SOME JOYFUL REDISCOVERIES

It has been a month since I became your pastor, my dear St. Michael. It feels like a milestone, especially because many of you have been asking me how I am now, and if I have settled in nicely. I have also been offered many times in various ways any help that I need to get things situated and for me to have the smoothest possible transition into my new role here in our community. So, here's a word of thanks to all of you. I am feeling settled and I have felt like I have arrived, for sure. My feet have been wet enough this past month to know that I am in a new parish as a new pastor, and things have to really move forward.

Let me tell you some ten things that I have joyfully discovered and rediscovered about our parish:

Our church, the actual worship space and environment, IS so beautiful and conducive to worship. Thanks to the Building Committee of 2001 onwards who worked with Fr. Don McLaughlin for the legacy of an excellent church where the Church can pray and worship together, and build community as a spiritual family.

I love having the tabernacle in the center of the sanctuary. Fr. Dan brought that transition during his early years as the pastor. Something about having Jesus, our Eucharistic Lord, in the middle of the sanctuary speaks who is enthroned as King in our church.

I really love the energy of people going to church. You have brought me so much joy watching you all go to church with everybody in the family. Whether you come alone, or with company, you matter and the Lord wants you to grow in faith, hope and love with the rest of us. But something looks so encouraging when I see young families going to church with the children.

I am proud to see that our people stay! I mean, I have been to parishes where people seem to rush out of church, they are out of the space before the priest even leaves, or in other more disturbing cases, people leave after they receive communion and no longer wait for the final prayers, blessings and sending forth. Not here at Saint Michael! People stay, you stay and you fill the narthex with so much energy and conversation after the mass, I am edified by the sense of welcome and community that it fosters.

I am so happy to see the Burmese families coming to church! I remember starting the ministry to welcome refugees in our parish all the way back to 2008, when I met the first Burmese families that arrived in Wheaton. I remember organizing them and shortly after inviting our parishioners to organize ourselves to provide a ministry to help them settle in our community. I am so happy to see that they also remember me even now, and I get to see how they have grown as a community here in our parish!
ချစ်လှစွာသော မြန်မာနိုင်ငံသား သို့မဟုတ် မြန်မာပြည်မှ ညီအစ်ကို မောင်နှမများ- ကျွန်ုပ်၏ စိတ်နှလုံး ရွှင်လန်းမှုနှင့် ကျေးဇူးတရားကို ပေးသနားပါ။
(You give me joy and gratitude!).

I used to struggle a lot with doing the 6:30 AM masses, because I am not really a morning person. In fact, I have to admit that it was one of my immediate concerns when I found out that I was coming back. How would my older self be able to handle an early mass like that? Well, guess what... not so bad at all! The Lord seems to have given me the grace to not struggle as much as I used to. It must be part of aging to wake up earlier and require less sleep. The growing days are over, I suppose.

On Tuesday, August 6, I will remember Fr. Don McLaughlin in a special way. A year ago, I was with Maribeth and Philip Spittler in the hospice center at the moment of his passing, and I still can't believe that he has gone to rest. There is still a lot of things in our parish that carry some incredibly beautiful memories of being with him. Even using the office where he worked as pastor makes me feel so connected with him, remembering the many mornings I would catch him returning emails in the very early hours of the day.

It will take a while, an entire pastorate assignment to unveil the many facets of our parish. That is because God works that way. It is impossible to keep up with the details of God's inner working in our lives. I don't think we need to know all of it. We just need to know enough to realize that He is working within the life of our church. That's a blessed assurance!

It got harder to remember people's names. I am also very much involved in getting to know people and learn or relearn people's names. I hope that you don't get tired introducing yourselves by name; it has been very helpful. Even from 14 years ago, when it seemed very easy to remember names, this now 51 year-old pastor is struggling with retaining names of people, even though I can recognize faces very well.

We are a parish that prays well and works well. Needless to say, these are ongoing days of discovering details about our parish, how things are done, how ministries are structured, how masses and liturgies as well as sacraments are prepared, executed and followed up.

I am proud to be with you, my dear Saint Michael family, to grow in love with God together. I am really enjoying these rediscoveries, like re-opening a gift that was given long ago, and is still as beautiful and valuable as the day I received it. God bless our parish!

With joyfulness and praise,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

"Each day the people are to go out and gather their daily portion; thus, will I test them, to see whether they follow my instructions or not." EXODUS 16:4

When the Israelites gathered more than their daily portion of manna, the surplus became wormy and rotten. In the same way today, self-reliance, pride and ego lead to hoarding and excessive surplus of goods and money. Living a Stewardship lifestyle helps us discern our "wants" from our "needs". Living a grateful and generous lifestyle reminds us that God will provide all that we need and that we have plenty to share.

Thank you to everyone who has already pledged their gift to the 2024 Catholic Ministries Catholic Appeal. We know that every contribution comes from the heart and each dollar we receive helps our parish meet our CMAA goal. Together, we can come to the aid of our brothers and sisters in need For the Glory of God.

Through the CMAA, we show generosity toward the most vulnerable members of our community. We also benefit, as a parish, from the many ministries the CMAA supports, that touch our own lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners. Ministries that include vocations, Catholic education, and faith formation

If you still plan on making your gift, pledge envelopes are still available in the parish office, or you can use the envelope you received in the mail from the diocese. We also welcome online gifts at jolietdioceseappeal.org.

Remember, if we raise more than our goal of $169,300, the diocese will return 70 percent of the amount over goal to us to reinvest in our own parish. This is an incredible opportunity and blessing!

Thank you for your generosity!

Traveling this Summer?

Make sure to plan for your offertory as well! When summer travels take you away from Sunday services, WeShare lets you continue to support our church and the ministries you cherish.

Recurring gifts sustain our parish through the busy summer months. You'll provide us with consistent support, that helps us always be at the ready with programs, services, and ministries for our church families and for those in need throughout the community.
