ST. MICHAEL PARISH MISSION

To hear and respond to Jesus' call to be His disciples, and nourished as a community by Word & Eucharist, to continue His redemptive mission of love & service to all.

Today the Church celebrates Christ's entrance into Jerusalem to accomplish his paschal mystery. Palm branches – since Old Testament times – have been a sign of military victory. For example, the book of Maccabees – about a century and a half before Christ – tells us that: “The Jews entered [Jerusalem] with praise and palm branches ... because a great enemy had been crushed and removed from Israel” (1 Mac. 13:51). The palm branches were a symbol of that decisive victory.

It is not without a certain irony that our celebration today begins with the blessing of these symbols of a great victory over an enemy, and immediately continues with the narrative of our Lord's Passion. The thrill of victory seems to give way to the agony of defeat.

We, of course, as Christians, know that what appears to be defeat is, in fact, the very means by which the battle is won. Christ chose to redeem us – he chose to win the victory – through suffering. And he chose to include us in this plan of redemption – when we take up our own cross every day.

But why through suffering? Wasn't there a better way? And why do we have to continue to suffer? Wouldn't the world be a better place if there were no suffering?

In an interview some years ago, Cardinal Ratzinger was asked this very question: “Why is suffering part of the mystery of being human?” This is what he said:

“Today what people have in view is eliminating suffering from the world. For the individual, that means avoiding pain and suffering in whatever way. Yet we must also see that it is in this very way that the world becomes very hard and very cold. Pain is part of being human. Anyone who really wanted to get rid of suffering would have to get rid of love before anything else, because there can be no love without suffering, because it always demands an element of self-sacrifice, because, given temperamental differences and the drama of situations, it will always bring with it renunciation and pain.

When we know that the way of love – this exodus, this going out of oneself – is the true way by which man becomes human, then we also understand that suffering is the process through which we mature. Anyone who has inwardly accepted suffering becomes more mature and more understanding of others, becomes more human. Anyone who has consistently avoided suffering does not understand other people; he becomes hard and selfish.

Love itself is a passion, something we endure. In love we experience first a happiness, a general feeling of happiness.

Yet on the other hand, I am taken out of my comfortable tranquility and have to let myself be reshaped. If we say that suffering is the inner side of love, we then also understand why it is so important to learn how to suffer—and why, conversely, the avoidance of suffering renders someone unfit to cope with life. He would be left with an existential emptiness, which could then only be combined with bitterness, with rejection and no longer with any inner acceptance or progress toward maturity.”

If you want to eliminate suffering, you first have to eliminate love; ironically, the absence of love is the very definition of hell.

Happiness is not the absence of suffering; happiness is the presence of love; and love means suffering.

Lord, you opened the eyes and heart of Simon of Cyrene, and you gave him, by his share in your Cross, the grace of faith. Help us to aid our neighbors in need, even when this interferes with our own plans and desires. Help us to realize that it is a grace to be able to share the cross of others and, in this way, know that we are walking with you along the way. Help us to appreciate with joy that, when we share in your suffering and the sufferings of this world, we become servants of salvation and are able to help build up your Body, the Church. Amen.

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

I gave my back to those who beat me,
my cheeks to those who plucked my beard;
my face I did not shield
from buffets and spitting. (Is 50:6)

Psalm:

My God, my God, why have you abandoned me? (Ps 22)

Second Reading:

He humbled himself,
becoming obedient to the point of death,
even death on a cross.
Because of this, God greatly exalted him. (Phil 2:8-9)

Gospel:

The centurion and the men with him who were keeping watch over Jesus feared greatly when they saw the earthquake
and all that was happening, and they said,
"Truly, this was the Son of God!" (Mt 26:54)

Respect Life Petition Drive

There are plans underway to amend our Illinois Constitution to make abortion a constitutional right by securing voter approval on the 2024 general election ballot. Pro-life residents are working to combat this constitutional change and to counter it with a referendum of our own, calling for key abortion limitations—which the majority of Illinoisans support.

To show your support for abortion restrictions in Illinois, scan the QR code to support a referendum.

1. To re-instate parental/guardian notification and consent for a minor (all those under the age of 18) to have an abortion in the State of Illinois.
2. To ban Illinois tax-payer funded abortions so those morally and religiously opposed to abortion are not forced to fund this objectionable act.

Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord

“As they were marching out, they came upon a man of Cyrene, Simon by name; this man they pressed into service to carry his cross.”

Matthew 27:32

The Lord calls us to love God and to love our neighbor. Every day we are presented with opportunities to love our neighbor and help him “carry his cross.” These opportunities aren’t usually big events, they are usually ordinary occurrences like helping someone carry their groceries or holding the door open for them. The key is putting the other person’s needs before our own and not expecting anything in return.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection 2023

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land, where they are now less than 2% of the population. Your support is essential to help the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines of Christianity, including in Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Bethlehem, to name only a few. The pandemic hit Christians in the Holy Land particularly hard. Most of them depend on pilgrimages for work. In these times the Pontifical Good Friday Collection is necessary to meet the basic needs of the People of God still living in this Land and to maintain a Christian presence where the Church was born.

PLEASE BE GENEROUS!
