Next Sunday's Gospel Reading

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel, praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection.

A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Luke

The two disciples recounted what had taken place on the way, and how Jesus was made known to them in the breaking of bread. While they were still speaking about this, he stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." But they were startled and terrified and thought that they were seeing a ghost. Then he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And why do questions arise in your hearts? Look at my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you can see I have." And as he said this, he showed them his hands and his feet. While they were still incredulous for joy and were amazed, he asked them, "Have you anything here to eat?" They gave him a piece of baked fish; he took it and ate it in front of them. He said to them, "These are my words that I spoke to you while I was still with you, that everything written about me in the law of Moses and in the prophets and psalms must be fulfilled." Then he opened their minds to understand the Scriptures. And he said to them, "Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise from the dead on the third day and that repentance, for the forgiveness of sins, would be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things." The Word of the Lord.

Reflection Questions

- ◆ What strikes you about this Gospel Reading? (Maybe it is something you never heard or realized before, or maybe something you find puzzling?)
- ◆ How does this Gospel relate to our lives?
- ◆ What might be the Good News for us?

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I long for You in my soul.

Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

Divine Mercy, April 11th

"The community of believers was of one heart and mind, and no one claimed that any of his possessions was his own ..."
~Acts 4:32

All that we are and all that we have is a gift from God! Think of your family, your friends, your life, your talents and your money—these are all gifts from God! We aren't really owners of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has blessed us with. We are called to be grateful and generous with all of our gifts for the benefit of others.

Gospel Meditation
Encourage deeper understanding of Scripture

April 11, 2021

2nd Sunday of Easter (Divine Mercy Sunday)

What a wonderful joy fills us today as we ponder the inexhaustible mercy of God. "Mercy is the heart of God," Pope Francis tells us. The image of a heart has been used to point to the very life source of a person as it is the organ that allows life to flow through our veins and sustain us. Mercy is the heart of God. Imagine this dynamic, powerful, compassionate, piercing, embracing, loving, propelling, penetrating, absorbing, and enveloping, transforming presence of God flowing into the very depth of our souls. It is God's mercy that allows blood to flow through our veins. It is God's mercy that forms every atom of our being and leads us to what is true. God's mercy reveals all superficiality and falsehood, and lays bare all distortions, empty promises, weakness, and sin.

"Mercy is the force that reawakens us to new life and instills in us the courage to look to the future with hope," Pope Francis continues. God's all-forgiving, compassionate love is with us. When we finally believe and accept that Christ's resurrected transfigured presence resides with us, we then find within us a strong confidence to accept life's imperfections and disappointments and move on. Every day is a new adventure in new life. God leaves the past behind and opens doors to the future. It doesn't matter how many mistakes we made yesterday. All that matters is what we do tomorrow and what we learn along the way. It is so easy to remain tethered and mired in the past, but there is no need to do so. God is all about tomorrow and the work God has yet to do in our lives.

Mercy gives birth to hope. Hope for the greatest of sinners and hope for the worst of disasters. There is nothing God cannot do and nothing God cannot fashion. After all, everything we know and treasure was once nothing, and look what God did with the nothing God had! The resurrected Christ stands before us with nail marks in his wrists and wounds on his body as a testament that not even injustice, suffering and death can trample over and destroy God's mercy. What have we to fear? Why do we keep ourselves from peace? Our lack of faith prevents us from going forward and fully receiving the holiness God desires to breathe upon us. Breathe in God's mercy, allow the wind of God's presence to kiss all of your sins and caress all of your fears. Exhale peace.

Masks and Mass

Masks are required in church and while stopping at the parish center. We have the drop box under the green awning for dropping off envelopes and other items if you would rather not enter the building. Please use the upper and lower church parking lot entrances when coming to Mass on the weekends and during the week. We plan to continue to record the 4 PM Mass. This means it will continue to arrive in your email inbox and be posted on our website by Sunday morning.

Daily Masses: Tuesday 12:10 PM; Wed./Thurs./Fri. are 8:30 AM. If for any reason there is no Mass it will be posted on our website or feel free to call the Parish Office.

No Books in the Pew? No Problem!

Since we currently have no books or prayer cards available in our pews, we are providing the entire Mass text online! You may access the link at our website at: <https://saintalberts.org/mass> or simply scan the universal code on your electronic device as you enter church for Mass this weekend.

Check Your Spam Folder

Many people are not receiving our parish emails from Msgr. Heiar. Long term, email communication will be the most common way we communicate with you. Here is some steps for those who are not getting our parish emails.

1. Check your spam/junk email folder.
2. Add mail@flocknote.com to your email address book. That helps our email be recognized as friendly and not spam.
3. Finally, call the Parish Office with your preferred email address to receive updates. We may have the wrong email or we can reach out to Flocknote, our email sender, to make an adjustment on their end.

Vacation Bible School

Update

Unfortunately, we have decided to cancel the 2021 Vacation Bible School (VBS) due to the uncertainty and challenges caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The pandemic makes planning and implementing events like VBS difficult. We hope to resume in the summer of 2022. Because we are unable to offer VBS this summer, we plan on offering other summer events for young families. Please keep an eye out for announcements in the future. Thank you for your patience and understanding. If you have any questions, please contact Lauren or Brenda.

Celebrating Easter Sacraments...

We would like to congratulate those adults who completed their Sacraments of Initiation at the Easter Vigil on April 3rd: David Placek, Kaitlin Dolphin, Danni Mehne, and Lauren Ring. Please warmly welcome these 4 individuals into our parish community with your prayers and support! Thank you!

