FEAST OF THE ARCHANGELS

S E P T E M B E R 2 9

Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

CELEBRATING SAINT MICHAEL

September 29 is the Feast of the Archangels, and so as a parish dedicated to the patronage of St. Michael the Archangel, I greet you all, my dear parishioners, a happy feast day!

What are archangels? Pseudo-Dionysius, in his book "De Coelesti Hierarchia" organized the angels into three hierarchies and nine orders (also called choirs) so that angels can be classified and ranked. Those three hierarchies contain three choirs. The ones that are revealed to us are broken down as follows: The First hierarchy contains Seraphim, Cherubim and Thrones. The Second hierarchy contains Dominions, Virtues and Powers. The Third and Final hierarchy contains Principalities, Archangels and Angels. Thus, the archangels are not the highest forms of angels as we sometimes presuppose. They are, by Pseudo-Dionysius, second to the least in the third order of classification. Archangels are called the "great heralds of the Good News" because God sends them to deliver important messages to humankind. They are the ones that communicate and interact with us.

Who is Michael the Archangel? From the Hebrew name מִיכָאֵל (Mikha'el) meaning "who is like God," Michael is one of the archangels in Hebrew tradition and the only one identified as an archangel in the Bible. In the Book of Daniel in the Old Testament he is named as a protector of Israel (Daniel 12:1). In the Book of Revelation in the New Testament he is portrayed as the leader of heaven's armies in the war against Satan and is thus considered the patron saint of soldiers in Christianity. Michael is believed to be the angel who delivered God's divine inspiration to John in the Book of Revelation and is known as the protector of the Church, guarding her from evil. In contrast to Lucifer, the highest ranking of all the angels but fell into disgrace because of his desire to take the place of God, Michael the Archangel was known to have defeated the more superior "rebel angel" through his humility, that is, knowing his place in the order of the creatures, and putting himself at the service of God.

What can we learn from our patron saint? As a parish community dedicated under the patronage of St. Michael, we can learn from these spiritual insights about his virtues.

HUMILITY. We are most like God when we are humble. The greatest of sin is that of deifying ourselves, when we become presumptuous to think that we are better than God, or when we try to control our lives as if we do not need God. Humility is the acknowledgement that we need God in all that we are. As people dedicated to Saint Michael, this is at the heart of our virtue list. We are called to humble ourselves before God, and to acknowledge that all that we are and have come from God. This foundation of our parish spirituality dictates our actions and serves as a guidepost for discerning God's will for us as a community of faith.

SERVICE. The archangels are fully dedicated to the service of God. They exist only to execute the plan of God. Therefore, in the spirit of Saint Michael, we are also committed to be of service to God, as His Church. The question shifts from "What do we want to do?" to "What is God asking us to do?" It is a shift guided by humility, and it is executed with a fervent intention to give God the glory and praise, through our humble work. This is the reason why this same weekend of our parish feast day, we also highlight the opportunities to serve through our parish ministries.

VIGILANCE. The icon of Saint Michael is directly associated with the spirit of vigilance required in the spiritual warfare. Michael's image is one that shows the victory of God's messenger over the most powerful angel. We are called as a community of faith to remain vigilant of the fact that the power of evil continues to derail us from our desire to be with God. The war goes on, and we are called to be soldiers of the faith by replacing complacency with full engagement in the divine action.

Happy Feast Day, my dear Saint Michael parishioners. I am very proud of our parish, AND IT IS MY FERVENT PRAYER THAT WE CAN GROW IN HOLINESS AND GRACE TOGETHER, through the intercession of Saint Michael the Archangel, our patron. Saint Michael, pray for us.

With fervent expectations,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls.
Amen.

*Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests.
Through them, we experience your presence in the sacraments.
Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.
Set their souls on fire with love for your people.
Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.
Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.
Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.
Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.
Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.
We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest.
Amen.*

“Anyone who gives you a cup of water to drink because you belong to Christ, amen, I say to you, will surely not lose his reward.” — MARK 9:41

We as Christian Stewards are made in God’s image and likeness. We tend to forget this. When you look at others, do you see the face of Jesus in them? When others look at you, do they see the face of Jesus in you? When we realize that all lives matter to God, then gratitude and generously become easier. Why? Because that’s the way we are made! We are one Body of Christ; when one of us is hurting, all of us feel the pain.

Commemorating 75 Years of Catechesis, Evangelization and Service

All-knowing and loving God, we give you thanks for your blessings upon the Diocese of Joliet. For 75 years, we have been founded in faith, called to witness and,
sent forth to serve.

In thanksgiving, for your abiding presence among us,
and with gratitude for the life and service of those who have gone before us, we recommit ourselves to carrying out this mission entrusted to them, to us, and to future generations.

Relying on the intercession of our patron,
St. Francis Xavier, may our diocese continue to be a source of hope for the Church and all peoples, now and in the years to come.

We pray this in the name of Jesus, your Son by the power of the Holy Spirit.
Amen
