15TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out two by two and gave them authority over unclean spirits. The Twelve drove out many demons, and they anointed with oil many who were sick and cured them. - Mk 6:7, 13

THESE EXTRAORDINARY TIMES...

Don't we all just love the month of July? In the church, it is one of the months that offer a chill vibe, a time for less stress and more time to breathe and simply be. It is also right in the middle of the Season of Ordinary Time in our liturgical calendar, which is the season of growing, or deepening our relationship with God, a time of bearing fruit in our faith and love.

My dear St. Michael parishioners, my first week here has been graced with some highlights. They are extraordinary in the face of the ordinariness of this season, and I am truly grateful.

SETTLING AT THE RECTORY. God works in the details, because His love for us is in microcosmic details. God worked on the details during my move, through the people who worked with the details. So, I am grateful to the Lord for the staff and crew for their warm welcome and kindness. We have a great team of dedicated servant-leaders in our staff. That has always been a gift of this parish. They were not only attentive to my arrival, they communicated well and took care of the details. I am grateful to Mary Marten for helping me setup the first floor suite of the rectory. I am still temporarily staying at the lower level while the carpet floor is getting replaced with wood, and the walls are being repainted. Carlos and the maintenance team have been very kind to help with the heavy loads. Father Jacob has been very kind to just let me disturb the peace in the house with all the moving that was going on. And thanks to many parishioners who have offered any help that I needed during this time of moving.

MANAGING INVITATIONS. I am thankful for many who have invited me or mentioned anything about getting together soon. I may have been able to show up to Darren and Rose Griffin's home for a short while on the Fourth of July for an opportunity to meet some school families, but for the most part, I am still unable to really take time to accept every invitation. It has always been an issue in my priestly life that time is never enough to be able to say YES to everyone who asks for a time to hang out. Even for the intention, I want to say thank you. How amazing that this is the problem, indeed. Like I always say, please know that even though priests get busy, there is always a way to schedule these get-togethers and dinners and other social events. For me, this is a part of my ministry, it is a form of community-building. Please keep inviting!

LOOKING BACK AT MY FIRST WEEKEND LITURGIES. Last week, I reintroduced myself at all the masses during the homily. I would like to re-echo here the main points of my homily:

1. I am thankful for the warm welcome of everyone. I return to Wheaton bringing with me some fourteen rich years of ministry experiences in Bolingbrook, Kankakee and Elmhurst.

2. Moving back to Saint Michael as your pastor came as a surprise to me, because I did not request to move this year. Bishop called me to inform me about my new assignment and I immediately said yes, because of the many memories of how much this parish has encouraged me and loved me. I still have all the three-years' worth of cards, greetings, and the goodbye messages from parishioners with me until today. Just like Mary, I said yes, trusting in God's plan.
3. Yet, I am overwhelmed by this assignment as your pastor. It touches a deep sense of vulnerability, wondering if I can make it. I admit that on my own, with my own weaknesses, blinders, limitations and inabilities, it is daunting to think of what being your pastor means. But this is not really about me. This is about what God can accomplish through me. In the face of my human limitations, I count that the grace of God overflows.
4. Also, it is about all of us together. God's grace is at work in all of us, and we have to work together to accomplish what God wants of us, during my time as your pastor.
5. Like I said on my first day here back in 2007, I make the same vow and commitment now: I AM HERE TO LOVE YOU. That will come in various ways, easy and hard, but please know that I will always come from a place of love.
6. I thank Fr. Dan for his accomplishments here. I am very proud of him as my brother priest and classmate. We have gone far since the day we both got ordained together in Joliet in 2004. But please do not compare us, because it is unfair to everyone. Our gifts are different, and so, just as you have allowed Fr. Dan to use his gifts, please allow me to use mine as well.
7. Thank you to my mentors: Fr. Tony Taschetta (who, over the years, I seem to be following his assignment paths, but now we are here together, so no more running after him, I guess), Fr. Don McLaughlin (whom I suspect has something to do about this assignment), and Fr. Tom Paul my former dean in the East DuPage Deanery.
8. It feels good to be back home with you here. I look forward with great expectations for the things that God has in store for us all.

Thank you, St. Michael. What an extraordinary first week it has been!

With my devotion,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick - no food, no sack, no money in their belts." Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

Thank you to everyone who has already pledged their gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Catholic Appeal. We know that every contribution comes from the heart and each dollar we receive helps our parish meet our CMAA goal. Together, we can come to the aid of our brothers and sisters in need For the Glory of God.

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation

If you still plan on making your gift, pledge envelopes are still available in the parish office, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal of $169,300, the diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

Thank you for your generosity!

Traveling this Summer?

Make sure to plan for your offertory as well! When summer travels take you away from Sunday services, WeShare lets you continue to support our church and the ministries you cherish.

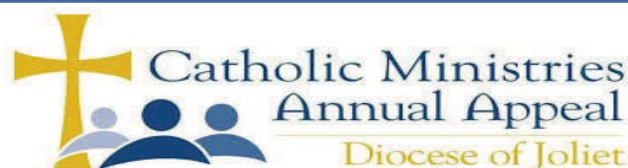

Recurring gifts sustain our parish through the busy summer months. You'll provide us with consistent support, that helps us always be at the ready with programs, services, and ministries for our church families and for those in need throughout the community.

Enroll in WeShare on our website at <https://www.stmichaelcommunity.org/donate> or scan the QR code with your phone's camera. Tap on the pop up link which will bring you to our website for one-time or recurring online donations.