Pastoral Care Office Update

Out of an abundance of concern for the safety of our vulnerable elderly population and following guidelines from area hospitals, as well as CDC recommendations, we are suspending our Pastoral Care Outreach ministry, except for end-of-life care. These include:

- Hospital visits*
- Facility visits*
- Home Visits*
- Care Team Visits*

We will be making follow-up phone calls to offer connection and protect against isolation. Please continue to list St. Albert the Great as your parish if you enter the hospital for care and support in your time of pastoral need.

Does Your Child Need to be Baptized?

Due to the pandemic and in the interest of limiting numbers and ensuring safety for all, we are currently offering private baptisms. To discuss available dates and times, or if you have any questions, please contact Joanna at (608) 837-3798. Additional information is also available on our website (www.saintalberts.org) under the "Sacraments" tab.

Pro-Life Corner

Easter Meditation on the Glorious Mysteries 2nd Mystery—The Ascension

By ascending to the Father's throne, Christ takes our human nature, given to us in the womb, to the heights of heaven. He shows us that human beings are made to be raised to heaven, not thrown in the garbage. Let us pray that the world may learn this truth and reject abortion. ~ From Priest for Life

An Easter Prayer for Life from Priests for Life

Lord Jesus Christ, You are the Author of Life, who died and now lives forevermore. May we work and pray that children in the womb may be protected always draw strength, confidence, and joy from Your victory over death, for You are Lord forever and ever. Amen.

Let us continue to pray for the end to abortion, euthanasia, infanticide, assisted suicide, and contraception; and the healing of all who have been affected.

Pregnancy Helpline Drop-Off Dates

Thank you to all who participated in our recent drop-off for Pregnancy Helpline. Our next drop-off date is Wednesday, April 14th between 4:00 and 5:30 PM. People will be available to receive your donated items near the church entrances in the lower level parking lot.

Deepen your faith with the Catholic Herald Issue of April 15th

This week's Catholic Herald features a section dedicated to National Volunteer week. Bishop Donald J. Hying also offers his reflections in his weekly column "From the Bishop's Desk."

Learn more about your Catholic faith by reading the Catholic Herald. If you do not subscribe but wish to receive the Catholic Herald print or E-edition in your home, contact the parish office.

Worldwide Marriage Encounter

Are we like Thomas and doubt the power of God? Learn the tools to put God in your Sacrament of Marriage. The next virtual Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend is April 23-25 or join us for an in person weekend on June 25-27 in Geneva, IL or August 20-22 in Madison, WI. Confession & First Communion

Question: Do children need to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation before their First Communion?

Answer:

For centuries the Catholic Church has taught that a person needs to be in a state of grace (free from mortal sins) in order to worthily receive the Eucharist. To that end, Catholics should make an effort to celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation any time they recognize the need for the sacrament (and in keeping with the precept of the Church that asks that we celebrate this sacrament at least once each year).

In the case of children preparing for their First Communion, the Code of Canon Law is very clear that they should also celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation before receiving the Eucharist for the first time: “It is the responsibility, in the first place, of parents and those who take the place of parents as well as of the pastor to see that children who have reached the use of reason are correctly prepared and are nourished by the divine food as early as possible, preceded by sacramental confession” (Canon 914).

While some might question the significance of the Sacrament of Reconciliation — especially in the case of children who might not fully understand the reality of sin or the meaning of the sacrament itself — a child’s “First Confession” can be a wonderful time for families to reflect together on the quality of their relationships, how they put their faith into practice, and, when it is possible, to celebrate the sacrament as a family. In the end, the celebration of these two sacraments marks important moments in the spiritual journeys of children and we hope their “First Confession” and “First Communion” help instill in them a love of the sacraments of the Church. ©LPi

Recognize God in Your Ordinary Moments Eye Has Not Seen

They say seeing is believing. But if you’ve ever ordered a pair of pants online, you know that’s not always the case. Whatever the photos promise us, what looked like a perfectly nice shade of navy blue on our computer screens comes in the mail as an unusual shade of blue green that only appears in the giant box of Crayola crayons.

The Apostle Thomas, who couldn’t bring himself to accept that Jesus had risen from the dead without seeing him, is such an utterly relatable figure in the Gospels. Thomas is still reeling from a loss — not only of his good friend but his Lord, who was taken prisoner and crucified before his eyes. Thomas is guarding himself. He’s not believing the hype. He’s going to be the only judge of what is real and what is fiction.

Would any of us be any different? We’ve all had those thoughts. Can we believe it all — Jesus, salvation history, the Eucharist — when we haven’t seen it with our own two eyes?

That’s when we need to remember that those two eyes were absolutely positive they had ordered a pair of navy blue pants.

It’s easy for us to sit back stroking our chins in judgment at Thomas, “you didn’t believe the testimony of your friends!” But do we accept the testimony of our friends? The saints, the popes, the Church fathers themselves?

Sometimes the things that are most worthy of believing can’t be seen with the naked eye.

Update to Food Pantry:

Now accepting drop off items!

In this time of crisis, we have been amazed and inspired by those wishing to help. In lieu of food and personal care items we asked for your financial support. Your response has been incredible. This is still the best way to support the Food Pantry.

But, please note, the Food Pantry is once again accepting drop off donations. If you are interested in making this kind of donation, items can be dropped off during Food Pantry hours (M, W & F 12:00-3:30 PM; Tue & Th 5-7 PM; Sat 9:00-11:00 AM.) Current donation needs are: Diapers, sizes 4-6 & pullups; Baby Wipes; Feminine Hygiene Products—regular pads; Laundry Soap; Dish Soap; Shampoo; Paper Towels; Deodorant (women or men); Bleach/Disinfectant Cleaning Supplies.

Please do not bring your donations to church, we ask you to take them directly to the pantry (18 Rickel Road, Sun Prairie) until further notice. Thank you for all that you do during this very trying time.
