Thank you again to everyone that helped us successfully reach our Parish's Bishop's Appeal goal. We are so fortunate to have such wonderful, supportive parish members.

Why Do We Do That? Catholic Life Explained

Vicar General and Chancellor

Question: I have seen the title of Vicar General and Chancellor used in our Catholic newspaper. Who are they and what do they do?

Answer: A bishop is in charge of a diocese and appoints people to help with its administration. Two of those positions are the Vicar General and the Chancellor. Both play a role in the life of a diocese, despite the many jokes priests may tell at their expense! A chancellor is the archivist of a diocese, charged with task of keeping the records of the diocese. Often a bishop may add other responsibilities and the chancellor may end up being like the executive director of the diocesan office. The chancellor does not need to be a priest. The vicar general is a priest, appointed by the bishop and acts in the name of the bishop in administering the diocese. He has an advanced degree in canon law or theology. He also has executive authority within the diocese. This means that he is involved in the day-to-day pastoral and temporal administration of the diocese. Canon law does not allow a bishop to appoint a relative to the position, nor the priest in charge of the sacrament of penance. In both cases, the purpose of the law is to avoid conflicts of interest.

Cemetery Note:

Just a huge THANK YOU to all who came out to help do clean up in the cemetery. Multiple hands made the clean up go smoother.

PRAYER

Glorious Saint Joseph,
 Model of all those devoted to labor,
 Obtain for me the grace to work in a spirit of penance
 For the expiation of my many sins,
 To work conscientiously,
 Putting the call of duty above my inclinations,
 To work with gratitude and joy,
 Considering it an honor to employ and develop,
 By means of labor, the gifts received from God,
 To work with order, peace, moderation, and patience,
 Without ever recoiling before weariness or difficulties,
 To work, above all, with purity of intention,
 And with detachment from self,
 Having always death before my eyes
 And the account which I must render of time lost,
 Of talents wasted, of good omitted
 Of vain complacency in success,
 So fatal to the work of God.

All for Jesus, all for Mary, all after your example,
 O Patriarch Joseph. Such shall be my watchword in life and in death.
 Amen

Reminder:
 Men's Bible Study is at Cruise In, Tuesdays, starting at 7am with breakfast to follow if you wish.

Life is a journey. When we stop, things don't go right.

Everyday Stewardship - Guided by the spirit

There will always be something behind us and before us. Time moves on and the world continues to rotate. Will we miss that which exists right before our eyes because they are shut while we are consumed by the past or worried about the future?

When we go about whatever work God has set for us this day, large or small, we cannot get it done if we are looking behind us. Being mindful means to live for the present. It sounds like the simplest thing in the world, but we forget it (I forget it at least once every day). We must be guided by the Spirit.

What I'm talking about here is a radical abandonment of ourselves to God — over, and over, and over again. We cannot put our hand to the plough, while our eyes are looking backward at what is left behind. We cannot turn back if we are to move forward.

When we take up the yoke of stewardship, we will never be able to bear it if we rely on our own strength. When we put our hands to the plough, we will never get the job done if we look backwards at our own track record for inspiration. There is no inspiration there. Let the dead bury their dead. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS
