A note from the Pastor:

Friends in Christ,

I am excited to announce that we will be participating in a parish-wide survey about discipleship conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute (CLI), a non-profit Catholic apostolate that does leadership training and development. All parishes in the Diocese of Madison are participating in the survey conducted by the Catholic Leadership Institute.

The parishes of the Catholic Church must always be places where people can, first, encounter Jesus Christ, but from there to grow in being disciples of Christ. As Christians, we have a responsibility to be the best disciple of our Lord and Savior as we can be. We may not be perfect (even the saints were not perfect), but all Christians are called to holiness.

The Disciple Maker Index Survey will ask you to reflect on your own spiritual growth and enable you to provide feedback on our parish's efforts to help you grow. In other words, what can we do for you? All responses will be confidential and the parish will only receive information about the community as a whole.

You can access the survey on the front page of our parish website (www.saintalberts.org). We would really appreciate it if you could take the survey as soon as possible, thereafter.

The survey should only take 15-20 minutes to complete. The more participation we have, the better the data for the Institute to crunch. This information will be valuable as we plan for the future and strive to be the best disciples we can be.

We will receive the results this spring/summer at which time we will share what we have learned with the entire parish.

If you are unable to access the survey on-line, please contact the parish office or a member of the parish staff for a paper copy. Thank you!

St. Joseph, guardian of the Redeemer, pray for us!

Thirtieth Sunday Ordinary Time, October 24th

Next Sunday's Gospel Reading

You are encouraged to cut and post this Gospel, praying it daily and using it as quiet reflection .

A reading from the Holy Gospel According to Jeremiah

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way. The Word of the Lord.

Reflection Questions

- What strikes you about this Gospel Reading? (Maybe it is something you never heard or realized before, or maybe something you find puzzling?)
- How does this Gospel relate to our lives?
- What might be the Good News for us?

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Blessed Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I long for You in my soul.
Since I cannot now receive You sacramentally,
come at least spiritually into my heart.
As though You have already come, I embrace You and unite myself entirely to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen

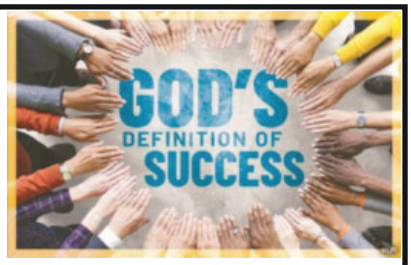
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time, October 17th

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." ~ Mark 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share." This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.

Gospel Meditation
Encourage deeper understanding of Scripture

October 17, 2021
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time



"What do you wish me to do for you?" Whether we realize it, this is a question God is always asking. It's an important question because the answer we provide will reveal a great deal about where our hearts lie. Our requests of God can often appear very noble and altruistic. They consist of requests for healing for someone in need of prayers, successful resolution of a personal conflict, assistance in overcoming a disease and myriad other desires for both ourselves and others. We are especially concerned about those we love and can easily find ourselves bringing their struggles to God for a hearing in our prayer.

Is that really all that prayer is about? The woman in today's Gospel, having been put in her place by Jesus, was only looking out for the wellbeing of her sons. She was doing what mothers do, protecting and securing the livelihood of her children. But she was sadly mistaken, her request was not granted. We all make this same misguided mistake from time to time. The goal of prayer is not to convince God of the worthiness of our agenda or to gain a hearing. Sometimes we believe that the more we multiply our prayers or discover the right combination of supplications that we will receive more of God's attention. That's not how it works. Even though God desires to hear, know, and be an intimate part of what is on our minds, it goes much deeper.

What we need from God is a relationship. It's a relationship that guides and immerses us in the very stuff of life and in the direction of the Gospel. This relationship sees God's kingdom and agenda, not our own, as what is most important. It builds the strength of character necessary to bring God's Gospel into a world that may not receive it with open arms. It may cause us discomfort and suffering. We are asked to heroically journey with God through suffering, hardship, ridicule, and even death! Ultimately, our desire from God must become our desire for God. It is only when this happens that the powerful words "thy will be done" will be found with sincerity and humility on our lips. Whatever God wishes becomes what we wish as we see this glorious union of wills. Our humble lives will then become powerful witnesses, and what happens to us in God's eternal kingdom the result of his mercy. We become true servants and find ourselves discovering God's definition of success. That definition has nothing at all to do with status, income, or privilege. ©LPi

The Evangelization Corner

Prioritize Sunday as the Lord's Day!

Pray* 15 minutes a day! Go to Confession monthly! Make an Act of self-denial on every Friday!

We are called to keep the Lord's Day holy. Bishop Hying tells us that "Every Sunday is a mini-Easter, a day of rest, the Sabbath dedicated to honoring the victory of Christ over the powers of sin and death. Sunday Mass is the center of our Catholic faith and practice, as we gather to worship God, hear the Word, share in the death and rising of the Lord and receive the most Holy Eucharist. Additionally, Sundays should be days of free of servile work, dedicated to worship, prayer, time spent with family and friends, rest, study and works of charity. In this way, we honor the meaning of the Sabbath and the primacy of our relationship with God."

Is God Calling You Into A Deeper Relationship With Him Through the Catholic Faith?

If you are interested in becoming Catholic, or if you just have questions about the faith, DON'T WAIT! Catholic Initiation is primarily a journey of faith, and the journey begins NOW!

The Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults (RCIA) is a formal process designed for adults who have never been Baptized; adults who have been Baptized in another faith tradition; and adult Catholics who were Baptized as infants but never had any formal faith formation and have not yet celebrated First Eucharist and/or Confirmation. It is a process that explores what it means to be Catholic. Through prayer, instruction, discussion, reflection and special rites celebrated within our parish community, adults learn what the Catholic Church teaches, and what its traditions and experiences are like. The RCIA begins this October, and runs through April. If you, or someone you know, would be interested in learning more about RCIA, please contact Joanna calling 837-3798 ext. 3 as soon as possible.

The Glory of the Human Person

"Lord, what is man that You care for him, mortal man that You keep him in mind?...With glory and honor You crowned him, giving him power over the works of Your hands." (Psalm 8:5-7)

"Lord, we come before You, amazed at Your love for us. You make human life in Your image and therefore it is sacred. Human life comes from You, it belongs to You, and it returns to You. As human beings, we are capable of a relationship with You by which we know You, love You and serve You, and will be united with You forever. O Lord, "You have been my guide since I was first formed, from my mother's womb You are my God" (Ps. 22:10-11). The life of each of us, and of each baby in the womb, reveals to the world Your love and Your glory. Lord, may we never lose our amazement at the gift of human life. May we never lose our reverence for every life that intersects with our own. And may we never lose our readiness to sacrifice ourselves to save the lives of others. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen." From In the Light of His Word, Biblically Based Prayers to End Abortion by Rev. Frank Pavone
