PENTECOST

Sunday, June 5, 2022

On the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood up and exclaimed, "Let anyone who thirsts come to me and drink. As Scripture says: Rivers of living water will flow from within him who believes in me."

He said this in reference to the Spirit that those who came to believe in him were to receive. There was, of course, no Spirit yet, because Jesus had not yet been glorified. John 7:37-39

Jesus said to his disciples: "If you love me, you will keep my commandments. And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Advocate to be with you always.

"Whoever loves me will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words; yet the word you hear is not mine but that of the Father who sent me.

"I have told you this while I am with you. The Advocate, the Holy Spirit whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I told you." John 14:15-16, 23b-26

A Message from Father Pat McGrath

Growing up in the suburbs of Chicago, I had heard of Old St. Patrick's Church. I didn't know much about it, but I could identify the two steeples from the highway. As the rebirth of St. Pat's took off in the late 80s, I started to hear of families that were making a weekly pilgrimage to Adams and DesPlaines. My own introduction to this special place would not be until years later.

Around 2005, I met Fr. Jack Wall when we were both serving on the board of Loyola Academy. At that time, I was a Jesuit scholastic (not yet ordained) finishing up studies at Northwestern. Jack generously invited me to get involved at Old St. Patrick's. That invitation changed my life. In July 2006, my ordination to the priesthood took place at St. Pat's and I have been a regular weekend presider ever since. Being part of the OSP community has been one of the greatest blessings of my life.

Last summer, Cardinal Cupich announced that he was appointing me to serve as pastor beginning in July 2022. Since that time, OSP has been graced by the wisdom and skilled pastoral leadership of Fr. Ken Simpson as our parish administrator. What a blessing he has been to our community! How grateful I am for his generosity, patience and friendship. We all look forward to thanking Fr. Ken in a special way at 9AM Mass on June 26. I hope you all can join us.

I am wrapping up my final days at Loyola Academy after serving as president for 13 years. What a blessing these years as a Rambler have been! I will be taking a break to unplug during the month of June before beginning my new work at OSP on July 1.

I am thrilled to share with you that Fr. Michael Simone, S.J. will be joining our team at OSP as associate pastor later this summer. Fr. Michael is a gifted scholar and priest who is coming to us from the Boston College School of Theology and Ministry. He holds a Ph.D in Old Testament and has a special pastoral gift for helping others access the wisdom of scripture. Readers of America Magazine might know Fr. Michael as a frequent contributing writer to the Jesuit periodical. Fr. Simone is a lot of fun and will be a great addition to our community.

Let's continue to pray for one another! See you in July!

Gratefully,
Fr. Pat McGrath, SJ

Due to the rise in the level of COVID transmission in Cook and Lake Counties to "high," the CDC recommends wearing masks and taking additional preventative measures to help reduce the spread of the virus. If you have any symptoms-- even if you think they might be seasonal allergies -- please take a COVID test before attending Mass or other in-person events at Old St. Pat's. We will continue to offer the Livestream experience at two of our Masses each Sunday, so you can continue to celebrate with the community without skipping a beat!

LIVE THE LITURGY INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

St. Josemaria Escriva tells us, "To live according to the Holy Spirit means to live by faith and hope and charity. To allow God to take possession of our lives and to change our hearts, to make us resemble him more and more." Today we celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit given freely by God to us. The Holy Spirit is the very breath of God and the true source of our power and strength. When we accept that God is the beginning and the end of all things, we open ourselves to receiving this powerful presence. The Holy Spirit alone is the one who teaches us how to pray, who stirs us to lift our eyes to heaven in search of our Creator and opens them to recognize the wonderful gifts of faith, hope, and love God gives us. The Holy Spirit is the one who teaches us how to understand ourselves, God, others, and the world. When we allow God's Own breath to truly take possession of us, we realize that we are meant to become like God and know Him as He really is. This ultimate helper lifts our eyes from what is below to what is above and empowers us to live life with joy and keener vision!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Even though Pentecost is rightly celebrated in late spring, the robust experience of a New England fall can provide a profound metaphor for reflection. A full expression of fall colors is beautiful to behold. But, with all of its majesty and beauty, the observer knows the experience of death is soon to come. Creation will be dark and barren for a while. Pentecost cannot be separated from the cross. Before God's transformative, life-giving power can bear fruit, we must first die.

Pentecost is all about leaving the lifeless dead wood behind and allowing God, through the power of the Holy Spirit, to create something new. These Pentecost creations happen repeatedly over and over again. The birthing process of the Church is ongoing. God is always bringing life out of death and creating something where there was once nothing. That is why the fall is such an apropos metaphorical season for Pentecost. In order to really receive the gift of the Holy Spirit we have to die to what we once knew and what no longer works.

When fire and wind find their fullest expression, they are in no way gentle nor kind. They have the potential to level anything in their paths. We are experiencing great turmoil in our world, nation, and our Church. Whether the result of circumstance or the work of the Holy Spirit, much of what we knew to be normal and constant is changing. Common systems and institutional structures that may have worked for a time no longer do. When the old and familiar need to be left behind, God creates something new. Change and disorder do not need to be our enemies. They always bring opportunities for something exciting and new. What we need is untiring faith, firm hope, and perfect love.

What we need is for the Holy Spirit to enlighten us to see what is important and what we must do. "O Holy Spirit, descend plentifully into my heart. Enlighten the dark corners of this neglected dwelling and scatter there Thy cheerful beams." (St Augustine) If we experience joy, even in the midst of turbulence, then we will know we are exactly where God needs us to be. If not, then perhaps there is a lesson in the decaying leaves that graciously descend to the ground on a crisp fall day.

