Happy 4th of July!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

Freedom properly defined is freedom properly understood. The Cambridge Dictionary tells us that it is, "the condition of right of being able or allowed to do, say, think, etc., whatever you want to, without being controlled or limited." That same dictionary defines liberty as, "the freedom to live, work, and travel as you want to." Both definitions sound very similar. Is there a difference between freedom and liberty? Many are accustomed to believing that freedom and liberty are interchangeable and imply involve possessing rights and privileges. For the Christian, however, there is a big difference between the two.

St. John Chrysostom directs that "the only person who is free is the one who lives Christ." There are many other inspirational people throughout history who see freedom as something far greater than liberty. True and properly understood freedom has little to do with entitlement or self-promotion. For the believer, it is a matter of the heart and soul. Freedom (and liberty, for that matter), seen only in terms of the world, can quickly be taken away. The freedom spoken of by St. John Chrysostom can only be lost by personal choice. When one lives for Christ, they live in pursuit of virtues that enlighten one's soul (faith, hope, and love) and strengthen one's character (justice, fortitude, temperance, and prudence). Rather than having the ability to acquire or do more things, true freedom asks us to be detached. Privileges, rights, and responsibilities are important, but they do not define us.

The world is not always open to listening to the truth. "I am sending you like lambs among wolves," Jesus tells his disciples. The secular definitions of freedom and liberty are very attractive. They promise us a great deal. It is no wonder Jesus asks his disciples to travel with very little. The Gospel is not dependent upon things or anything those with worldly power or investment can say or do. When one chooses to live for Christ, they choose to live with peace. That's what true freedom will give us. If we do not want what Christ offers, we can close the door, and the messenger will walk away. Distracted by the lure of personal liberties, we risk losing our freedom. We will not have anything truly life-giving to share with others.

INSPIRATION FOR THE WEEK

The celebration of our country's independence gives us cause to reflect on the gift of freedom. We treasure the liberties our country provides, but are they the real source of freedom? True freedom is a gift given to us by God, not by the world. In fact, the world robs us of freedom by tethering us to a need for money, power, possessions, and prestige as vehicles to success and measures of self-worth. Even though we possess certain liberties, we are held captive by a system that sees no value in the Cross of Christ. It is no wonder Jesus sent his seventy-two disciples into the world with only what they were wearing. The freedom given to us by God is a matter of the heart that requires detachment from the very things we think we cannot do without. A heart secure in God's peace is something no one can take away and something really worth dying for.

LAST YANA MEETING OF THE SUMMER!

JULY 10th 11:30AM - 1:00PM
Saint Gertrude Ministry Center
6214 N. Glenwood Ave

YANA (You Are Not Alone) OSP support divorce group's next meeting is Sunday, July 10th from 11:30am - 1:00pm in person at Saint Gertrude Ministry Center 6214 N. Glenwood Ave., Chicago (north of the church). There will be a Zoom option for those who can't join us in person.

The YANA Divorce Ministry has decided to take a break for the rest of the summer and will begin again in September in person at Old St. Pat's Wall Mission Center.

Any questions, please contact YANA facilitator, Doreen Oleszczuk at doreenoles@yahoo.com

Thank you for your ongoing support and have a blessed summer!

In today's Gospel the apostles are sent forth both as missionaries and migrants. The focal point revolves around the issue of welcoming. Luke says "In whatever city you go, after they welcome you, eat whatever they set before you. If the people of any town you enter do not welcome you, go into its streets and say, 'we shake the dust of this town from our feet as testimony against you'"

How will we welcome immigrants and refugees that come to our city? Will we follow the Rule of Benedict (Chapter 53) which states "All guests who present themselves are to be welcomed as Christ" or will we choose another dust-filled path? Our welcoming must be grounded in need, not in politics. As Eleanor Roosevelt said "True hospitality consists in giving the best of yourself to your guests." It's our willingness to give on any level that is the real measure of hospitality.

