'UPON THIS ROCK CAPITAL CAMPAIGN'

David F. Wilkening
7/1/2010 - 6/30/2016

WHAT A WONDERFUL RESPONSE!! A total of 49 new gifts totaling $52,220, plus a $3,000 adjustment to a previous gift, puts our totals at 223 gifts (nearly 50% participation!) and $561,245 - that's 61.4% of the goal.

We should feel very good about our results so far, and it should be seen as a parish-wide success. Our gift total has remained far ahead of any other parish in this pilot wave, including several much larger ones. Those parishes' advantage was having a number of very large gifts. Getting to 61% of a challenging goal with few large gifts is, well, well-done!

Thank you to EACH OF YOU who have been so generous in showing your love and support for our priests, seminarians, diocese, and parishes. For those who haven't pledged to the campaign, there are envelopes in the back of both churches.

VOCATIONS CORNER

In recognition of the Davenport Diocese's Permanent Deacon Ordinations this weekend, some frequently asked questions regarding the vocation of the diaconate are below.

Who is a Permanent Deacon?

A permanent deacon is an ordained minister of the Catholic Church. Deacons are ordained as a sacramental sign to the Church and to the world of Christ, who came "to serve and not to be served." They do not go on to become priests.

What are the "various ministries" of the Permanent Deacon?

All ordained ministers in the Church are called to functions of Word, Sacrament, and Charity. As ministers of Word, permanent deacons proclaim the Gospel, preach, and teach in the name of the Church. As ministers of Sacrament, deacons baptize, lead the faithful in prayer, witness marriages, and conduct wake and funeral services. As ministers of Charity, deacons are leaders in identifying the needs of others, then marshaling the Church's resources to meet those needs.

May married men be ordained permanent deacons?

Yes. The Second Vatican Council decreed that the diaconate, when it was restored as a permanent order in the hierarchy, could be opened to "mature married men" later clarified to mean men over the age of 35. This is in keeping with the ancient tradition of the Church, in which married men were ordained into ministry.

Is a Permanent Deacon ordained for the Parish or the Diocese?

Whenever a person is ordained, he is to serve the diocesan Church. Permanent Deacons are no different in this regard: they are assigned by the bishop to ministries for which the bishop perceives a great need, and for which the deacon may have special gifts or talents. Most often, this will be within a parish setting, just as most priests serve in a parish. Once assigned to the parish, the deacon and any other clergy assigned to the parish minister under the immediate supervision of the pastor. (reference United States Conference of Catholic Bishops website)

Let us pray for the newly ordained permanent deacons and for our Holy Family Parish deacons and their wives.

Prayer for Deacons and their Wives

Lord Jesus Christ, Servant of all,
 Send your Spirit upon Deacon Stein and Deacon Gengenbacher, and their wives as they serve your Church.
 Give them eyes to see the needs of your people.
 Give them a discerning mind to know your truth.
 Give them a generous spirit when they are tired but needed.
 Give them a humble heart when their work goes unnoticed.
 Give them peace of mind in obedience and service.
 Give them health of body so they may serve with strength.
 Make them fertile ground for your inspiration and love.
 Comfort them when they question themselves and their ministry.
 Grant them grace as they age so they may share your wisdom.
 Make their hearts like yours so they may love your people.
 Amen.