IMMIGRANTS AND REFUGEE MINISTRY

"Be who God meant you to be and you will set the world on fire."
- Catherine of Siena

This quote encapsulates the message of Pentecost with its Spirit imagery, tongues of fire, and call to go forth to change the world. In today's readings we hear the voice of God in the "rushing wind" of the Spirit. This divine intervention impacts the disciples directly and also amazes the people who were gathered. All those who are renewed by the Spirit, including us, are called to continue God's work by helping all those in need, particularly our immigrant and refugee sisters and brothers.

What is meant by the gift of tongues in today's Act of the Apostle's reading?
Were those present finally able to hear and discern what others were saying?
This is a gift we clearly need today. We need to listen to all people and respect their opinions, even when we disagree, "Come O Holy Spirit and renew the face of the earth." because we need this gift of unity and understanding.

Let us open our arms to embrace our immigrant and refugee neighbors. Recently the OSP Immigration and Refugee Ministry helped make snack packs to support the work of Interfaith Community for Detained Immigrants (ICDI). Snack packs went toward ICDI's Chicago Immigrant Transit Assistance (CITA) program, which serves recently-arrived asylum seekers in the Chicago Greyhound bus station. Could you help facilitate this work? If so, please donate to the IRM on www.oldstpats.org It will be a much-appreciated gift... and put to good use! Thanks in advance for your help.

SAVE THE DATE

THURSDAY, JUNE 16 | 6:30PM- 8:30PM

The legacy of racism continues to create deep divisions in our country today, and the fear of talking about it separates us all the more.

Let us come together and unpack the challenge of racial justice and to build the muscle of having courageous conversations that matter.

Join OSP's Racial Equity & Justice Initiative (REJI) for our next event of the Courageous Conversations Series where we will unpack the historical and contemporary significance of Juneteenth.

Details and registration coming soon.

Online Chapel's Easter Book Discussion: The Book of Joy
Tuesday, June 7, 7:30 PM – 9:00 PM
Facilitator: Al Gustafson

Paul asks in his letter to the Galatians, "What has happened to all your joy?" Happiness and well-being among Americans have reached a 50-year low. A common refrain of the times we live in is, "If you're not outraged, you're not paying attention." Joy is in short supply and perhaps even seen as a character flaw — evidence of not paying attention.

In this Easter season, a season of joy, we invite you to read The Book of Joy: Lasting Happiness in a Changing World which chronicles the week Nobel Peace Prize Laureates, His Holiness the Dalai Lama and Archbishop Desmond Tutu, spent together on the occasion of the Dalai Lama's eightieth birthday. They spent their time together looking back on their long lives to answer a single burning question:

How do we find joy in the face of life's inevitable suffering?

There is no fee, but please register to receive the details on how to participate.

Book: My Grandmother Asked Me To Tell You She's Sorry
By Fredrik Backman

Where: In Person - for information on where the meeting will occur, please contact Rachelle. Information provided below.

Elsa is seven years old and different. Her grandmother is seventy-seven years old and crazy, standing-on-the-balcony-firing-paintball-guns-at-men-who-want-to-talk-about-Jesus-crazy. She is also Elsa's best, and only, friend. At night Elsa takes refuge in her grandmother's stories, in the Land of Almost-Awake and the Kingdom of Miamas where everybody is different and nobody needs to be normal.

When Elsa's grandmother dies and leaves behind a series of letters apologizing to people she has wronged, Elsa's greatest adventure begins. Her grandmother's letters lead her to an apartment building full of drunks, monsters, attack dogs, and totally ordinary old crones, but also to the truth about fairytales and kingdoms and a grandmother like no other.

My Grandmother Asked Me to Tell You She's Sorry is a story about life and death and one of the most important human rights: the right to be different.

Women and Men of Faith

Saint Boniface

Saint of the Day for June 5, 2022

Boniface, known as the apostle of the Germans, was an English Benedictine monk who gave up being elected abbot to devote his life to the conversion of the Germanic tribes. Two characteristics stand out: his Christian orthodoxy and his fidelity to the pope of Rome.

How absolutely necessary this orthodoxy and fidelity were is borne out by the conditions Boniface found on his first missionary journey in 719 at the request of Pope Gregory II. Paganism was a way of life. What Christianity he did find had either lapsed into paganism or was mixed with error. The clergy were mainly responsible for these latter conditions since they were in many instances uneducated, lax and questionably obedient to their bishops. In particular instances their very ordinations were questionable.

These are the conditions that Boniface was to report in 722 on his first return visit to Rome. The Holy Father instructed him to reform the German Church. The pope sent letters of recommendation to religious and civil leaders. Boniface later admitted that his work would have been unsuccessful, from a human viewpoint, without a letter of safe-conduct from Charles Martel, the powerful Frankish ruler, grandfather of Charlemagne. Boniface was finally made a regional bishop and authorized to organize the whole German Church. He was eminently successful.

In the Frankish kingdom, he met great problems because of lay interference in bishops' elections, the worldliness of the clergy and lack of papal control.

During a final mission to the Frisians, Boniface and 53 companions were massacred while he was preparing converts for confirmation.

In order to restore the Germanic Church to its fidelity to Rome and to convert the pagans, Boniface had been guided by two principles. The first was to restore the obedience of the clergy to their bishops in union with the pope of Rome. The second was the establishment of many houses of prayer which took the form of Benedictine monasteries. A great number of Anglo-Saxon monks and nuns followed him to the continent, where he introduced the Benedictine nuns to the active apostolate of education.
