OLD ST. PATRICK'S

A Message from Father Tom Hurley

Hello everyone!

As we celebrate the conclusion of the Easter Season with Pentecost behind us, I just wanted to express my deep and heartfelt gratitude to all of you who welcomed me back a few weeks ago to Old St. Pat's for my final mass of farewell. If we believe (and we do!) that the Easter Church is all about a holy energy that left the upper room and dispersed itself to the four corners of the earth, then that holy, loving, and gracious energy found its way to Old St. Pat's on May 22nd. I'm still trying to "digest" the experience of being with all of you (both in person and on livestream!) at the Lord's Table. I'm just so sorry that I was not able to greet all of you after the Mass!

Thank you for the absolutely profound embrace and love you showed me in abundance on that day. The energy could be felt around the globe! Keep being Old St. Pat's!!!

As I mentioned at the end of the homily, Jesus found himself, for a couple of chapters in John's Gospel, proclaiming what scholars say was the "Final Discourse" or his "Farewell Speech." He wanted them to remember, most of all, that they were Loved. I said it three weeks ago and I hope you heard me say it from the altar in various ways over the past 24 years: I love you so very much! And I thank you very much!

Until we meet again,

Fr. Tom Hurley
17th Pastor of Old St. Pat's

Due to the rise in the level of COVID transmission in Cook and Lake Counties to "high," the CDC recommends wearing masks and taking additional preventative measures to help reduce the spread of the virus. If you have any symptoms-- even if you think they might be seasonal allergies -- please take a COVID test before attending Mass or other in-person events at Old St. Pat's. We will continue to offer the Livestream experience at two of our Masses each Sunday, so you can continue to celebrate with the community without skipping a beat!

A REFLECTION AS WE LOOK AHEAD TO JUNETEENTH

Juneteenth (June 19) is our newest national holiday. It originated in 1865 when Union General Granger declared that all enslaved people in Texas were now truly free. Juneteenth commemorates and celebrates the struggles of African Americans to help America live up to its creed: we are all are created equal and endowed by God with inalienable rights. Ignoring or forgetting these truths will destroy us as a nation.

So said James Baldwin. In December 1986, he addressed the prestigious National Press Club in Washington. He had been speaking and writing about racism for nearly fifty years. Now he was going to discuss it with this elite and influential audience.

Our country was in trouble, he said. The crimes of the past have made us in great part what we are now: for example, stealing lands from indigenous peoples; killing as many of them as possible; buying, selling, and breeding kidnapped Africans; maintaining a brutal slave system and white domination by fraud and violence. Yet America prefers sincerity over the truth. America wants to be simple-minded when the world is complex.

No country is innocent, but it is one thing to commit crimes and another thing to deny them. Denial requires that fantasies of innocence must be invented and defended. For instance, "happy slaves" were needed because otherwise their "owners" would have to admit that slavery was truly evil. Even now too many whites see only the black person they want to see, not someone just as fully human as themselves. Their blindness weaves bitter conflicts into our social fabric.

The discussion that followed did not go well. Baldwin realized that this elite, supposedly well-informed white audience also believed the American illusions that he had just described. So he tried once more to get through to them.

No, we're talking about the life and death of this country! . . . I'm not joking when I talk about [establishing] white history week. One of the things that affects this country is that white people don't know who they are or where they come from. That's why you think I'm a problem! But I am not the problem! Your history is! And as long as you pretend you don't know your history, you're going to be the prisoner of it.

And there is no question of your liberating me because you can't liberate yourselves. We're in this together. . . I want to grow up and so should you!

The May 14 killings in Buffalo are only the latest of recurring anti-black violence. They show us – again! – the price of ignoring the past that shapes our present. Embracing Juneteenth can teach us the history we need to survive as one nation - and, more importantly, to live our Christian faith authentically.

Baldwin's address can be heard at bit.ly/JamesBaldwinAudio and viewed at bit.ly/JamesBaldwinVideo

KINSHIP MISSION:

Through the Kinship Initiative, people of North Lawndale and Old St. Patrick's Church walk alongside one another in friendship sharing our talents, and resources to secure justice, opportunity and the transformation of our communities.

The legacy of racism continues to create deep divisions in our country today, and the fear of talking about it separates us all the more. Let us come together and unpack the challenge of racial justice to build the muscle of having courageous conversations that matter.

Join Old St Pat's Racial Equity & Justice Initiative Thursday, June 16th (6:30 pm-8:30 pm) for the third event of our virtual Courageous Conversations Series. Together we'll unpack the historical and contemporary significance of Juneteenth. The presentation will be followed by small group discussions/peace circles.

FAMILY UPDATES ...

Our Syrian Family

We have some wonderful news to share about the Alrefaai family. Ziad, the family's dad, passed his U.S. Citizenship Examination in late April. This exam, which covers questions on the principles of American democracy and history, rights and responsibilities, plus requirements of reading, writing and speaking English and more, not only entitles Ziad to U.S. citizenship, but also all five of his minor children. His wife, Dalya, who gave birth recently, will take her own citizenship test soon. Congratulations to all!

More good news for the Alrefaai family—their oldest son Tarek, has graduated from Niles West High School. He plans to start at Oakton Community College full time this Fall. IRM will host a celebration in his and his dad's honor in the OSP Courtyard on Sunday, June 26, which also happens to be World Refugee Day!

Watch for the IRM table on World Refugee Day outside some OSP Masses on Sunday, 6/26

World Refugee Day is an international day designated by the United Nations to honor refugees around the globe. It celebrates the strength and courage of people who have been forced to flee their home country to escape conflict or persecution. World Refugee Day is an occasion to build empathy and understanding for their plight and to recognize their resilience in rebuilding their lives.

The Immigration & Refugee Ministry (IRM) is so grateful to Old St. Pat's members for their generous, ongoing support of our efforts—a sincere thanks to all. The need is great. Please go to oldstpats.org. Click on GIVE TO OSP (upper right-hand corner). Click on GIVE ONLINE and select IMMIGRANT AND REFUGEE FUND from the drop-down menu. If you are interested in supporting our efforts as a volunteer or have any ideas or questions, please contact Kayla Jackson at kaylaj@oldstpats.org.

Women and Men of Faith

Blessed Jolenta of Poland Saint of the Day for June 12, 2022

Jolenta was the daughter of Bela IV, King of Hungary. Her sister, St. Kunigunde, was married to the Duke of Poland. Jolenta was sent to Poland where her sister was to supervise her education. Eventually married to Boleslaus, the Duke of Greater Poland, Jolenta was able to use her material means to assist the poor, the sick, widows, and orphans. Her husband joined her in building hospitals, convents, and churches so that he was surnamed "the Pious."

Upon the death of her husband and the marriage of two of her daughters, Jolenta and her third daughter entered the convent of the Poor Clares. War forced Jolenta to move to another convent where despite her reluctance, she was made abbess.

So well did Jolenta serve her Franciscan sisters by word and example, that her fame and good works continued to spread beyond the walls of the cloister. Her favorite devotion was the Passion of Christ. Indeed, Jesus appeared to her, telling her of her coming death. Many miracles, down to our own day, are said to have occurred at her grave.
