Dear Brothers and Sisters,

As we prepare for another Christmas season, I am reminded of something Pope Francis said:

“Christmas is a resounding reminder of history and revelation of God who came to tell us that He is here, as it says so beautifully in the book of Revelation: ‘Behold, I stand at the door and knock’ (Rev. 3:20). Jesus is knocking at your heart; Jesus is telling you the same thing that the angel told the shepherds: a Redeemer has been born to you!”

He goes on:

“Advent is a continuous call to hope: it reminds us that God is present in history to lead it to its ultimate goal, to lead it to its fullness, which is the Lord, the Lord Jesus Christ. God is present in the history of humanity, He is the “God-with-us”! God is not distant; he is always with us, to the extent that very often he knocks on the door to our heart. God walks beside us to support us. The Lord does not abandon us; He accompanies us through the events of our lives to help us discover the meaning of the journey; the meaning of everyday life, to give us courage when we are under duress or suffering. In the midst of life’s storms, God always extends his hand to us and frees us from threats. This is beautiful! In the book of Deuteronomy there is a very beautiful passage, in which the Prophet says to the people: “For what great nation is there that has a god so near to it as the Lord our God is to us?” No one! Only we have this grace of having God close to us. We await God, we hope that He manifests himself, but He too hopes that we manifest ourselves to him!”

As we begin this Advent season of preparation for the great feast of Christmas, I pray that you will be open to the graces that our Lord has already prepared ... personally... just for you!

On a separate note, Fr. Steve Borello, the Vocation Director for the Diocese of Joliet, will be here next weekend at all the Masses to speak about vocations to the priesthood and religious life!

"Be watchful! Be alert! You do not know when the time will come." - Mark 13:33

We all take things for granted. In particular, we take time for granted. We make our lives too busy. We plan our days, weeks, months, even years in advance. Remember, our time on earth is a gift. None of us knows how long we will be here. Start today and begin thanking God for each and every day. Take time in silence, every day, and listen to how God is calling you right now to help build His kingdom on earth.
