2/3 Jim Baumann: Good Writing Skill: Not Just Diagramming Sentences

Early in his career as a newspaper editor, Jim Baumann realized that simply correcting someone's writing errors didn't address the problem. To help his staff improve their craft, he initiated quizzes and spelling tests in an educational process that used humor rather than red-lining or lecturing.

Encouraged to expand his audience outside the newsroom, Baumann developed a column, "Grammar Moses", which has become an ongoing conversation with readers. Baumann doesn't consider himself a grammar expert, but rather a hobbyist and enthusiast. Many of these columns have now been incorporated into his book Grammar Moses: A humorous look at grammar and usage.

Baumann, a second-generation suburban journalist, grew up in Arlington Heights and attended Prospect High School. After graduating from the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, he joined the Daily Herald as an intern in 1983. He was named managing editor in 2012.

After four years as a reporter, he assumed various editing positions for the DuPage and Fox Valley editions. In 2012, he became Managing Editor, and a corporate Vice President in 2016. In November 2021, he was named Executive Editor.

Mindful Sustainability: Green Notes from OSP Creation Care Team

In our daily lives we recycle as much as we can, we try to use less electricity - not easy in the climate we live in. But more importantly this coming year, we are choosing to create less waste by using less plastics and not purchasing items that have more packaging than product. We are going to be more cognizant about the food we have and do our best to work toward zero food waste.

--OSP Parishioner Patty Marfise-Patt

Sometimes when we think about living a sustainable life, it seems like a monumental task, so intimidating that we don't know where to begin. Perhaps we could apply some lessons from mindfulness practice to help jump start our effort to leave a lighter footprint on our common home.

Mindfulness calls for us to pay attention to the present. We could begin by doing a household audit. What is in our waste baskets and our recycling bins? Perhaps by tracking those things, we could get a handle on how to reduce our personal waste stream. A friend looked at her recycling and noticed how many plastic salad containers she recycled. She resolved to use her reusable mesh bags to buy more loose salad fixings at the store.

Mindfulness asks us to be open and curious, to listen and learn from others. Another friend follows the Zero Waste Oak Park Facebook group, where she regularly gets timely sustainability recommendations, and learns about other groups that promote the zero-waste lifestyle.

Appreciating the small stuff is an important part of being mindful. For instance, knowing the recycling potential of those numbers on plastic containers can help you make sustainable choices. Containers labelled #1 and #2 are the easiest to recycle. Containers labelled #3 are among the least recyclable, due to many toxins and additives released in manufacturing, disposal, and destruction of these products. Full details on plastics by the numbers can be found at bit.ly/SmartPlasticsGuide

We are eager to hear about your journey toward a more sustainable life. Thanks to Patty Marfise-Patt for sharing hers.

Prayer Ministry

Prayer Ministry means journeying with another. It means remaining open to problems that are not always solvable, listening to one another and acknowledging the reality of experience from which we voice our expectations, concerns, sorrows, celebrations, and stories.

On the second Tuesday of every month, members of the Ministry of Prayer gather on Zoom to attend to the prayers of our membership. Together, they pray for and send cards to those experiencing a need at any one of life's thresholds.

Contact Bernadette Gibson to get involved with this ministry. If you know of anyone who is in need of prayers for illness, life celebrations or loss, leave us a message on our prayer line, 312-798-2389.

Parish Counselor

The mission of the parish counselor is to bring healing, hope, and wholeness to individuals and couples through psychologically informed counseling. Sarah Thompson, the parish counselor at Old St. Pat's integrates client values and religious beliefs into the counseling process. She works with individuals and couples as they seek to understand and grow through various challenges life brings. Sarah draws from various therapeutic approaches, focusing on the mind-body-spirit connection, to illuminate underlying issues, free up blocks, and improve your well-being and emotional health.

Her goal is to support you in your efforts to discover and become more fully the person you were created to be, focusing on restoring dignity, strengths, and God-given talents. Sarah Thompson is available for counseling, presently remotely through teletherapy until OSP offices re-open. If you think you could benefit from Sarah's services please contact her at 773-234-9630 or at saraht@oldstpats.org. She has day and evening hours and offers a sliding fee scale.

Grief Support Ministry, HealingTogether@Home

Because we are not meeting in-person for our regular Old St. Pat's Grief Support Group, Companions on the Journey, we have created a grief support group that meets remotely utilizing the Zoom meeting platform. HealingTogether@Home has been organized for those who are grieving the death of a loved one: parent, spouse, partner, sibling, family member, friend... It hurts!

You may be experiencing some of the most powerful and painful feelings of your life. The many feelings of grief may seem uncomfortable and threatening to you. And, sadly, there are too few people who want to talk to you about this pain. Support groups provide an opportunity for grieving persons to better understand the wide range of feelings and behaviors associated with grief. More importantly, support groups offer a safe place where people can come together for mutual support, and to learn that their feelings are normal and that one need not be alone.

Our program is offered free of charge over the course of seven consecutive weeks. Our groups are small by design so that they are comfortable and informal. We plan to schedule the next program on Wednesday, January 26th and end on March 16th (with March 2nd excluded due to Ash Wednesday) from 6:30pm to 8:00pm.

