PRAYERS AND DEVOTIONS

At this writing, my pilgrims and I have arrived in Barcelona, Spain for the final day of our pilgrimage. It has been a very demanding journey, because the number of pilgrims is the biggest I have ever had in my twenty years of doing these holy journeys. But by the time we arrived in Lourdes, there was nothing to stop us from focusing on prayers and devotions.

I spent about four hours of my time praying for intentions in front of the cave of apparition. While I did, I had to cover myself in a blue poncho raincoat, because the showers were not stopping that afternoon. I managed to keep the prayer rhythm, and I was edified by the messages in the papers that you wrote, my dear parishioners. There were prayers for people who are dealing with mental, physical and emotional issues, things pertaining to cancer and depression. There were prayers for families to return to faith, and for broken relationships to be restored. There were prayers for discernment of God's will in their lives, and parents' prayers for their children. There were also prayers of good will for the nation and her leaders, for world peace, for calamity victims, and for our parish. There were some that simply made me pause and think more, like one that wrote, "For Jesus to open up my understanding, heart, soul and mind to look like His." Thank you also for your prayers for me; it put a smile on my face to read some very encouraging prayers for me in my capacity as your pastor. At the publication of this bulletin article, I will already be back from the pilgrimage, with many stories to tell and great expectations of answered prayers. Thank you, my dear parishioners, for the trust and confidence in me, to bring your prayers to these places of pilgrimage. You were remembered continually during the journey.

CONTINUED DEVOTIONS. Having been in Fatima, and aware that some may not ever be able to make it there physically, the arrival of the International Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima was truly the closest one can get to being there. I am confident that her visit to our parish has brought spiritual blessings, healing and renewal. Thank you to all who made her visit memorable, especially our Worship Commission, our Devotional groups and our school children who welcomed her with such joy.

CULTURE DEVELOPMENT. It is good to ask ourselves as a parish, Are we a parish that puts prayer and devotion at the top of all that we do? Granted, we do have two masses every day, and we have confessions on Tuesdays and Saturdays, and we pray our St. Michael Prayer and Hail Mary after every weekday mass. But what makes a parish culture truly rooted in prayer and devotion, in other words, in spirituality? Do we know how to pray to God, without using the Our Father and Hail Mary and other "canned prayers" that become our comfort zones when asked to pray in public? Do we know how to pray with our heart, and not our memory?

TEACH THE CHILDREN. We need to teach our young ones how to talk to God. It is character-building to encourage our children to verbalize what they are grateful to God for, what they are sorry for, what they ask from God in petition. But most importantly, the children need to know how to simply praise God. These are the roots of genuine spirituality, real relationship with God.

As I concluded my pilgrimage to the Shrines of the Blessed Virgin Mary, I made one more petition to the Lord – that every person who calls Saint Michael Church their spiritual home may grow in devotion and love of God. God bless our parish, and may we hear the call of the Virgin Mother to draw closer together to Her Son Jesus. Amen.

To Jesus through Mary,

Fr. Sunny Castillo

Sunday's Readings

First Reading:

If he gives his life as an offering for sin,
he shall see his descendants in a long life,
and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him. (Is 53:10)

Psalm:

Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.
(Ps 33)

Second Reading:

So let us confidently approach the throne of grace
to receive mercy and to find grace for timely help.
(Heb 4:16)

Gospel:

For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many. (Mk 10:45)

On September 29th, approximately 80 middle school students plus another two dozen volunteers came to hear Gina Carroll speak about the sanctity of life and then make 80 rosaries for the participants of the Eucharistic Procession for Life on October 19th.

Thank you for coming to hear Maggie Craig!

St. Michael Parish

On October 6th, over 150 students and their parents attended a reflection on Theology of the Body presented by Maggie Craig of Maggie Craig Ministries.

Here are a few significant points highlighted during the presentation:

- God is REAL
- God loves YOU
- God has great plans for your life

Plus, three main points from Pope St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body:

- The Body is Good
- The Body is not our own Creation
- The Body needs community

If you were unable to attend, there will be two meetings presented by LoveEd in January/February 2025 that will present similar information.

Bishop Hicks' Column October 2024

A prayer answered: Our new Auxiliary Bishop

Sometimes I get the impression that many people view the Diocese of Joliet as a "small" diocese. Perhaps this is because we border the mammoth Archdiocese of Chicago. However, to refer to us as "small" is rather misleading and inaccurate.

