.

Together, we will learn about a different way to live based on the Gospel – through an intentional community of people dedicated to living out the Gospel as a lifelong choice. The workers will introduce us to/expand our understanding of the Catholic Worker Movement, founded by Dorothy Day. Together we will pray, work, cook, and eat together in a spirit of Joy while enjoying the outdoors/farm. In addition to work, we will have time to enjoy the nature of the area together – swimming in the Mississippi, kayaking, and hiking.

Some of the tasks we will do on the farm include:

1. Seeding vegetables in trays
2. Working in vegetable High Tunnels
3. Regular chores, including feeding goats and pigs
4. Working in veggie fields
5. General farm work for the growing season
6. Mulching and weeding perennials
7. Larger projects (Path clearing and maintenance, small building projects, etc...)

Further Logistics:

1. Lodging: This will be a camping-based trip. We will prepare meals and shower in a shared indoor space, but will be staying outside on the farm in tents. Please let us know if you need help accessing a tent/sleep bag for the trip.

2. Transportation: We will be carpooling to MN together. If you are able to drive, please note on the sign up form. If you are in need of a ride, please note. For those who are driving, your mileage and gas will be compensated by OSP.

3. Donation/Cost: The farm requests a 10 dollar donation for each night of stay to help cover the cost. This will be about 50 dollars per person for the week. If you are unable to contribute this, please let us know, and OSP will offer scholarships to cover the cost of attendance.

4. COVID-19 Requirements/Protocol: Per the Archdiocese requirements, only individuals who are fully vaccinated will be able to attend this trip. Proof of vaccination will be requested. All adult members working on the farm are fully vaccinated and we will follow CDC regulations and recommendations. For more information, please reach out with any questions or clarification.

GRIEF MINISTRY: HEALINGTOGETHER@HOME

Because we are not meeting in-person for our regular Old St. Pat's Grief Support Group, Companions on the Journey, we have created a grief support group that meets remotely utilizing the Zoom meeting platform.

HealingTogether@Home has been organized for those who are grieving the death of a loved one: parent, spouse, partner, significant other, family member, sibling, extended family member, friend... It hurts!

Our 5-session program is offered free of charge over the course of five consecutive weeks. Our groups are small by design so that they are comfortable and informal.

We hope to schedule our upcoming group in mid-June. Please register at bit.ly/healingtogetherathome and you will be contacted when we have enough people to begin the group.

We know the path on which you are walking because we have walked it as well. Our prayers are with you...

Evenings with Encore

Keeping It Together: April 2020 – April 2021

Going back a little over one year to the very beginning days of the pandemic, the Encore leadership team recognized the anxiety and isolation that many (if not all) of us were experiencing. Wanting to continue our community-building mission during this unusual time, we tapped into Zoom and created "Evenings with Encore!"

Meeting weekly, each Zoom gathering offers an opportunity to hear from interesting people presenting on a broad spectrum of topics; everything from Chicago history to spirituality to performances by musicians and actors. And to keep the conversations and connections going, we sought to enable those informal conversations that usually take place at tables following in-person programs. So, we open up Zoom breakout rooms after each presentation for those who want to linger a little longer and call these fifteen minute conversations, "After Words." All in all, this past year Encore hosted 46 weekly programs with nearly 4,000 participants. We are so grateful to all who help make "Evenings with Encore" happen by suggesting and inviting our special guest speakers! And to all who participate in our evenings, thanks for keeping the spirit of community alive! We can't wait to see you in person, until then, we'll see you on the screen!

GIVING TO OSP

Thank you for your generosity!

oldstpats.org/giving

You've heard us say it again and again... and never has it been more apparent: your commitment to Sunday Giving truly sustains us. It funds the day-to-life life of Old St. Pat's — a life that, despite our inability to safely gather in large groups — is more vibrant than ever before!

Your generous support — your expression of your gratitude for God's gifts to you — ensure we can continue to bring livestream mass to thousands each Sunday and throughout the week, while welcoming safe numbers of people into our pews. Your support ensures we can build our faith community through sacramental preparation and celebration; through spiritual direction, faith formation, and education of our members and friends, both young and old. Your support ensures our Pastoral Care and Ministry of Care can walk with the many, many people who are hurting right now due to illness, loneliness, and grief. And your generosity helps us work toward true kinship and justice throughout our city, through the North Lawndale Kinship Initiative, our Immigrant & Refugee Ministry, and so many other social justice and outreach ministries.

We are grateful you have committed to contributing a share of your resources — with gratitude and generosity — in support of the mission of Old St. Pat's. For our part, we pledge to responsibly and transparently steward our resumes in the spirit of our shared Catholic faith.

IMMIGRANTS & REFUGEES: A Faith Journey

Sunday, May 30, 2021

Myth: Immigrants hurt our country financially by taking jobs and services without paying taxes

The Facts: Though some people claim that immigrant are taking job opportunities away from people born in the U.S., immigrants actually help to create new jobs. In addition to buying U.S. and local products, which helps create jobs, immigrants often start their own businesses. In fact, immigrants are twice as likely to start businesses as citizens both in the U.S. and companies owned by immigrants are more likely to hire employees than companies owned by native-born citizens. States with large numbers of immigrants report lower unemployment rates for everyone.

Immigrants collectively pay between $90 and $140 Billion each year in taxes, and a recent study found that undocumented immigrants alone pay approximately $11.64 Billion in taxes each year. Moreover, undocumented immigrants nationwide pay an estimated eight percent of their income in state and local taxes (their effective state and local tax rate), which is higher than the effective tax rate of the top one percent of all taxpayers in the U.S.

Everyone pays sales taxes on goods they purchase and property taxes on the homes they buy or rent, and more than half of all undocumented immigrant households file income tax returns using individual Tax Identification Numbers.

Saint Joan of Arc (d. May 30, 1431)

Saint of the Day for May 30

Saint Joan of Arc's Story

Burned at the stake as a heretic after a politically-motivated trial, Joan was beatified in 1909 and canonized in 1920.

Born of a fairly well-to-do peasant couple in Domremy-Greux southeast of Paris, Joan was only 12 when she experienced a vision and heard voices that she later identified as Saints Michael the Archangel, Catherine of Alexandria, and Margaret of Antioch.

During the Hundred Years War, Joan led French troops against the English and recaptured the cities of Orléans and Troyes. This enabled Charles VII to be crowned as king in Reims in 1429. Captured near Compiègne the following year, Joan was sold to the English and placed on trial for heresy and witchcraft. Professors at the University of Paris supported Bishop Pierre Cauchon of Beauvais, the judge at her trial; Cardinal Henry Beaufort of Winchester, England, participated in the questioning of Joan in prison. In the end, she was condemned for wearing men's clothes. The English resented France's military success—to which Joan contributed.

On this day in 1431, Joan was burned at the stake in Rouen, and her ashes were scattered in the Seine River. A second Church trial 25 years later nullified the earlier verdict, which was reached under political pressure.

Remembered by most people for her military exploits, Joan had a great love for the sacraments, which strengthened her compassion toward the poor. Popular devotion to her increased greatly in 19th-century France and later among French soldiers during World War I. Theologian George Tavard writes that her life "offers a perfect example of the conjunction of contemplation and action" because her spiritual insight is that there should be a "unity of heaven and earth."

Joan of Arc has been the subject of many books, plays, operas and movies.
