17TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?" Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks, and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. - Jn 6:9, 11

Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo – FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

THE GIFT OF THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS

Eighty-three years since the last one, the national Eucharistic Congress in Indianapolis was one for our time, and I am so grateful that I invested some time to be part of it as much as I could.

A GREAT ENCOURAGEMENT. When I arrived in Indy on Wednesday, July 17, I saw the long lines of people queued to register at the Convention Center. I could feel the energy of excitement, and despite the heat and the obvious inconvenience of waiting, I saw everyone smiling and laughing a great time talking and meeting each other. As I walked past the crowds to the priest registration area, I felt grateful that there were no lines. People were smiling at me and greeting me, "Hello, Father!" like I met them before. I felt instantly at home. After registration, I went to the Eucharistic Adoration and saw a church full of people adoring Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament. There was an air of piety and solemnity that gave chills to my body. There were people of all ages and all diversities imaginable. The first day was highlighted by the gathering of everyone at Lucas Stadium where the opening mass was celebrated. There were reportedly over 50,000 people there, and everyone was excited to be part of this historical event. I gave me chills seeing the procession of the Eucharist! As the day ended, I recognized how edified I was by the experience. It was good to know that I am never alone in my Catholic faith. The Church is strong in its unity, and it was in full display at the Congress.

THE JOLIET CHURCH IN INDY. Bishop Ronald Hicks celebrated a Thursday afternoon mass at Saint Mary Catholic Church on New Jersey Street, not far from the venue with fifteen Joliet priests and a host of enthusiastic faithful from the Joliet Diocese. I was elated to be one of them. I saw parishioners from various parishes where I used to serve, and several Filipino contingents as well. Passing out worship aids and doing hospitality work by the door were our very own Colleen Broadhead and Janet Piszyk, who were both radiating joy and enthusiasm. It was so good to have time to be in this occasion, and it was the sacrifice of not being able to attend some very good presentations for that Thursday afternoon. I also missed a previous mass celebrated by Cardinal Luis Tagle and four Filipino bishops of the USA. In his homily, Bishop encouraged us all that in the midst of the overwhelming craziness of life, when we usually do not know if we are coming or going, the Eucharist is our constant guide and sure point of reference in everything that we do.

A BUFFET OF SPIRITUAL NOURISHMENT. I am sure everyone who went to the Eucharistic Congress, whether for a day, a few days, or for the entire event, have taken home various pieces of the whole Congress, and every experience was unique and personal. There were so many things that could be done and many experiences that could have been had, but at the end of the day, everyone had to make their own choices. I myself did not make it to the closing mass, because I returned to the parish for the weekend masses here. Whatever experiences I got, I know I was more than nourished to continue living my life for Jesus in the Eucharist, and to share my faith with others with greater boldness and confidence, knowing that there are many others who are doing it. I was also pleased to chance upon Kyle Langan, and Christine Kania, among others from around the diocese. I also received some messages from David and Stephanie Loiacono, telling me that they were there, but we never crossed paths. One thing is sure, I was nourished by the Eucharistic Congress. It is one of the best Catholic experiences I have ever had since I arrived in the USA in the year 2000.

As your pastor, it is my prayer that the positive experiences and the spiritual gifts that overflowed at the Congress can be shared somehow here at our parish. We will discern and follow the inspiration from the Holy Spirit. I am sure some graces will trickle down to everyone in our pews and homes. God bless our parish. May the Eucharistic Lord be enthroned in our hearts forever. Amen.

With my devotion,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

"For thus says the LORD,
 'They shall eat and there shall be some left over.'" (2 Kgs 4:43)

Psalm:

The hand of the Lord feeds us; he answers all our needs. (Ps 145)

Second Reading:

One body and one Spirit,
 as you were also called to the one hope of your call;
 one Lord, one faith, one baptism;
 one God and Father of all. (Eph 4:4-6)

Gospel:

Then Jesus took the loaves, gave thanks,
 and distributed them to those who were reclining, and also as much of the fish as they wanted. (Jn 6:11)

"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish; but what good are these for so many?"
JOHN 6:9

The miracle of the Loaves and Fishes carries two important Stewardship messages. First, no matter how little we have, we always have enough to share. Second, Christ can take our humble gifts and do great things with them if we are just willing to let Him. Nothing is impossible with God. All of our gifts, big or small, were given to us for a reason. No gift is too small or insignificant!

Thank you to everyone who has already pledged their gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Catholic Appeal. We know that every contribution comes from the heart and each dollar we receive helps our parish meet our CMAA goal. Together, we can come to the aid of our brothers and sisters in need For the Glory of God.

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation

If you still plan on making your gift, pledge envelopes are still available in the parish office, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal of $169,300, the diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

Thank you for your generosity!

Traveling this Summer?

Make sure to plan for your offertory as well! When summer travels take you away from Sunday services, WeShare lets you continue to support our church and the ministries you cherish.

Recurring gifts sustain our parish through the busy summer months. You'll provide us with consistent support, that helps us always be at the ready with programs, services, and ministries for our church families and for those in need throughout the community.