The Joliet Diocese serves over half a million Catholics in a geographic area of 4,218 square miles throughout DuPage, Kankakee, Will, Grundy, Ford, Iroquois, and Kendall counties. We are blessed with 117 parishes, 7 missions, 43 grade schools, 8 high schools, and 3 universities within our diocesan boundaries. To put the geographical size and scope into perspective, when I worked as Vicar General in the Archdiocese of Chicago, I put about 6,000 miles per year on my car visiting parishes, attending meetings, presiding at masses and celebrating sacraments. Now, I average over 20,000 miles per year attending to the same essential ministries.

In a diocese as large as ours, there has been an unwritten understanding that we would always have an auxiliary bishop. An auxiliary bishop is a bishop who assists the diocesan bishop in the administration and pastoral care of the diocese. Over the years, we have been blessed with six auxiliary bishops, including Daniel W. Kucera, Daniel L. Ryan, Raymond J. Vonesh, Roger L. Kaffer, James E. Fitzgerald, and Joseph M. Siegel. Bishop Siegel departed from our diocese and was installed in the Diocese of Evansville, Indiana, on December 15, 2017. Since that time, we here in the Diocese of Joliet have been patiently waiting, petitioning, and praying for a new auxiliary bishop.

On Friday, September 27, 2024, at 5:00 a.m. Central time, the Vatican announced that Pope Francis had appointed Rev. Dennis E. Spies as our new Auxiliary Bishop. Since that announcement, many people have asked me, "Who is Father Spies, and what is he like?"

Let me share some information. Bishop-elect Spies is 56 years old and is a native son of the Diocese of Joliet. He was raised on a farm in the small town of Ashkum, Illinois, and attended Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Parish. He was ordained a priest in 2002 and has both a Master of Divinity degree and a Sacred Theology degree from the University of St. Mary of the Lake. Following ordination, he ministered in a variety of assignments, including as parochial vicar at St. Walter's in Roselle and St. Mary Immaculate in Plainfield. He was pastor at Our Lady of Lourdes in Gibson City, St. George in Melvin, and Immaculate Conception in Roberts, as well as at St. Liborius in Steger, Mother Teresa Catholic Academy in Crete, and St. Mary Parish in Park Forest. He also served on the faculty at Mundelein Seminary and is currently the Vicar for Clergy for the Diocese of Joliet.

Besides his impressive education and wide variety of assignments, there is a consistent narrative shared by most who know him: he is hardworking, prayerful, and "down to earth" with a very relatable manner. He loves God and has a true friendship with Jesus. He wants the best for the Church and for God's people and works toward these goals in a sincere and humble way.

The evening before the big announcement of his appointment as Auxiliary Bishop, Father Dennis told his mom, Rose Mary, that the next day she was going to hear some big news about him. Not knowing what this big news was all about, Rose Mary talked with the wife of her son's best friend. With the keen instincts only a mother has, she said, "I think my son is going to be named a bishop!" The friend disagreed. So, they made a friendly wager as they anticipated the news. Later, when it was revealed that Father Dennis was indeed being named a bishop, the friend handed $20 to Rose Mary. Mom was right! However, when they both gleefully realized Father Dennis was actually staying within the Diocese of Joliet and not being relocated to another diocese, Rose Mary handed that same $20 right back to her friend!

Many of us find ourselves appealing to God for something specific: a definite decision in a definite time frame with a definite outcome. Here within our Diocese, besides our fervent asks of God, we tried to guess and predict who, when, and where a new bishop might be named. Why, I found myself doing the same, as much as I entrusted God with the decision. Despite our prayers and good intentions, we all eventually come to realize we are not in control of any process, even within the Church. Like all junctures in life, we have to rely on God's providence and timing. Even a bishop needs to be reminded once in a while that God's wisdom and timetable will always prevail and will be eminently right.

I thank God for the appointment of a new auxiliary bishop. Not only will he be a tremendous support for me with Confirmations, Masses, events, and the multitude of pastoral and administrative responsibilities, but he will also be a great gift to the Diocese of Joliet.

Please join me in congratulating Bishop-elect Dennis Spies and thanking the Holy Father for this appointment as our new Auxiliary Bishop. With gratitude and anticipation of his ordination on November 6, 2024, in unison we ask God to bless our soon-to-be Auxiliary Bishop, as we pray, "Come Holy Spirit."

Stewardship Service

“For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.” (MARK 10:45)

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God’s love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from “I want more” to “thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share”. This change to Stewardship will bring you joy through service to others. Pray daily to become less self-centered and to become more God-centered.