Please register at bit.ly/healingtogetherathome and you will be contacted by email with all schedule and program-related information. We know the path on which you are walking because we have walked it as well. Our prayers are with you...

IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEES

Heartland Alliance/Old St. Pat's Afghan Families' project

Afghan families are still processing through refugee services and Heartland Alliance is tasked with finding them places to live by the end of January. Heartland Alliance (HA), is a prominent Chicago-based social service agency that has for decades assisted displaced refugees in their relocation to Chicago. In addition to finding housing, HA connects families to essential services--education, employment, family support services and much more. HA has already placed more than 150 Afghans in Chicago and expects to place nearly 400 by mid-February.

Old St. Pat's Immigration & Refugee Ministry (IRM) is accepting the call of providing all essential household items to these displaced individuals relocating to Chicago. IRM is spearheading a project with Heartland to supply FIVE of these families with their entire relocation household needs. IRM will collect all furniture and grocery needs. Other OSP ministries--so far Encore, Foundations and Encounter--have committed to help one family per ministry get settled in their new places. These donated items will be collected and sorted at OSP next Sunday, then delivered to these new families.

IRM is so grateful to Old St. Pat's members for their generous, ongoing support of these efforts--a sincere thanks to all. The need is great. Please go to oldstpats.org. Click on GIVE TO OSP (upper right-hand corner). Click on GIVE ONLINE and select IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE FUND from the drop-down menu. If you are interested in supporting our efforts as a volunteer or have any ideas or questions, please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org.

Our Family Updates

Our Honduran family of four enjoyed their first Christmas in Chicago--all grateful to have rental housing on Chicago's southwest side (many furnishings supplied by IRM through the Chicago Furniture Bank). Their Christmas tree decorations were presented by OSP's Partners' seventh grade class. Older son Oliver's braces have been removed, thanks to a generous Western Springs orthodontist. Younger son, Denilson, is enrolled in CPS and has made the Honor Roll.

Future job opportunities for dad will be sought for him once he has received approval to work (asylum seeker status doesn't permit people to seek employment). IRM has paid the family's rent for several months and supplies them with grocery gift cards. A new baby will be welcomed to their family next month.

Our Colombian family continues to do well. Mom has a new job, Luis is happy to be learning back in his grammar school and is delighted with his new (to him) tablet. Dad is seeking a new job at ORD and little Isabella is regularly practicing her bi-lingual language skills.

Women and Men of Faith

Saint Marianne Cope Saint of the Day for January 23

Though leprosy scared off most people in 19th-century Hawaii, that disease sparked great generosity in the woman who came to be known as Mother Marianne of Molokai. Her courage helped tremendously to improve the lives of its victims in Hawaii, a territory annexed to the United States during her lifetime (1898).

Mother Marianne's generosity and courage were celebrated at her May 14, 2005, beatification in Rome. She was a woman who spoke "the language of truth and love" to the world, said Cardinal José Saraiva Martins, prefect of the Congregation for Saints' Causes. Cardinal Martins, who presided at the beatification Mass in St. Peter's Basilica, called her life "a wonderful work of divine grace." Speaking of her special love for persons suffering from leprosy, he said, "She saw in them the suffering face of Jesus. Like the Good Samaritan, she became their mother."

On January 23, 1838, a daughter was born to Peter and Barbara Cope of Hessen-Darmstadt, Germany. The girl was named after her mother. Two years later the Cope family emigrated to the United States and settled in Utica, New York. Young Barbara worked in a factory until August 1862, when she went to the Sisters of the Third Order of Saint Francis in Syracuse, New York. After profession in November of the next year, she began teaching at Assumption parish school.

Marianne held the post of superior in several places and was twice the novice mistress of her congregation. A natural leader, three different times she was superior of St. Joseph's Hospital in Syracuse, where she learned much that would be useful during her years in Hawaii.

Elected provincial in 1877, Mother Marianne was unanimously re-elected in 1881. Two years later the Hawaiian government was searching for someone to run the Kakaako Receiving Station for people suspected of having leprosy. More than 50 religious communities in the United States and Canada were asked. When the request was put to the Syracuse sisters, 35 of them volunteered immediately. On October 22, 1883, Mother Marianne and six other sisters left for Hawaii where they took charge of the Kakaako Receiving Station outside Honolulu; on the island of Maui they also opened a hospital and a school for girls.

In 1888, Mother Marianne and two sisters went to Molokai to open a home for "unprotected women and girls" there. The Hawaiian government was quite hesitant to send women for this difficult assignment; they need not have worried about Mother Marianne! On Molokai she took charge of the home that Saint Damien de Veuster had established for men and boys. Mother Marianne changed life on Molokai by introducing cleanliness, pride, and fun to the colony. Bright scarves and pretty dresses for the women were part of her approach.

Awarded the Royal Order of Kapiolani by the Hawaiian government and celebrated in a poem by Robert Louis Stevenson, Mother Marianne continued her work faithfully. Her sisters have attracted vocations among the Hawaiian people and still work on Molokai.

Mother Marianne died on August 9, 1918, was beatified in 2005, and canonized seven years later.
