11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this Father's Day weekend I would like to extend to all of the fathers in our parish a word of congratulations for having responded to this holy and lofty calling from God (the Father)!

I have often referred to an incident that, for me, was an eye-opener. About fifteen years ago I was instructing some young men in a juvenile detention center. The topic on one particular evening was God the Father. As I tried to make the point that God loves us as a Father, it became apparent to me that these young men were struggling with that concept. One of them asked, "You mean God abuses us?"

I found out that to him, a father was someone who came home drunk regularly and beat him. My attempt to explain that the essence of fatherhood was, in fact, a relationship of love meant nothing to him. As far as he was concerned, a father was an evil tyrant who inflicted arbitrary punishment. As I look back, it occurs to me that unconditional love is a very difficult concept to explain to someone who has never experienced it. I think it's kind of like trying to explain the difference between blue and green to someone who has been blind from birth. If you've never been able to see, then any talk about color is meaningless; you can't understand it unless you've experienced it.

Fortunately, this young man had experienced (to some extent) the love of a mother, and so I was able to draw upon some of the Biblical images of maternal love; from Isaiah, ("Even if a mother could forget her child, I will never forget you") and Jesus's lament over Jerusalem, ("I yearned to gather your children together as a hen gathers her brood under her wings.")

What I distinctly remember that night is being impressed by the awesome responsibility that parents have toward their children. Here was a young man who may never understand the mercy or love or fidelity of God because his father did not reflect those qualities in any significant way.

The following is a reflection from the late Cardinal Mindszenty, whose survived imprisonment by Nazis during WWII:

The Importance of a Father

St. Joseph was strong in the face of adversity and poverty of his time. He is a model of the virtues of prudence, humility, strength and fortitude. Even though Joseph is "silent" in Scripture, his actions speak to us more clearly than recorded words. Just as Joseph resigned his own will to the will of God, so a good father walks the path as God sets it out for him. The greatest gift any father can give to his children is lifelong fidelity to his Marriage Covenant. Children learn about love through a father's affection, prayer, honor, self-control, forgiveness and integrity.

May God strengthen all of our fathers in their awesome calling!

Father's Day—Retired Religious Collection June 17 & 18

The annual "Father's Day Second Collection" each June is to help the needs of our elderly, infirmed, and retired priests especially those that have extraordinary medical expenses or catastrophic illnesses above and beyond what insurance can cover. The money also helps to pay for repairs at the St John Vinney Villa Priest Retirement Home and to continue to solidify the Retired Priest Pension Plan.

Thank you for your generous support. Please pray for the health of our senior retired priests.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"Therefore, if you hearken to my voice and keep my covenant, you shall be my special possession, dearer to me than all other people, though all the earth is mine. You shall be to me a kingdom of priests, a holy nation." (Ex 19:5-6)

Psalm:

We are his people: the sheep of his flock. (Ps 100)

Second Reading:

Indeed, if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, how much more, once reconciled, will we be saved by his life. (Rom 5:10)

Gospel:

Then he summoned his twelve disciples and gave them authority over unclean spirits to drive them out and to cure every disease and every illness. (Mt 10:1)

Thank You!

Project Love is eternally grateful for the generosity of the St. Michael's Parish Community.

The Father's Day card sales netted $686 for Project Love, a donor-funded ministry which gives grants to the creditors of pregnant women or mothers with a baby of age 1 or less, so that they can be relieved of some of their financial concerns. Women are screened and referred to Project Love by counselors at the pregnancy alternative centers.

May God bless you for your generosity.

INTO THE LAND OF CARMEL

Sunday, July 16 - Friday, July 21, 2023

The Carmelite tradition began with a small group of Christians coming together in a valley on Mount Carmel in Israel in the early 1200's. Life in the valley included an atmosphere of silence and solitude. These hermits gathered for daily Eucharist and weekly dialogue. Their fundamental activity was a contemplative attending to God's loving presence.

This retreat/seminar will reflect the life lived long ago on Mount Carmel, but with additional elements of instruction in the tradition. With the saints of Carmel as our guides, we will explore the origins of Carmel, our living tradition, and the nature of contemplative prayer.

"As you go, make this proclamation: 'The kingdom of heaven is at hand.'" Matthew 10:7

Many of us take our lives for granted. We think we have plenty of time to "repent." Maybe we should live with a little more urgency in making things right with God. This is the difference in living our discipleship out of obligation versus out of love. Obligation implies we do the minimum required. Love implies we want a relationship. God wants us to be with Him in Heaven forever, but He also wants to be in relationship with us right now, while we are on earth. Start this second - invite the Lord into your heart.
