God Blessed the Seventh Day and Made it Holy

"I don't have time for this!" These were the words that were on replay in my head as I drove from Joliet to Mundelein Seminary a few weeks ago. I was headed to a 3-1/2 day regional retreat for all the bishops from Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin. In my justified view, my saturated work schedule simply did not leave any room for this spiritual "indulgence." Yet, motivated mostly by duty, I checked into my room and asked the Lord to help me check my bad attitude at the door.

As God would have it, my prayer was immediately answered. We were introduced to our retreat director, Reverend Ron Rolheiser, OMI. You may know of him. He is a Catholic priest, theology professor and prolific author. You might be familiar with a number of his books on spirituality, the most popular entitled "The Holy Longing."

One of his thought-provoking talks was about the Sabbath. He reminded us that the Sabbath is a day of rest and religious observance that is rooted in the biblical creation narrative, where God rested on the seventh day after creating the world. Henceforth, by God resting on the seventh day, this day of rest was declared and ordained for everyone, forever.

Practically, in Judaism, the Sabbath begins at sunset on Friday and ends at nightfall on Saturday, during which work is prohibited. The Sabbath is devoted to rest, prayer, and family. For Catholics, we honor the seventh day on Sunday, commemorating the resurrection of Jesus, with a focus on worship and rest. Even the word "Sabbatical" comes from the word "Sabbath."

Father Rolheiser tested us: "How many of your flock truly take Sundays as a day of worship and rest?" "How many of them have replaced worship and rest with work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling?" Then he questioned, "Bishops, how many of your Sundays include not only worship, but also some rest? Hmm?"

Father provided us with some simple and clear guidance of what sabbath time should look like in Catholic life and culture. I found it enlightening, and so I'll share:

1. Rest: We live in a 24/7 culture. We are busy all the time. If God rested on the seventh day, then so too shall we who are made in His image and likeness. We each need to take a day to rest and recharge our batteries.

2. Change it up: Sunday is a special day to stop all the ordinary things in our lives and do something unordinary. The Sabbath is an invitation to do something that you do not do during the week. And what we do or don't do will be different for each of us depending on our different lives and circumstances. For example, if you work in an office all week, it might be good on Sunday to go outside, cut the grass and work in your garden. Whereas if you are a farmer, you might prefer one day away from your fields, lawn, and garden to instead sit inside and read a book. The point is to stop what we typically do throughout the week and take one day to do something unordinary, or even extraordinary.
3. Celebrate: Sabbath is a time for special celebrations. Years ago, the Sabbath was the day to stop normal work, take a bath, put on your best clothes, go to mass, come home, and eat a big dinner at the dining room table with family and friends. These days, we may not dress up in fancy clothes and our meals might be simpler or taken at a restaurant, yet we can all make sure that attending Sunday mass is always part of our Sunday celebrations.

Do you ever echo my words, "I have no time for this!" It is all too easy to use that excuse in the busyness of our weeks. But then we risk becoming workaholic, burned out machines who have no "off-switch" or downtime. At the end of my 3-1/2 days of sabbath time at the bishops' retreat, I thanked God for leading me to the precious time to pray, reflect, sleep, read, learn, walk around the grounds, and socialize.

We all need – in fact, instinctively crave- sabbath time! So please join me by reflecting on your own life and asking yourself, "How do I honor the Sabbath?" You may realize your Sundays still need to include some work, shopping, sports, entertainment or traveling. But please don't let those activities replace participating in Sunday Mass. Treat yourself, every Sunday, to the greatest gift Jesus gave us: the Eucharist. Nourished and refreshed by the Eucharist and celebrating our faith as a community, we can be energized to go out living our faith in the world on the road to salvation.

The men's faith sharing group, Brothers in Christ, provides Catholic men with a forum to study the Bible together, to compare experiences striving to lead a faithful Catholic life, and to encourage one another to continue to grow in the Catholic faith. We are faithful to Church teachings, respectful of each other, welcoming of participants from different rites, apostolic movements, and other Catholic organizations, and require confidentiality to encourage participation.

- Are you thinking of becoming Catholic?
- Are you a Catholic who has been away from the Church or has never received the Sacrament of Confirmation?
- Are you a committed Catholic with a hunger to deepen your understanding of the faith?

The Order of Christian Initiation for Adults is the process by which one becomes a fully initiated member of the Catholic Church.

Participants can be those who are unbaptized and have no Christian background, those who were baptized and raised in other Christian communities, or Catholics who have not completed their Sacraments of Initiation (Confirmation and/or Eucharist).

The process is one of total conversion of self to the person of Jesus Christ.

Stewardship Lesson

“Did not God choose those who are poor in the world to be rich in faith and heirs of the kingdom that he promised to those who love him?” JAMES 2:5

What is more important – being rich in faith or rich in possessions? Society tells us that possessions are most important. God teaches us Stewardship. When we are rich in faith, we keep God first and experience true joy and peace. When we put possessions first, we soon realize we can never have enough and happiness is fleeting. When we put faith over possessions we truly realize it is better to give than receive.

WE ARE CALLED

Updates from Principal Ferguson & St. Michael Parish School

A CALL TO MAGNANIMITY

What joy to welcome Fr. Sunny Castillo back to St. Michael Church! As a mission of our Church, our School benefits so much from the passions and leadership of our Pastor. We have already been blessed by and so enjoyed getting to know our new Pastor.

At our first All School Mass, Fr. Sunny inspired our school students to learn about and become a BIG word...MAGNANIMOUS! (Whooo!) Pope Francis uses this word when he talks about Catholic schools and education, too. It refers to a "greatness of spirit" and is sometimes referred to as the "adornment of all virtues" because the magnanimous person always strives toward greater virtue. Being magnanimous means "stretching forth of the soul to great things." What a beautiful idea to imagine...the stretching forth of the soul to great things!

This past week, Fr. Sunny spoke through his homily about the children's "circle of influence." He shared that those we surround ourselves with have an enormous impact on how we live our lives...whether we know it or not. St. Paul wrote, "we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us." It is imperative that we lead by example and follow those who make our lives better!

As we begin this new school year, we rejoice in our togetherness...joined by our mission: "Forming disciples of Jesus Christ who know Him, love Him, and serve Him." May we do so with love! With generosity of spirit! With magnanimity! With the stretching forth of the soul! By the grace of God, we pray. "God is good! All the time!"
