23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

“For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.”

- Mt 18:19-20

In a culture in which tolerance is held as one of the highest ideals, our Lord's teaching on fraternal correction may make us a bit squeamish. But at times, the demands of love may, of course, necessitate such a tactic. Tolerance is not a virtue when evil is the thing being tolerated. This is how Bishop Fulton Sheen put it:

“Christian love bears evil, but it does not tolerate it. It does penance for the sins of others, but it is not broad-minded about sin. The cry for tolerance never induces it to quench its hatred of the evil philosophies that have entered into contest with the truth. It forgives the sinner, and it hates the sin; it is merciful to the person, it is unmerciful to the error in his mind. The sinner it will always take back into the bosom of the Mystical Body; but his lie will never be taken into the treasury of Her Wisdom. Real love involves real hatred: Whoever has lost the power of moral indignation and the urge to drive the buyers and sellers from the temples has also lost a living, fervent love of Truth. Charity, then, is not a mild philosophy of “live and let live”; it is not a species of sloppy sentiment. Charity is the infusion of a Divine Spirit of Love. It is an integration of personality under the Spirit of God, which makes us love the beautiful and hate the morally ugly. Human love on its own is apt to be weak and to tire easily; human love supported by Divine Grace is as unshakable and strong as steel.”

St. Thomas Aquinas offers some help with regard to the question of when correction is advised:

“Fraternal correction is directed to the amendment of the wrongdoer, whom it does not coerce, but merely admonishes. Consequently when it is deemed probable that the sinner will not take the warning, and will become worse, such fraternal correction should be foregone, because the means should be regulated according to the requirements of the end.”

In other words, if our correction is going to have a bad effect, we take heed of Proverbs 9:8: “Reprove not an arrogant man, lest he hate you”.

So if it will do some good, yes, we are “on” for fraternal correction. If it will merely inspire hatred in the other person, then we simply pray for that person. Let us pray for the humility to accept fraternal correction as a help to our holiness, and the wisdom to know when to administer it out of love for our brothers and sisters in Christ.

Weekly Prayer

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

If I tell the wicked, "O wicked one, you shall surely die,"
and you do not speak out to dissuade the wicked
from his way,
the wicked shall die for his guilt,
but I will hold you responsible for his death.
(Ez 33:8)

Psalm:

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts. (Ps 95)

Second Reading:

Love does no evil to the neighbor;
hence, love is the fulfillment of the law. (Rom 13:10)

Gospel:

"If your brother sins against you, go and tell him his fault between you and him alone. If he listens to you, you have won over your brother."
(Mt 18:15)

St. Michael Music Ministry Needs You!

Have you ever sung in a choir? Did you sing, but gave that up to raise a family? Are you new to the parish and want to get involved? Were you a Cantor at a previous church, but haven't jumped in at St. Michael, yet. Do you like to sing and have fun doing it?

St. Michael Music Ministry is actively recruiting new members and it may just be the place for you.

St. Michael Music Ministry has openings for Choir Members, Cantors, and Handbell players, and now is a good time to get involved. While the commitment is ongoing, big projects in the year ahead include the popular Lessons & Carols, uniting with area choirs. Music Ministry plays an important role in our parish's liturgical life. An exciting year is ahead! Don't be shy; get involved.

Handbell and Choir rehearsals begin, Wednesday, September 13 and Thursday September 14 respectively.
