THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

When Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, magi from the east arrived in Jerusalem, saying, "Where is the newborn king of the Jews? We saw his star at its rising and have come to do him homage." - Mt 2:1-2

Next Sunday's Gospel Reading

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel, praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection.

A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Mark

This is what John the Baptist proclaimed: "One mightier than I is coming after me. I am not worthy to stoop and loosen the thongs of his sandals. I have baptized you with water; he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit." It happened in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized in the Jordan by John. On coming up out of the water he saw the heavens being torn open and the Spirit, like a dove, descending upon him. And a voice came from the heavens, "You are my beloved Son; with you I am well pleased."

The Word of the Lord.

Reflection Questions

- ◆ What strikes you about this Gospel Reading? (Maybe it is something you never heard or realized before, or maybe something you find puzzling?)
- ◆ How does this Gospel relate to our lives?
- ◆ What might be the Good News for us?

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
 I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.
 Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
 come at least spiritually into my heart.
 As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen

Epiphany of the Lord, January 3rd, 2021

"... they fell down and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh ... " ~ Matthew 2:11

Notice the order of events in the Magi's visit. First, they knelt before Jesus and prayed to Him. Then they presented Him with their gifts. We, too, must take time to pray before we present our gifts to the Lord. We never know what God may be asking us to share!

Gospel Meditation

Encourage deeper understanding of Scripture

January 3, 2021

The Epiphany of the Lord

"Where is that thing?" mumbled Bob as he searched frantically on his dimly lit desk for the current electric bill. "I know I put it right on top of these papers this morning!" Growing in frustration and bordering on anger, he flies stuff around, moves books and opines why simple tasks need to be so hard. Enter his wife, who calmly says, "Maybe it would help if you put the light on, dear." The desk light goes on and lo and behold, there is the electric bill right where Bob left it earlier. All it took was a little light!

We stubbornly refuse to turn on the lights! Either we are distracted, determined, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Or perhaps, we fail to do the obvious. We would rather live our lives with the dimmest of lights or even in total darkness. Why are we afraid to do something so that we can actually see? It might help us to find quicker and better answers to problems, the meaning of life, relationships, happiness, and what is ultimate truth. Yet, we stumble along, moving things from one side to the other, getting angry, feeling cheated, being unsettled, resigning ourselves to the agony of defeat once again.

"And behold, the star that they had seen at its rising preceded them, until it came and stopped over the place where the child was." The light has come into the world in the person of Jesus Christ! We no longer have to fumble in the darkness. We have been gifted with the illumination we need to see our way through things and find what we really are looking for. All these years later, however, so many are still reluctant to accept him. Perhaps they are unconvinced, disinterested, preoccupied, stubborn, apprehensive, or all of the above. Everyone has their own reason for not wanting to turn on the switch.

But there are so many answers to so many of our problems in this humble Child of Nazareth. A simple birth teaches us about God's tender wedded relationship with humanity. It speaks to the expanse of God's salvation across the globe, and the incarnate Divine wonders and blessings that are a part of our life moment to moment. It calls us to understand the design of world order God intended as found in the Beatitudes, the sacredness of every human life and all of creation and the meaning of things we struggle with most, like suffering and death. We have a lot of Good News to share, not just with a privileged few but with all the world. All races and creeds can receive God's healing word. God continues to manifest himself even now! Use the light to find what you are really looking for!

Attention All Liturgical Ministers

Merry Christmas and a Blessed New Year to all of you who have so faithfully served our parish in the past, and who wish to return to doing so once again. Thank you to all our altar servers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, hospitality ministers and lectors. Thank you to our sacred linen launderers! God bless you all!

Want the Bulletin Emailed to You?

Sign up to get your bulletin delivered right to your inbox!

1. Go to www.parishesonline.com
2. In the first box enter St. Albert the Great and in the second box enter our zip code 53590.
3. Confirm that you see our parish bulletin, and then click on the SUBSCRIBE box.
4. Enter your email address

It is as simple as it sounds, and you won't miss a single bulletin!

Masks and Mass

Masks are required in church and while stopping at the parish center. We have the drop box under the green awning for dropping off envelopes and other items if you would rather not enter the building. Please use the upper and lower church parking lot entrances when coming to Mass on the weekends and during the week. We plan to continue to record the 4 PM Mass. This means it will continue to arrive in your email inbox and be posted on our website by Sunday morning.

Daily Masses: Tuesday 12:10 PM; Wed./Thurs./Fri. are 8:30 AM. If for any reason there is no Mass it will be posted on our website or feel free to call the Parish Office.

No Books in the Pew? No Problem!

Since we currently have no books or prayer cards available in our pews, we are providing the entire Mass text online! You may access the link at our website at: <https://saintalberts.org/mass> or simply scan the universal code on your electronic device as you enter church for Mass this weekend.

Check Your Spam Folder

Many people are not receiving our parish emails from Msgr. Heiar. Long term, email communication will be the most common way we communicate with you. Here is some steps for those who are not getting our parish emails.

1. Check your spam/junk email folder.
2. Add mail@flocknote.com to your email address book. That helps our email be recognized as friendly and not spam.
3. Finally, call the Parish Office with your preferred email address to receive updates. We may have the wrong email or we can reach out to Flocknote, our email sender, to make an adjustment on their end.

Albertfest Update

We are planning to forego the 2021 festival due to the amount of planning and likely nonrefundable down payments in order to execute a festival. The uncertainty cause by COVID-19 pandemic makes planning and implementing events difficult. We hope to resume in 2022.

Additionally, the St. Albert Raffle this past Fall was a major success, and we will certainly have another raffle this Summer or Fall.

