Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Remember two weeks ago when we had the Gospel reading and the disciples were arguing who was the greatest. Then Jesus takes a child and places his arms around it and says, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me." Last week Jesus said, "Whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in me to sin, it would be better if a great millstone were put around his neck and he were thrown into the sea." This week, "people were bringing children to Jesus but the disciples rebuked them; At this, Jesus became indignant at the disciples."

But this Sunday's Gospel began with pharisees questioning Jesus about divorce. Jesus is again being tested by leaders of His time. He answered them "From the beginning, God had made husband and wife to be one flesh; they are not to be separated." Even two-thousand years later, it is easy to see people do not comprehend what this teaching means.

God is constantly calling people together, even through Co-vid, with all of its trials and no less, even in a hookup culture, where divorce has now become the norm. There is the question we should be asking, how do we get them the understanding of the love God has for two people who come together in marriage; into our cultures hearts and minds? So they may also understand that relationship which is reflected in the love relationship between three persons in the Godhead. It also can be seen in the love God has for man and all of creation; like what is presented in our first reading from Genesis. Still, there is a deeper love God has for all humanity, shown fully by his becoming man. A sacrificial love which is a faithful Love God has for us. On our part, this involves a significant amount of meditation and prayer by everyone, including this author, no-one is excluded from it.

Notice, the disciples were preventing the children from coming to Jesus. Jesus' response was, "Let the children come to me; do not prevent them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Amen, I say to you, whoever does not accept the kingdom of God like a child will not enter it." Children have a complete dependence on and trust in their parents; so must our dependence and trust be in respect to our God. He loves us totally; does not hold anything back in his love for the Church. Our marriages are to reflect this love, of course we have to grow in this understanding. The trouble is, in our world there are many who try to block the image of love God has for us. It continues to bastardize it. However, it is by our obedience, and reflections to the Gospel, that God's Spirit will continue to work in our lives and be seen by the people we make contact with in our daily lives.

LIVE THE LITURGY

Inspiration for the week

"What God has joined together." We are all familiar with these words. Because man and woman are essentially of the same substance, although also distinctively different, there is an innate desire to be connected and united. Admittedly, marriage covenants can be extremely difficult to negotiate and, at times, very painful to experience. But they can also be celebrations of great union and happiness. This is proven by couples who have been married for many years who still have that same twinkle of devotion in their eyes that was present on their wedding day. God designed it to be this way. By God's power, the two become one. This is not of human design. The true intimacy of marriage is a Divine Intimacy. It is a bond created by a power far greater than any found in the two people who are joined. Marriage is where the virtue of love is most fully expressed.

ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI

FEAST DAY
OCTOBER 4

SAINT OF THE WEEK

St. Francis of Assisi (1181 – 1226) left a life of luxury for a life devoted to Christianity after reportedly hearing the voice of God, who commanded him to rebuild the Christian church and live in poverty. He founded the men's Order of Friars Minor, the women's Order of St. Clare, the Third Order of St. Francis and the Custody of the Holy Land.

Born in 1181 in Italy, St. Francis of Assisi was renowned for drinking and partying as a youth. During a military expedition/battle between Assisi and Perugia, he was captured and imprisoned for ransom. He spent nearly a year in prison and began receiving visions from God. After his release from prison, St. Francis of Assisi claimed to have heard the voice of Christ, who told him to restore the Christian Church and live a life of poverty. As a result, St. Francis of Assisi abandoned his life of luxury and became a devotee of the Catholic faith.

Today, St. Francis of Assisi, known for his deep love of nature and animals, is the patron saint of the environment and animals. Each October, many animals are blessed on his feast day.

Respect Life

"Walking with Moms in Need"

Pregnant and all types of parenting moms in need are in our parishes and our neighborhoods. As Pope Francis reminds us, our parishes need to be "islands of mercy in the midst of the sea of indifference." Everyone in our parish community should know where to refer a pregnant woman in need.

Our parish is joining a nationwide effort entitled: "Walking with Moms in Need." As part of this initiative our parish will undertake a yearlong process to assess, expand, and better communicate resources to pregnant moms and families in our local community.

We invite all parishioners to join us as we embark on this journey together. For more information, and to ensure you receive news and updates, please contact: Kathy Currie (773) 259-5829

Please join the Core Team for this new ministry, we are in need of new and old members to come together and do more for Respect Life in our parish. To learn more about the nationwide initiative, visit www.walkingwithmoms.com.

RESPECT LIFE MONTH 2021 | REFLECTION St. Joseph: Faithful Protector of Mother and Child

The infant Christ “came into our world in a state of great vulnerability. He needed to be defended, protected, cared for and raised by Joseph” (PC 5). The humble and often hidden carpenter of Nazareth accompanied Mary in her pregnancy, assisted at the birth of the Messiah in a stable, presented Jesus in the Temple, fled with his family far from their homeland to protect them, and lovingly raised Jesus as his own son in the years to come.

While the angel of the Lord appeared to Mary to announce that she would bring forth the Savior of the world, it was revealed to Joseph in a series of dreams how God’s plans would be brought to fulfillment. As Pope Francis highlights, “God trusted Joseph, as did Mary, who found in him someone who would not only save her life, but would always provide for her and her child” (PC 5).

Like every other human family, the Holy Family had to confront real and concrete challenges. Yet, “in every situation, Joseph declared his own ‘fiat’” (PC 3). His “yes” to the Lord meant that regardless of the hardship and personal sacrifice to himself, he consistently chose to put the needs of Mary and Jesus before his own. Joseph’s devotion helps reveal to us our own call to show special care for the lives of those whom God has entrusted to us.

During this Year of St. Joseph, each of us can find in him “an intercessor, a support and a guide in times of trouble” (PC, Intro). Joseph shows us how to say “yes” to life, despite our own fears, frailties, and weaknesses. For it is Joseph who was “chosen by God to guide the beginnings of the history of redemption. He was the true ‘miracle’ by which God saves the child and his mother” (PC 5). May we, too, be miracles in the lives of those who are most in need, especially at the beginning and end of life. Dear St. Joseph, you who were “able to turn a problem into a possibility by trusting always in divine providence” (PC 5), help us to imitate your faithful trust and courage. Excerpts from Patris corde, © 2020, Libreria Editrice Vaticana.