Our dynamic OSP community makes it possible for us to do great things together for the immigrant and migrant community, things we would not be able to do alone. The Immigrant and Refugee Ministry (IRM) is asking for your help. Consider a donation to help us help others.

Please visit oldstpats.org and click on GIVE TO OSP in the upper right hand corner, then select IMMIGRANT & REFUGEE FUND from the dropdown menu. Thanks for your ongoing generosity.

Book: Brain on Fire: My Month of Madness by Susannah Cahalan

Where: In Person - for information on where the meeting will occur, please contact Rachelle. Information provided below.

When twenty-four-year-old Susannah Cahalan woke up alone in a hospital room, strapped to her bed and unable to move or speak, she had no memory of how she'd gotten there. Days earlier, she had been on the threshold of a new, adult life: at the beginning of her first serious relationship and a promising career at a major New York newspaper. Now she was labeled violent, psychotic, a flight risk. What happened?

In a swift and breathtaking narrative, Susannah tells the astonishing true story of her descent into madness, her family's inspiring faith in her, and the lifesaving diagnosis that nearly didn't happen. "A fascinating look at the disease that...could have cost this vibrant, vital young woman her life" (People), Brain on Fire is an unforgettable exploration of memory and identity, faith and love, and a profoundly compelling tale of survival and perseverance that is destined to become a classic.

Experience Making a Difference

IVC Chicago began in September 2001 with twelve volunteers whose prior occupations ranged from fire chief and postal worker to business executive and nurse. They volunteered as hospital and prison chaplains, teachers' aides, and GED instructors at nine service agencies.

In 2021 – 22, there are 70 volunteers serving (in-person and virtually) in more than 35 partner agencies. Volunteers in Chicago are working with youth and young adults in education and mentoring programs, refugee and immigrant services, women's and children's services and hospital and prison ministry. They provide healthcare and food assistance and work in hunger and homeless services. They serve the elderly and disabled.

The IVC Chicago Leadership Team describes a typical volunteer as someone who is "committed to serving others and to reflecting on God's presence and power in their volunteer service and in all aspects of their life."

*Loving and faithful God, we come to you in these fraught times as we seek to grow in understanding and as people of action. At times the path forward is obscured from view and the chaos of the moment makes finding the truth difficult. And so we pray when we are confused by the complexity of issues, open us to the movement of your Spirit that we might be inspired with wisdom, right judgment, and courage.
May we not forget that in You we find our path. When the suffering around us seems so great & our efforts so meager, help us to turn to Mary who stood at the foot Jesus' cross in reverent support. Help us to remember that presence is essential and often prophetic.*

Women and Men of Faith

Saint Thomas

Saint of the Day for July 3, 2022

Saint Thomas' Story

Poor Thomas! He made one remark and has been branded as "Doubting Thomas" ever since. But if he doubted, he also believed. He made what is certainly the most explicit statement of faith in the New Testament: "My Lord and My God!" and, in so expressing his faith, gave Christians a prayer that will be said till the end of time. He also occasioned a compliment from Jesus to all later Christians: "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed" (John 20:29).

Thomas should be equally well-known for his courage. Perhaps what he said was impetuous—since he ran, like the rest, at the showdown—but he can scarcely have been insincere when he expressed his willingness to die with Jesus. The occasion was when Jesus proposed to go to Bethany after Lazarus had died. Since Bethany was near Jerusalem, this meant walking into the very midst of his enemies and to almost certain death. Realizing this, Thomas said to the other apostles, "Let us also go to die with him" (John 11:16b).

Reflection

Thomas shares the lot of Peter the impetuous, James and John, the "sons of thunder," Philip and his foolish request to see the Father—indeed all the apostles in their weakness and lack of understanding. We must not exaggerate these facts, however, for Christ did not pick worthless men. But their human weakness again points up the fact that holiness is a gift of God, not a human creation; it is given to ordinary men and women with weaknesses; it is God who gradually transforms the weaknesses into the image of Christ, the courageous, trusting, and loving one.
