Fr. Santos 'Sunny' Castillo — FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

OUR PARISH STEWARDSHIP: A RESPONSE OF GRATEFUL PRAISE TO GOD

My dear Saint Michael community, this weekend, we are providing you with the financial report of the parish (see Page 9). As you review it, please consider reflecting with me on Psalm 116:

"How can I repay the LORD for all the great good done for me? I will raise the cup of salvation and call on the name of the LORD. I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people. Dear in the eyes of the LORD is the death of his devoted. LORD, I am your servant, your servant, the child of your maidservant; you have loosed my bonds. I will offer a sacrifice of praise and call on the name of the LORD. I will pay my vows to the LORD in the presence of all his people, in the courts of the house of the LORD, in your midst, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!"

The psalm starts with an acknowledgment of the good things that God has done. In other words, every thanksgiving, every action of praise and every desire to give back stems from a deep-seated sense of gratitude, a recognition of how much we have received from a provident God. This is why it is so important to count our blessings first before anything else, in prayer. It is the very foundation of spiritual gratitude.

How can we repay the Lord (v12)? That question is a call to action, a summons to honor the generosity of God by doing something good as an homage to Him. The psalmist then proceeds to give some concrete steps on how to give back:

1. Raise the cup of salvation (v13). This is an expression that pertains to the annual sign of thanksgiving by the people of God. In the Feast of Fruits, the Israelites were prescribed to offer a quart of wine, which was poured on the altar of offering. It is a reminder that all the produce of the land comes from God and is meant to be returned as a thanksgiving offering.
2. Paying of vows (v14). When one makes a pledge to God, one must fulfill it. It is better to not vow than to vow without fulfilling it. The point of this is to remain true to one's commitment. Our faith is our commitment, as are our offerings. We return God's generosity by our action to abide by our words and promises.
3. Servanthood (v16). By serving the Lord and dedicating our work as sacrifice of praise, we fulfill the vow of thanksgiving. Not only are material goods able to offer due praise, one's service of time and ability also count as worthy offering.
4. Offering a sacrifice of praise, paying of vows in the presence of the people (v17-19). I believe the key element of this is that the offering is done in front of the people of God. That is because our thanksgiving action is a witness of praise. By our stewardship, we teach and inspire others to approach the Lord and give thanks for their gifts too.

There is so much riding in the words of the psalm, and I invite you to review the report of the thanksgiving offering of our parish as a whole. Certainly, our parishioners are doing their part to support our ministries through their monetary contribution, and I am also a witness then and now of how our parishioners are generous and joyful in offering their time and talents to accomplish the goals we set in our ministry and service to our brothers and sisters. We have a lot of volunteers, and we continue to count more and invite more, because our dreams continue to grow.

As I express my gratitude for all that you offer to God in our parish, I ask you to continue to prayerfully lay solid foundation to the future of the Church and our church community. I am proud of what you have accomplished this past year, and I look forward to achieving even more with you this year! In all we do, may God be praised. Amen.

In gratias et felicitas,
Fr. Sunny Castillo

Stewardship Good News

“And then they will see ‘the Son of Man coming in the clouds’ with great power and glory.” (MARK 13:26)

We will all have that day when we are standing before God and our life is played out like a movie. When this happens and God asks each of us, “What have you done with the gifts that I have given you?” How will you respond? The good news – it’s never too late to start living Stewardship in a grateful and generous lifestyle.