Thank you for your patience and understanding.

Religious Education

“Confession is an act of honesty and courage – an act of entrusting ourselves beyond sin, to the mercy of a loving and forgiving God.” – Pope John Paul II

It is not unusual to feel uncomfortable going to confession. Many of us feel discomfort in admitting our sins. However, when we speak the truth about our sins in confession, we receive God’s mercy and forgiveness. We are invited to walk out of the confessional new, filled with peace and joy knowing that we are in good relationship with God.

Read more about the Sacrament of Reconciliation and God’s unending mercy in the January issue of our Religious Education Newsletter! <https://saintalberts.org/religious-education>

Everyday Stewardship

Life was not always easy with my father when I was growing up. Let's just say he made many decisions along the way that led to fear, anger, and sadness for my family and me. Unfortunately, I was the only one in the family that would years later truly forgive him for his actions. My mother and sister held onto the resentment and anger they felt all their lives. For my father and me, reconciliation led to several years of a deepening relationship before his passing in 2011.

Forgiveness is not easy and I do not consider myself better or stronger because I was able to forgive and my family members could not. However, I can say that the blessings I received due to forgiveness and a renewed relationship with my father were far better than the animosity experienced by others. I also learned that forgiveness benefited me far more than my father.

As good stewards of time, we must realize that each passing day will never come again. What we do with that time is completely up to us. We can be wise and use it to build bridges, heal wounds, and cultivate love where there is hate. We can also choose to waste time in fear, resentment, and anger. I thank God often for the gift of my dad. However, I thank God more for the gift of time spent with him and the ability to see him not with my human eyes, but with the eyes of Jesus.

Pastoral Care Office Update

Out of an abundance of concern for the safety of our vulnerable elderly population and following guidelines from area hospitals, as well as CDC recommendations, we are suspending our Pastoral Care Outreach ministry, except for end-of-life care. These include:

- Hospital visits
- Facility visits
- Home Visits
- Care Team Visits

We will be making follow-up phone calls to offer connection and protect against isolation. Please continue to list St. Albert the Great as your parish if you enter the hospital for care and support in your time of pastoral need.

Sacraments

Baptisms, Reconciliation and Sacrament of the Sick will be by appointment.

Weddings and Funerals, we will work with families to limit attendance according to the most recent guidelines for such events.

Does Your Child Need to be Baptized?

Due to the pandemic and in the interest of limiting numbers and ensuring safety for all, we are currently offering private baptisms. To discuss available dates and times, or if you have any questions, please contact Joanna at (608) 837-3798. Additional information is also available on our website (www.saintalberts.org) under the “Know Him” tab.

Pro-Life Corner

“Redeemer in the Womb” from Priests for Life~

Lord Jesus Christ, you took our human nature upon yourself. You shared our life and death, and childhood and adulthood. You also shared our time in the womb. While still God, while worshiped and adored by the angels, while Almighty and filling every part of the universe, you dwelt for nine months in the womb of Mary. You were our Redeemer in the womb, our God who was a preborn child. Lord Jesus, we ask you to bless and protect the children who today are in their mothers' womb. Save them from the danger of abortion. Give their mothers the grace to sacrifice themselves, in body and soul, for their children. Help all people to recognize in the preborn child a brother, a sister, saved by you, our Redeemer in the womb. Amen.

Let us continue to pray for the end to abortion, euthanasia, infanticide, assisted suicide, and contraception; and the healing of all who have been affected.

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments

Wise Men See God in the Simple Things

If you're on social media, you have probably seen a meme going around that features this quote: “God has a plan for your life. The enemy has a plan for your life. Be ready for both. Just be wise enough to know which one to battle and which one to embrace.”

There were certainly two competing plans for the Magi: God's and Herod's. And, wise as they supposedly were, it wasn't entirely easy for the Magi to discern which was which.

After all, Herod posed as a friend. He offered the Magi hospitality and kindness. Though the Gospel doesn't say so, he probably flattered them and appealed to every moral weakness he could observe in them. In his palace, they must have felt great physical comfort — rest and tables of plenty on what was an otherwise long and treacherous journey.

But if the Magi were honest with themselves, I'll bet they would have admitted that, regardless of Herod's charm, they felt a gnawing sense of doubt while in his presence. When they looked upon the Christ Child, born in a stable without any of the comforts of the world or protections of wealth, they probably felt the opposite. They probably felt safe.

The Magi were lucky enough to have the right plan spelled out for them in a dream, but for the rest of us, it's enough to remember this: God's plan is often the one that leads us to places of great simplicity, great humility and great love. Let's have the wisdom to view power with suspicion, and innocence with admiration. — Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS ©LPi

Update to Food Pantry:

Now accepting drop off items!

In this time of crisis, we have been amazed and inspired by those wishing to help. In lieu of food and personal care items we asked for your financial support. Your response has been incredible. This is still the best way to support the Food Pantry.

But, please note, the Food Pantry is once again accepting drop off donations. If you are interested in making this kind of donation, items can be dropped off during Food Pantry hours (M, W & F 12:00-3:30 PM; Tue & Th 5-7 PM; Sat 9:00-11:00 AM.) Current donation needs are: Diapers, sizes 4-6 & pullups; Baby Wipes; Feminine Hygiene Products—regular pads; Laundry Soap; Dish Soap; Shampoo; Paper Towels; Deodorant (women or men); Bleach/Disinfectant Cleaning Supplies.

Please do not bring your donations to church, we ask you to take them directly to the pantry (18 Rickel Road, Sun Prairie) until further notice. Thank you for all that you do during this very trying time.
